

First Title Wrestling Match Here This Year is Tonight

WILDCAT HOT TO KEEP BELT

Barackman Wants it Back and Hard Fought Bout Appears Certain

The first title wrestling match of the year here is scheduled for tonight at the armory when Wildcat McEann and Mervin Barackman vie for the northwest championship wrestling belt.

This marks the first title match since last year when Barackman took the belt from Ernie Arthur here. Barackman has been a worthy holder of the belt, but it now belongs to Wildcat McEann. McEann has had the belt only three days, as it was uncertain at first just where it would go. The Wildcat is not satisfied with temporary ownership of the belt and intends to hold it at least long enough to get some pictures taken.

Evidently Barackman prized his possession too, for he seemed loath to lose it and is going into the ring tonight with only one intention. That, of course, is to win it back. Plenty of action and speedy wrestling are anticipated in tonight's match as each contestant wants that belt.

Barackman will have his wrestling bear here for the preliminaries and Matchmaker Harry Plant wants three good men to wrestle with the bear. The bear knows the rules to perfection and is an agreeable sparring partner. Another preliminary will be staged before the main event.

Normal Nine Loses Again To Bearcats

Oregon Normal school's ball tossers gave Willamette a harder tussle in the second game of their practice series Wednesday afternoon on Sweetland field.

Willamette won 5 to 3 but if one certain hard hit ball in the ninth had gone a few feet farther toward left field, the score would have been tied at that point. Willamette was out of the field with two men on, Wunder, O. N. S. pitcher, smacked one out of the lot but it was a little to the right of the flag that differentiates between a homer and a two bagger. Instead of scoring twice it counted only one and the next man grounded out to end the game.

Pete Gretsch who started on the mound for Willamette blanked the visitors for five innings, but Tweed who relieved him was wild and let in two runs on free passes, hit batsmen and wild pitches before Crawford relieved him. Crawford held Wolf's crew safe until the ninth.

Willamette's big inning was the fourth when four runs crossed the plate on singles by the Girod brothers, a walk to Messenger and Gribble's two bagger coupled with two errors. The error came in the seventh when Seales doubled, advanced to third on two walks and came in on Erickson's sacrifice fly.

Zeke Girod handled the team in the absence of Coach Keene, who succumbed to the lure of the trout.

S. H. S. TOSSEBS DEAT BULLDOGS

Woodburn Clouts Ball First Inning to Score Five; Salem Wins 8 to 7

Fair weather and dame fortune smiled on the Salem high school team Wednesday afternoon and the red and black defeated Woodburn high 8 to 7 on Olinger field.

Woodburn grabbed five runs in the first inning and led until the sixth. Some nice hits, and a bit of slow fielding on the part of Salem permitted the scoring. The red and black filled the bases in the first inning, but could not produce a hit at the right time and failed to score until the third inning when three runs were slipped over on the Bulldogs.

The score was tied in the sixth inning and each team added one run in the seventh. Then in the eighth Salem high broke through with another run and the scoring with the count being 3 to 7 for Salem. Louie Scheibler wielded the big stick for Salem high getting three timely hits, Foreman worked a double play and also clouted out a pair of hits.

Perrine, a freshman, pitched his first high school game and shows promise of being a good hurler. He got seven strikeouts and allowed 10 hits. However his support in the field was not so good as it might have been and this probably was responsible for a couple of the hits. B. Reed, pitcher for Woodburn, got nine strikeouts but allowed Salem to pound the horseshoe for 13 hits.

The next game for Salem high will be played Friday on Olinger field against Albany high, weather permitting. The Woodburn game was arranged at the last minute to take advantage of the sunny weather. A few lily ponds dotted the outfield and there was a mire around second base, but the remainder of the field was comparatively dry. Lack of practice was evident from the playing, but prospects look good. Coach "Holly" Huntington expects to make some changes in the outfield as soon as more practice is held.

HUBBARD TOSSEBS DEFEAT MT. ANGEL

HUBBARD, April 15—A league game between the Mt. Angel high school and the Hubbard nine was played here Tuesday afternoon with a score of 14 to 8 in Hubbard's favor.

Batteries were pitcher, Paulsen, catcher, Benoit, and infielders, Woodard and McArthur, catcher, Bigdoo, Hubbard.

The game was the second in the series of league games by the Hubbard team—the first being with the Gervais high school in a victory for the local boys.

The two remaining schools on the Hubbard schedule of league games are Parrish junior high of Salem and Scott's Mill high. Each school is to play a return game making a total of eight league games for Hubbard.

Senators Will Play Hillsboro Here on Sunday

The Salem Senators will practice tonight on Olinger field in preparation for the opening game of the Portland Valley league season, delayed from last Sunday. The Senators will play Hillsboro, the league officials having decided that the games not played last Sunday while the teams that did play remain idle. This will throw the entire schedule back a week.

CURT COMMENTS

Whatta ya know about those Ducks? First place all alone for the only time in about seven years except for a day or so season before last; and they've been winning their games with plenty of room to spare.

Frisco Edwards, who happened to be in the town that was named after him at the time of the opening games last week, says Portland has a good ball team and gives not only his own vote for it but that of his old pal Nick Williams.

But Frisco is inclined to give most of the credit to Spencer Abbott, who is just the kind of raw meat manager that rather individualistic club has needed for a couple of seasons back. Abbott's boss, every minute and second of his old pal Nick Williams.

Better get in your reservations for that opening game in Portland next Tuesday—they won't last long.

PORTLAND ALL ALONE ON TOP

Routs Oakland 19 to 6 in Track Meet; Missions and Angels win

(AP)—Portland's track team routed Oakland 19 to 6 in the first two innings. With every member of the team scoring at least one run and making an average of more than one hit, the Portland Ducks defeated the Oakland Red Sox 19 to 6. The visitors piled up 21 hits, of which Sammy Hale got 14. The Oaks collected 15 hits themselves off Orwoll but at no time was the Portland pitcher any danger. The team manager piled up a six-to-nothing lead in the first two innings.

Salem High's Track Outfit Taking Form

(AP)—Coach Vernon Gilmore of the Salem high track team was well pleased with the hard work and effort shown in the interclass track meet and is now seeking to strengthen the team in one or two events for the joint meet at Chemawa Friday in which Silverton, Chemawa and Salem high schools will participate.

Pole vaulters and high jumpers are needed more than anything else, unless it is sprint men. However some of the lettermen who did not run in the interclass meet will strengthen chances in those events. The men who run in the meet Friday will not necessarily be the ones who will be on the team later. Some of the winners in the interclass series were fellows who had not gone out for track before and if they work into shape, they will stand good chances of getting somewhere.

Two men will be entered in each event Friday except the pole vault which is composed of two relay teams. Some of the prospective candidates for the various events are:

Waltz, James, Elmaker or Morley—100; Waltz, Dyer, Morley or Elmaker—220; Graber and Sanford—440; Olson, Rodgers, J. Shephard or Cannon—880; D. Shephard, Reitz or J. Shephard—mile; Fowler and James—low hurdles—100; Muller, Welsor or Goddell—high hurdles; Muls, West or Foreman—pole vault; Muls, Tennant or West—high jump; Fowler, Muls or Morley—broad jump; Thomas, Moody or Sanford—discus; Thomas and Reed—shot put; and J. Reed—javelin; and Graser, Morley, Barnes, Dyer, Elmaker, Waltz or James—relay.

Mill City Nine Beats Aumsville

GERVAIS DEFEATS PARRISH TOSSEBS

Parrish junior high school opened its baseball season Wednesday losing to the clever Gervais high team 5 to 0 on the junior diamond at Olinger field.

Only a few practices have been held by the team this season and Coach Harold Hank is faced with the task of teaching the game to almost his entire squad as only three of the men are carryovers from last year. The crying need, which showed up Wednesday were for pitchers and practice.

Meyers pitched until the fifth inning when he was relieved by Vic DeJardin. At times each of the chuckers looked good, but could not cut corners on the plate with any semblance of regularity and the Gervais lads clouted the ball all over the field, constantly taking advantage of errors made by Parrish.
