New Music Group Will Make Bow Music Week

Music week this year will be filled with local color and offers new attractions from local artists. One of the outstanding of these new offerings will be that inspired by the realization of the need of greater emphasis being placed upon the importance of the piano by members of the Salem Music Teachers' association.

With this need in mind a group of the piano teachers formed an ensemble organization of 12 people and began earnest practicing in November. This interesting organization will make its initial bow to the Salem public May 8 in a grand piano ensemble with the following teachers playing: Dorothy Pearce, Bertha Junk Darby, Ruth Bedford, Joy Turner Moses, Jessie Bush, Ethel Polling Phelps, Bernice Clark East, Laura Grant Churchill, Leila Tarpley Lee, Lois Plummer, Irma Keefer and Elma Weller, who has by choice of the group acted as director.

The annual meeting at which time yearly reports will be given was announced for May 12. The program hour Tuesday night was given over to a book talk by Miss Harriet Long, state librarian. This was Miss Long's initial appearance before a Salem audience and her interesting discussion of a well selected variety of newly published books met with enthusiasm from her hearers.

Miss Myra Wieklander has returned to her home following a visit of several days in Portland.
