

GET SCHOOL AGENTS MANY

Pupils, Critics and Student Teachers Working on Spring Projects

VALSETZ, April 17.—Mary E. Bricenden, senior, teacher for the first-grade will remain until school is out.

Miss Bricenden is a student teacher and is teaching under Mrs. Claude Brown.

The first graders miss their little class mates who moved away.

They were Glen Hodson, Mark Hodson, and Dale Marquis.

Junior Davis is back in school after a week and half of absence caused by illness.

Pupils in the first grade have a new sand table, and they are bringing moss for spring project.

The second and third grades have a new junior Audubon club. Clyde Fisher is the president, his brother Delbert was elected secretary, Roy Gardner is treasurer.

There are 26 members, two are from the fourth grade.

There has to be 24 or 25 members to get a book about birds for each member.

The president called a meeting last week, and talked over business. The club has just received its bird pins.

Miss Neva Dallas, critic teacher, announces that the fourth, fifth and sixth grades are practicing a play in order to entertain their parents at a future date.

The new teachers are Myrtle Hall, from Vernonia; Thelma Quigley from Portland; Roena Tomlinson from Hobbes.

The seventh and eighth grade room has the following officers, president, Howard James, secretary, Dennis Johnson, magazine editor, Kathryn Cockran, dust orderly, Ruth Fosberg, carpenter, Milton King, picture orderly, Virginia Brown.

They have written to the state library for books on Russia and China.

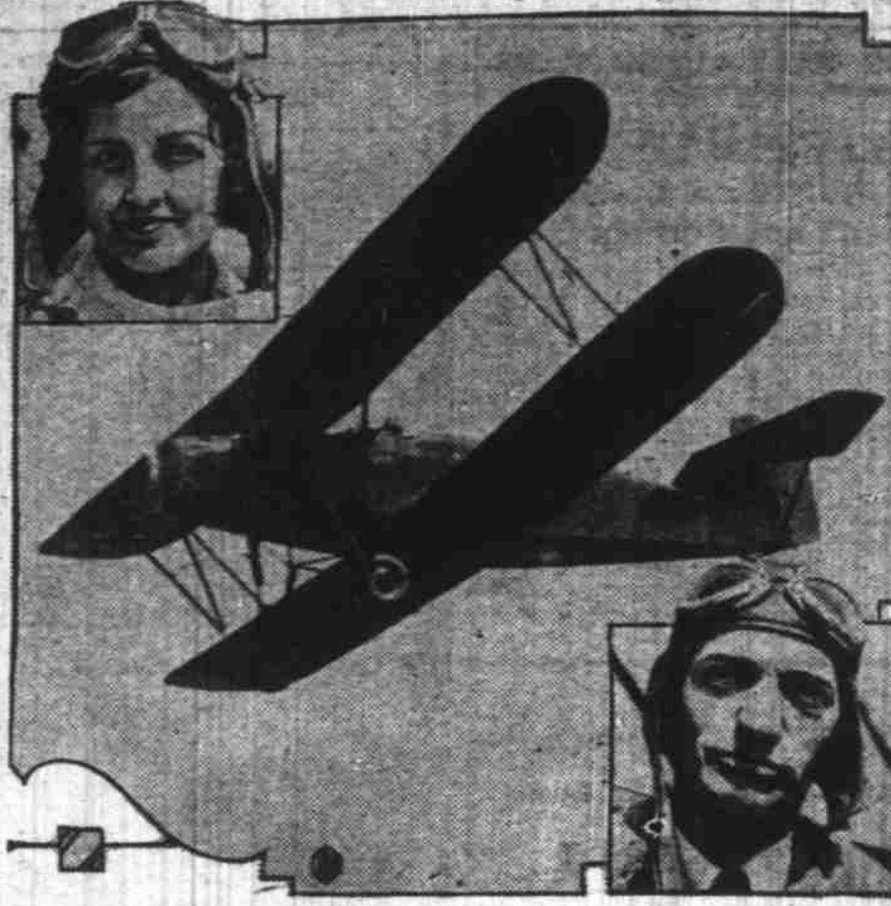

The Jack Knife Cookery class is to start as soon as the weather becomes nice enough for camp suppers.

They have finished an African and India project, and also have their very nicely arranged illustration things from these two countries.

The new student teachers are Miss Walker and Miss Gill.

The pupils are working for

HOME-MADE, BUT IT FLIES

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Day showed the aviation world something when they flew their home-made 4-cylinder wooden plane at Teterboro airport, New Jersey. The plane "Erica" is shown above in the air with the inventor, Charles Day, and wife, inset. They plan to make a round-the-world trip in the strange-looking plane.

OKRIDGE STAGES SUCCESSFUL SOCIAL

Only Eight Pupils in School But Piano is Paid for By Entertainment

OKRIDGE, April 17.—A capacity crowd attended the entertainment and basket social put on recently by the school. Talent from Salem and neighboring communities, under the direction of the teacher, Miss Grace Klampe.

The Okridge school house of district number 100 is located on the farm of the late former governor, T. T. Geer, about seven miles east of Salem.

The school is composed of eight enterprising "kiddies" who, according to visitors, show unusual talent both in dramatics and music. Some time ago a piano was purchased on the installment plan and through the cooperation of friends and neighbors at the entertainment the debt has been cleared.

Baskets, a cake, a pie and plate lunches were sold. Frank Bowers of Waldo Hills acted as auctioneer. Coffee was served free by the ladies of the community.

The program was as follows: Song, school, Oak Ridge Will Shine and Oak Ridge Will Shine; Dear Old Oak Ridge; piano solo, Viola Tooker, Macleay; reading, Pa Just Snored Away, Dorothy Parton; violin duet, Margaret Savage and Delbert Jepsen accompanied by Elizabeth Lewis, all of Salem; reading, Seeing Things, Earl Kleen; song, Doan Yo' Cry Ma' Honey, school; reading, Columbus Discovers America, W. R. Daugherty, La-Bish Center.

Musical numbers by Macleay included Junior orchestra under direction of Paul Silke; play, Old Mr. Particular, school; reading, Sister's Best Feller, Stanley Parton; vocal duet, Kathryn Taylor and Richard Johnson; song, The Japanese Sailor Man, school; reading, Bernadene Daugherty, La-Bish Center; music, Macleay Grange junior orchestra; vocal duet, Love's Dream, Grace and Frances Klampe; reading, The Middle Child, Kathryn Taylor; accordion solo, Wallace Doerfler; play, Dan Speaks a Piece; Oak Ridge school song, school.

Young and Old Vie for Honors Along Mill Creek

TURNER, April 17.—Many Turners arose much earlier than usual Wednesday morning and hid themselves to the best known fishing holes of Mill creek; they were all out, from school teachers, small children, business men and all down to the small boy who cast his line with the same zeal and determination, and hoped for good luck with the same feelings as those of the veteran fishermen.

A fish warden arose early too, in order to make his rounds and see that all was going well, that each caught enough, but not too many, and that the size was right. It is sure a job and he earns what is coming to him.

FAIRFIELD GRANGE IS ENTERTAINED

FAIRFIELD, April 17.—The social meeting of Fairfield grange after two postponements was held Tuesday evening at the hall.

The belated April Fool stunts which were a feature of the program provoked much merriment throughout the evening. The program committee was composed of Mrs. Jorgensen, Mrs. Mike Mahoney and Mrs. Freeman Marthaler.

After refreshments were served several tables of "500" were in play and dancing was enjoyed by others of the group until a late hour.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, April 23. Several members from the Waconda district will receive the first and second degree on this evening.

Refreshments will be in charge of the birthday committee.

AT CHURCH CONFERENCE JEFFERSON, April 17.—Rev. A. W. Oliver, pastor of the Evangelical church is attending the annual conference session of the Oregon conference which convenes at Salem this week.

Mrs. Nettie Reeves is a delegate from the local congregation.

ACCUSED

WOODBURN, April 17.—Speeches concerning vital issues of the day were given at the regular monthly meeting of the Woodburn chamber of commerce Wednesday night, when it met at the Saint Luke's community hall.

Speeches were given by George A. Pierson, president of the North Portland union of stock yards, and Gordon Taylor, Molalla newspaper man and a member of the state legislature from Clackamas county.

Pierson's talk was concerning the possibilities of hog raising in the Willamette valley. "With the proper use of pasture a farmer can get 100 pounds of pork out of 400 pounds of wheat," said Pierson. "That amounts to a dollar a bushel for your wheat which is considerably more than you can sell it for, if you can sell it at all."

Gordon Taylor's speech was about his views of the recent legislature and its problems. He said that the Willamette valley needs new blood and more settlers, and urged that the people in this part of the country urge persons from other parts of the country to settle in the Willamette valley.

It was decided that Woodburn enter the community talent contest which will be held May 15. The stunt to be presented will probably be a tubing act by the members of the Woodburn high school girls' gym class. The fact that a benefit game between the high school team and a town team will be played soon was told. C. J. Egan, head of the Boy Scout committee, reported that the $150 sent to the Cascade council of Boy Scouts did not seem to materially benefit the local troops, and it was decided to not send the money again this year.

The foreign trade of the United States in poultry products in 1930 increased 17 per cent in exports and decreased 48 per cent in imports as compared with 1929.

MEN'S BROTHERHOOD IS ENTERTAINED

TURNER, April 17.—The district Men's Brotherhood meeting was entertained at the Methodist Episcopal church at Turner Wednesday evening. The women of the church served a chicken dinner at 6:30, to 100 men who filled the first tables.

The evening meeting opened at 7:30 in the church, with O. W. Emmons president and Prof. Roy Lockenag, secretary, both are from Salem. Ronald Craven, a Salem soloist gave two numbers which were much appreciated.

Mrs. Jean Peary was the accompanist for the congregational singing.

Dr. Carl Gregg Doney gave the address of the evening in his own happy manner, on "Life's Opportunities" and how to use them, bringing many helpful suggestions and with his wit and humor, the talk was much enjoyed by all present.

But little business was transacted; the committee on nomination for a lay delegate to the next general conference made a partial report and Dr. McGruder of Corvallis made a report for the committee who is delegated to raise funds to help the Myrtle Point church pay its indebtedness.

Damaged Bridge Is Replaced

WACONDA, April 17.—Mike Mahoney, "the mail man," took his usual route through Mts. on Bottom Wednesday. A bridge at the foot of Hubbard hill was washed away by high water during the heavy rains and it has been necessary for him to retrace a part of the distance in order to serve all his customers on route 1.

Reconstruction work on the bridge was completed yesterday under the direction of Road Patrolman Robert Cole, and Mr. Mahoney is glad to take the usual route as it saves driving many miles further.

Skating Parties Want Electricity

MONMOUTH, April 17.—A recent student-council meeting at the Oregon Normal school brought forward the need of lights to facilitate evening skating on the tennis courts. E. A. Stobbs, executive secretary of the school, is to investigate the cost and other details of arrangement.

The possibility of awards of sweaters to debate participants also was discussed, but this was not definitely decided.

4-H Club Leader At Perrydale

PERRYDALE, April 16.—Miss Audrey Winken of O. S. C. called at school Tuesday and talked with the 4-H club members. She gave a very interesting talk to the girls.

Miss Carrie Flanery of Corvallis is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Andrew Campbell.

Mrs. Eugene Silke has returned to her teaching in Rickreall after several days at home with flu.

A number of Perrydale people attended the all day Farmers' Union at Bridgeport Tuesday.

FISHING GOOD

VALSETZ, April 17.—Everyone enjoyed a fine catch of fish on the opening day of the fishing season.

Fine weather was enjoyed, and nearly everyone large enough to hold a fishpope was fishing. The limit was caught by many.

MISS CECIL COLLINS ILL

ELDRIDGE, April 17.—Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Collins have received word of the serious illness of their daughter, Miss Cecil Collins, who is a nurse at St. Vincent hospital in Portland. Miss Collins has been ill for some time, suffering from pneumonia.
