Dinner Compliments California Guests

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Eckerson was the scene of a happy gathering recently when relatives met to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin LaBare and children of Los Angeles. Mr. LaBare is the brother of Mrs. Eckerson. Mr. and Mrs. L. W. LaBare of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Melhus and family of Hillsboro, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Riches and family and Miss Beryl Ottaway of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. F. LaBare and family, and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. LaBare and children of Wren; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Riches of McMinnville, Mrs. Cordelia LaBare, Mrs. Eckerson, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Eckerson.

Mrs. Dick Griffith and Miss Dixie Deal Griffith of Three Forks, Mont., has been the guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Ballard for the past few days. The visitors are making an extended tour of the Pacific coast and will leave Sunday for Seattle, and expect to arrive at their Montana home about April 25.

Memorial Service Is Interesting Observation

FOLLOWING the regular meeting of the Woman's Relief corps Saturday afternoon in Miller's hall a memorial service was held for those of the corps and the Grand Army who had passed away in the past year. Six of the Corps members and three of the Grand Army were remembered in this service.

Mrs. Lizzie Smith, past department president, gave a brief talk concerning the work of the corps and the four surviving charter members of the corps each spoke and recalled to memory incidents of the past concerning the life of the organization. These were Mrs. Helen Southwick, Mrs. Sarah Drager, Mrs. W. P. Babcock, and Mrs. Crawford.

In these talks it was brought out that the Relief Corps was the first fraternal order in Salem and has had 700 members during its life with now four charter members and 154 regular members.

Memories of the G. A. R. developed the fact that there are only three charter members left in Salem and that there are only 24 members of the organization now. The golden anniversary of the local G. A. R. will be celebrated next year.

Mrs. Mabel Lockwood gave an interesting tribute to the work accomplished by the W. R. C. and Comrade Harris spoke of the work of the two organizations during the past years.

Musical numbers were given by Mrs. J. A. Sholseth accompanied by Miss Olive Shurts.

General Aid Meeting Wednesday

A 1 o'clock luncheon meeting is planned by members of the general aid of the First Methodist church for Wednesday. There will be seven circles represented in this meeting. Mrs. J. W. Beckley will be toastmistress. A program of romances will be given by older members of the aid. An invitation is being extended to all members of the congregation and friends to attend this luncheon.
