HIGHLIGHTS IN CAREER OF NICHOLAS LONGWORTH

After nineteen years of married life, Mrs. Longworth presented her husband with a baby daughter, Paulina Longworth, was born on St. Valentine's Day just six years ago. The little miss immediately became a national personality and her father was the proudest man alive. Every spare minute of his time was spent with his baby and he once posed with his darling, holding the tiny tot in a market basket. There is a story that when Speaker Longworth first saw his baby daughter he remarked: "She looks more like a Roosevelt than a Longworth, but she's young yet."

Always a sport lover, Longworth kept himself in the pink of condition with tennis, golf, riding and long morning hikes. He was of superb physique and enjoyed robust health until an attack of lobar pneumonia ended his brilliant career after only four days' illness. The news of his death came as a shock to his legion of friends and President Hoover voiced the sentiments of the nation when he said: "His happy character, his sterling honesty, his courage in public questions, endeared him and held the respect not alone of his friends, but of the country at large. His passing is a loss to the nation."

"Nick" Longworth and Paulina became familiar figures in Washington. When the arduous duties of his office permitted they were to be seen at many of the parties given for the younger set in the Capital. The Speaker has been known to decline a political engagement to attend one such party. Only recently a visitor sought an engagement with Longworth on a certain afternoon. He was told it was impossible. "My daughter is participating in a children's play," the Speaker is reported to have said. "I could not afford to miss that." The last of Paulina's parties attended by her father was her sixth birthday party, on last St. Valentine's Day.

LOMAS DAVIDSON ACCIDENT VICTIM

O. S. C. Student Dies From Injuries Received When Car Upsets

MONMOUTH, April 20.—Miss Lomas Davidson of Waldo hall, an Oregon State college student, died in Monmouth about 8 o'clock Sunday night from injuries received when the car in which she was riding south with three other Oregon State students, went over a bank near the Valley and Siletz railroad crossing at Helmeick Park, four miles south of Monmouth.

Miss Dagmar Flood was driving, and in the front seat with her was Rollin J. McDonald of 120 N. 14th street, Corvallis. In the rumble seat were Miss Davidson and Kenneth ("Pat") Malone.

Miss Flood was unhurt and was taken to Corvallis. Malone was seriously cut and otherwise injured. A passing motorist brought Malone, McDonald and Miss Davidson to Monmouth for medical aid, but Miss Davidson expired before help could be administered. Her body was taken to the Keeney Funeral home at Independence.

PROHIBITION REFORM LEADERS

The aid of President Hoover in bringing about repeal of the 18th Amendment was sought by 300 feminine opponents of Prohibition who filed through the White House and brought with them a petition adopted by 1,000 delegates to the Convention for National Prohibition Reform. Among the leaders are, left to right, Mrs. John S. Sheppard of New York; Mrs. James Ross Todd, State Chairman of Kentucky, and Mrs. Charles H. Sabin, of New York.

Mother's Quick Action Saves Life of Child

SWEGLE, April 20.—Richard Lawrence, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Lawrence, was severely burned about the hips when he accidentally set his clothes on fire. Only the quick action of his mother saved him from being fatally burned. She was washing and immersed him in a tub of water.

Malone was taken to Corvallis by Irvin Egan, ambulance driver of Independence. Sheriff T. B. Hooker and County Coroner Hendle interviewed McDonald at Monmouth. McDonald then went on to Corvallis.

Miss Flood's home was said to be near Astoria. Malone is from Santa Monica, California. McDonald's home is at Lakeview and Miss Davidson's home is not known.

The young people were returning to Corvallis from Salem when the accident occurred.

President Moor has appointed the following committee to take charge of the meeting: Mrs. Charlie Anderson, Dr. Fred Ellis and Mrs. Frank Marshall. Hayesville Woman's club will meet with Mrs. Teel Thursday at 2 o'clock.

TO RACE IN ITALY

Loretta Turnoll, of Monrovia, Calif., the American girl speed-boat champion, demonstrates the manner in which she will pilot her craft through the waters of Lake Garda, Italy, in the International Regatta next month. The pretty contender from the Golden State is hopeful of guiding her boat, emblazoned with the national emblem, to victory.

VALSETZ P. T. A. FEATURES DANCES

Funds Secured for Work On Behalf of School Children

VALSETZ, April 20.—The monthly meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association was held Thursday evening in the community hall. Mrs. M. E. Raymond presided. Mrs. Levi Green gave the report on the last dance. After the orchestra was paid and several little bills, the clear profit was $16. This went to the P. T. A.

As soup had not been made for some few weeks in the soup kitchen, Mrs. Bert Thomas was elected chairman of a clean up committee and the entire kitchen is to have a general house cleaning. She is to choose her own helpers. Mrs. Levi Green was elected chairman of the dance committee for the entire year for all P. T. A. dances.

The banner was voted on and went to the eighth grade, Mrs. Clara Thompson's room. The meeting was closed with singing. A very dainty lunch was served by Mrs. Oran Marquis and daughter.

The next dance given by the P. T. A. will be given April 25 and will be an apron and shirt sleeve dance. Everyone is invited to attend.

GEORGE PARMENTIER ILL. HAZEL GREEN, April 20.—George Parmentier is seriously ill at the Deaconess hospital. He went to Salem some time ago to his daughter's Mrs. Marjorie Williams' because of illness. Mr. Parmentier and family came from Colorado and bought land here near the schoolhouse 14 years ago. The family is unusually gifted in music. They contributed largely to school and community programs.

DALLAS PLANS CLEAN-UP WEEK

Inducement Offered Home Owners who may Re-model Houses

DALLAS, April 20.—The Kiwanis club program Friday noon was given over to a discussion of various topics relating to clean-up week, which will be April 19 to 24. Mayor Leif Finseth made a short talk on the object of clean-up week. Dr. Starbuck discussed the community health angle; F. E. Siemsen stated the part that fire prevention plays in the community; C. L. Crider related the things that a merchant may do towards clean-up; N. L. Guy spoke of the clean-up of yards and gardens; J. R. Allgood on general civic improvement and Maurice Dalton on home modernization, stating that he had recently remodeled his home and the results were most satisfactory.

The announcement was made that the Willamette Valley Lumber company as an inducement to remodel old homes, to the first person undertaking such a program they would give all of the common labor needed and charge 60 per cent of cost for all clear lumber. This offer would be open to all persons residing in Dallas and within a radius of five miles and would apply to business as well as residence property, barns would be excluded. Then if the program were actively sponsored a special discount of 25 per cent would be allowed on all materials for a period of five months.

J. R. Allgood announced that the members and their wives would attend a dinner at McCoy, April 29, and that in May a similar meeting would be attended at Oak Grove.

OUT OF HOSPITAL
