GYMNASIA WILL BE OFFERED TONIGHT

First Annual Event at High School Under Direction of Vernon Gilmore

The first annual Gymnasia will be held at Salem high tonight with the various gym classes demonstrating the work they have been doing this year and also combining the comic with the classic in gymnasium stunts and apparatus work.

Coach Vernon Gilmore, physical director of Salem high school, is responsible for systematizing the gymnasium work at the high school and has also been responsible for the introduction of a number of new activities in the physical department. During the year a number of exhibitions have been given by various groups of the classes and have met with such approval that it was decided to organize all of the performances into one complete demonstration, the proceeds of which will go toward buying more gymnasium equipment.

Numerous Events Are on Program
Callisthenics, marching, apparatus work, stunts, tumbling, pyramid building, egg stunts, wrestling matches and a feature combination tumbling stunt by Fred Smith and George Fowler will make up the evening's program. Special features which have possibilities of being highly interesting are an egg breaking contest and a free for all wrestling match.

The eggs are to be mashed on boys' heads with folded paper and not thrown. In the free for all wrestling match 20 fellows will be "every man for himself", and the last one to remain standing will be the winner. Fifty fellows will participate in the program.

Students Work Out own Program
During the year the fellows have had a large part in working out their own programs, and Gilmore has acted mostly as an organizer and advisor. The leader's training class has been a big help to him in carrying on his work as student leaders make it possible to divide the large gym classes into several groups permitting more detailed work to be presented.

The complete program includes:
Marching: Callisthenics and drill.

ROTARY HEARS OF DISTRICT MEETING

Rotarians were pepped up for the district convention to be held at Portland the first four days of next week by the report of Prof. W. I. Staley, who was just back from Portland and told of plans for the convention. The opening session is Sunday night and many local members will attend for part or all of the programs.

The election of officers was held and the mate as previously nominated was chosen, headed by Max Page for president. They will take office in July.
Ronald Hudkins, high school representative member of the club, was program chairman and ran through an interesting group of numbers. The Midget trio of Willamette girls sang, two numbers, and two high school girls, Mary Jane and Frances Lau, gave

Costs No More Than White Gasoline

7 U.S. Patents
Protect the Violet
Ray Process of Refining
Removes all Naphthenic and Sulphur Bearing Acids

The one and only gasoline in which you have the physical, scientific evidence of freedom from acids is—Violet Ray.

Its violet color could not exist if acids were present. Their least presence would turn the gasoline back to white.

No written guarantee, no personal opinion however sincere, could give you such positive protection against acid gasoline... and acid gasoline if taken into your motor is bound to attack and corrode its vital mechanism, reducing motor efficiency and causing unnecessary repair bills.

You can avoid these damaging acids only by using violet-colored Violet Ray.
