May Day Tea Wednesday Event

One of the most attractive social functions in Willamette univarsity circles is the tea for the May queen. This year the tea will be given at the Delta Phi sorority house of which the May queen, Miss Betty Lewis, is a member. The time has been set for Wednesday afternoon between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock.

Miss Edith Findley will introduce to the line in which will stand the queen, Miss Betty Lewis, her attendants, Miss Evelyn High and Miss Grace Henderson and Mrs. Paul Edwards, house mother of the Delta Phi, Mrs. John Lewis of Portland, mother of Mrs. Lewis, and Miss Elizabeth Atkinson, president of the

A color scheme of pink and green will be carried out in the guest rooms. A musical program will be given by Miss Frances Laws, Miss Elizabeth Clement, and Miss Lillian Scott. Freshman girls will serve from the tea table. Miss Gertrude Oehler is in charge of the committee on arrangements.

Guests will be university women and interested townswomen are also invited to call between the hours of 3 and 5.

Portland Garden Club Plans Exhibit

All native Oregon wild flowers which it has been possible to collect will form one of the interesting exhibits at the Portland Garden club's big flower show to be given May 2, 3 and 4 in Laurelhurst park by that organization and the bureau of parks cooperating. Entries have been coming in from all parts of the state; private individuals whose gardens are their hobbies, garden club, commercial growers will exhibit.

One of the features of the evenings' entertainment will be the singing of a group of Italian troubadours who will strum their guitars from gondolas on the lake. Grand opera and popular street songs will be rendered by the boatmen. In the afternoon a concert band will supply the music. Tea will be served from one
