Information on Loan Forms Not To be Given Out

supervisor is not an information bureau for private investors, and if he discloses information to private persons concerning the business affairs of any institution under his jurisdiction, he is liable to the full extent of the law, according to an opinion handed down by Attorney General VanWinkle Wednesday. The opinion was requested by James W. Mott, state corporation commissioner.

Here We Are Again with the First of Another Month Coming Up

That of course is very bright of us, discoverin' that April is about over, and if we were inclined to brag we'd tell you that April to date this year is a little more'n double last April (meanin' of course our sales are more'n double last April).

And Bragging About it reminds us of the old saying (we killed a bear). We have a time or two in the past hurt ourselves considerably by patten' ourself on our back on account of havin' done something we thought was pretty smart only to find out later that it wasn't us that done it (wasn't us that done something big we mean).

Now As We Start to Say the first of the month means a lot to Busick's stores because there are always a large number of people who have by comparison found that it is to their advantage to join the thousands of people who have found the savings at Busick's from day to day one of far greater importance than the saving on an item or two marked special Saturday and Monday.

AND WE MIGHT SAY IN PASSIN'

that the first of the month has still another significance to us personally and that is when we get through payin' our personal bills our purse is flattened out flatter'n a pancake. The contents of which reminds us of what a lady told us she sayed by tradin' at chain stores for six months.

We wouldn't like it, even if it could be done. A friend of ours said to us the other day, Bill, why don't you folks put in other stores up and down the coast and grow big? You could do it, he said (flattery, of course). But if we could we wouldn't like it. We'd rather be known as we are and have the friends and customers we now have than to be known from coast to coast as a big business man. That's the truth.
