Red Hills District Sunday School Group Holds Quarterly Session

ROSEDALE, May 4 .- The Red Hills district Sunday school convention met in all day session at the Friends church here Sun-

The morning address was given by Rev. Walter Shock of only frequent heavy rains would Woodburn and in the af ernoon Rev. Edgar Busch who is holding evangelistic services at the First Church of God in Salem, gave an address on "Sunday no subsoil supply, and that in School Evangelism".

He based his remarks on Matt. 28:19, 20, "Every teacher should be an evangelist." "Religious teaching is solution of the problem of juvenile delinquency."
"The ultimate aim of all Sunday school teaching should be to bring the people into right relationship with God." One of the problems connected with Sunday school evangelism is the lack of any religious teaching in many homes. Another is the secularized and skeptical teaching received in many of the public
