By Salem Heights Club CALEM HEIGHTS. - The

Officers Elected

Woman's club of this com-munity held their last meet-ing of the year at the Salem Heights community half Friday at 1 o'clock. A large number were present. Long, beautifully decorated tables were set in the dining room for the potluck luncheon. After the luncheon s long business session was held at which the reports of the president and treasurer were had as to the extent of the work accomplished the past year, also the reports of the delegates who attended the county federation at Stayton were heard,

A discussion then followed as to the procedure the club would take relative to the suppers which are to be held by the community club next year. A committee was appointed to carry out the plan of canning surplus vegetables to be stored and have in readiness for future suppers as certain vegetables are hard to obtain out of season. A motion was made and carried that a contribution box be made and be placed in a conspicuous place at the next regular supper of the community club and that the funds received by this box will be the Woman's club's donation for the year to the Waverly home. Plans were also discussed and adopted that another artistic quilt will be made up and given away as a prize in the near future.
