

WILD PIGEONS DAMAGE CROP

Droves of 300 to 500 In- vade Grain and Berry Fields

PLEASANT VIEW, May 6.—Several of the farmers in this vicinity are having a difficult time to save their grain and strawberry crops from being devoured by wild pigeons. It has been estimated that they are in droves of from 300 to 500 birds.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fehlen, of Stayton, are staying indefinitely at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller. Mr. Fehlen is convalescing from a serious illness.

Miss Leone Cook had as weekend guests the Misses Marjorie Pickard and Nellie Barber.

Stella Miller, Mable Tucker and Archie Rankin were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller.

Lloyd Jarman and John Shilling made a business trip to Detroit the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cook were dinner guests Sunday at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. C. Tenbergen of Macleay.

Guests at the Frank Cook home the early part of the week were Mr. and Mrs. Jay Cook and daughter, Carolyn. Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Howe and so on Harvey of Salem.

FAMILY FIGURES IN TWO ACCIDENTS

SILVERTON, May 5.—Haroldine Lamb, the little three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lamb, was hurt about the face when she fell from the automobile which her mother was driving.

In the car were Mrs. Harold Lamb, Mrs. George Lamb, Helen Lamb, Margery Lamb and little Haroldine. Haroldine was sitting in the back row up and opened the door before the others could prevent her. She started to fall out and caught the handle with her thumb, twisting it badly and finally rolling out into the ditch. Helen Lamb, who was also in the back seat tried to get the child's mother to stop but she didn't at first understand and had come 200 feet before she got the car stopped. The little girl was badly bruised about the face but was conscious. She was taken to a Salem doctor where stitches were taken in the face.

The party returned to Silvertown Sunday started to Salem again. At the corner of Commercial and Lincoln streets another car smashed into them doing considerable damage to the Lamb car. They returned to their Silvertown home without carrying out their intention of paying visits to Salem friends.

Dallas Queen Race Changes

DALLAS, May 6.—The May queen race showed a decided change here yesterday when the fourth count of the ballots was made. Previous to this time the race has progressed slowly with Ellen Boman holding a slight edge. The count yesterday showed a close race between Ruby Voth and Ellen Boman. Miss Voth led with 1165 votes with Miss Boman a close second with 1076. The other two contestants dropped behind with Mona Brooks having a vote of 647 and Doris Newbill 585.

The next count comes Thursday, May 7, at 10 a. m. The candidate lowest in the score will be dropped at that time. The three remaining will be the queen and her two attendants depending on the final count taken Saturday, May 9.

GRANGE TO MEET

NORTH HOWELL, May 6.—Friday evening is the regular grange meeting for May. As announced at the last meeting the program will be a "family night" affair each family being asked to contribute one number on the program.

RULE NO. 1

In regard to Federal Quarantine the fact has been determined by the President of the Oregon State Board of Horticulture that the Federal Quarantine act of August 20, 1919 (37 U. S. Statutes at Large, page 215), as amended, are necessary to prevent the introduction of dangerous plant diseases into the state of Oregon.

Newly therefore, J. T. A. Sammis, Jr., President of the Oregon State Board of Horticulture, under the authority conferred by section 1 (b) chapter 354, General Laws of Oregon, 1927, and section 4, chapter 343, General Laws of Oregon, 1926, hereby rules that nursery stock plants, bulbs, fruits, seeds, or other articles of any character whatsoever, capable of carrying or disseminating insect infestation, transported into the state of Oregon in violation of said quarantine, are subject to seizure and destruction by employes and inspectors of the Oregon State Board of Horticulture, or to be sent out of the state at the option and expense of the owner or owners, his or their responsible agent or agents.

Done in the office of the Oregon State Board of Horticulture, Portland, Oregon, this 30th day of April, 1931.

T. A. Sammis, Jr., President, Oregon State Board of Horticulture, Executive Office, Salem, Oregon, May 2, 1931.

J. Julius Le Meter, Governor of the state of Oregon, do hereby approve the foregoing proclamation and designate the following newspapers in the state of Oregon as the newspapers in which said proclamations shall be published: The Oregonian, Portland, Oregon; The Statesman, Salem, Oregon; The Journal, Portland, Oregon; The Statesman, Salem, Oregon; The Journal, Portland, Oregon; The Statesman, Salem, Oregon.

QUIZZING "KILLER" NANNERY

Parking an expensive car at the wrong side of the street plus the acute mind of a village cop resulted in the capture of "Killer" James Nannery, once labeled as "the most dangerous man alive." Nannery squirmed his way out of Sing Sing in 1928, and has since been sought in the most sensational crimes of the past decade. He is pictured above being questioned by the police. Behind him is his captor, Patrolman Charles Ripley, of Dover, N. J., and Trooper Sergeant Volley, while a stenographer takes his confession. New Jersey authorities are preparing to hold him as a candidate for its own electric chair, while New York State seeks him to answer three murder charges.

SCHOOLS JOIN FOR FESTIVAL

North Santiam and West Stayton Enjoy Spring Festival

WEST STAYTON, May 6.—Friday afternoon the North Santiam school joined the West Stayton kiddies for May day exercises.

The program was opened by a song by North Santiam pupils.

Song—West Stayton pupils.

May pole dance—North Santiam and West Stayton. The North Santiam May pole was very attractive in green and white; that of West Stayton was pink and green.

A health play "The Magic Door" was given by the West Stayton pupils. This play took nearly an hour but was greatly enjoyed by the large crowd present.

Two ball games followed the program and West Stayton was victor in both games the boy's game was not finished on West Stayton having a vote of 1165 with Miss Boman a close second with 1076.

Everyone present took unusual interest in the boys' ball game and it was very interesting to see the little fellows play just as best they knew how.

STAYTON PIONEER CALLED SUDDENLY

STAYTON, May 5.—William Grier passed away at his home here early Monday morning.

As was his usual custom, he arose early to build the fire. Later his brother, J. B. Grier, who made his home there arose and noticed William apparently asleep in a chair. After he had built the fire he attempted to awaken him, but to no avail.

As Mr. Grier had been in poor health for many years his death was not unexpected. He was 87 years of age, and was born in Morgan county, Ohio. He crossed the plain in 1852, locating in Clackamas county. In 1860 he came to this section on the regular time taught school at Sublimity. Later he engaged in farming.

Beside his widow, Matilda Grier, he is survived by two children, Mrs. Susan Haynes, and James Grier, both of Mill City; a brother, J. B. Grier, of Stayton and two grandchildren. Four children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Grier, two having passed away years ago.

Funeral services will be held at the Baptist church here on Wednesday at 2 p. m., conducted by Rev. Wolverton, of Albany. Interment will be in the Fairview cemetery at Gates. The wedding mortuary of the place will have charge.

SHARPSHOOTER SHOWS HOW

Peggy Perkins, co-ed of the University of Kansas, with her sharpshooting rifle and the silver loving cup presented to her by the Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America of the State of Kansas. She has attained a season average of 96.72.

They returned home Sunday evening and when asked about the trip replied, "Oh the trip was grand but fishing down there is only a huge joke." They acknowledged that Frank Thompson was the star fisherman, he and a wife caught three while no one else in the party caught any.

Percy Zumwalt as driver of Mr. H. J. Elliott's truck took the crowd.

With well filled lunch baskets they started out at seven thirty and returned in the evening, tanned and sunburned until their voices were all that one could recognize.

Those making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Percy Zumwalt, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Silke, Miss Wanda Elliott, Miss Helen McMillan, Thorval Miller, Viola

Gervais considers new water tank

GERRVAIS, May 5.—A short time ago the old water tank, which has been in use in Gervais water system for more than 25 years sprang a leak, and the office of the State Labor Bureau came came out and inspected the large tank, with the result that it was condemned as dangerous to use. At the meeting of the city council Monday night, the council made a tentative contract with a Portland firm for a new tank of 100 pounds pressure of code type. It will cost $1175 installed, and will weigh 15,000 pounds.

An election will have to be held to allow the expression of the voters upon the action of the State Labor Bureau and the expenditure of the sum necessary for the installation of the new tank. The date of the election will be announced later, some time in June will probably be set.
