PUGET SOUND'S SQUAD ON WAY

Game on Olinger Field at 3:30 First Conference Tiit at Home

Following a highly successful preliminary season, the conference baseball games of Willamette university are getting under way with the Bearcats biting off four assignments in one week just to get started right.

In games played with Oregon State college, U. of O. and Columbia university, Willamette has won six of eight games scoring 70 runs to 46 for the opponents. Oregon State defeated Willamette twice and lost once to the Bearcats. The Beavers were the only ones to win from Willamette. U. of O. fell three times in a row before "Spec" Keene's heavy hitting squad. In addition to these games Willamette won twice from the Oregon Normal school and once from the penitentiary team.

Today and Thursday will mark the opening northwest conference baseball games in Salem with the C. F. S. Loggers here with their bats and peavies to try and roll Willamette aside and clear the championship road. They will be on Olinger field starting at 3:30 p. m.

Saturday Willamette will play Pacific at Forest Grove. Last year Willamette sailed through the baseball conference without taking a single defeat. Although the pre-season showing this year has been more impressive than that of last, the other conference teams have likewise made better showings.

Hitting Strength Added This Year

Willamette has had good fielding teams in the past, but now it has added heavy hitting to its accomplishment. At present the team average for hitting is 329. Four players are hitting 500 per cent or over and only one is below 100. Andy Peterson is leading the squad with 17 hits and a percentage of 630.

It is pleasing to note that the next five in line are freshmen. The batting averages for the games with O. S. C., Columbia university and U. of O. are as follows:

SALEM HIGH NINE LOSES TO EUGENE

Last Friday Coach "Holly" Huntington's baseball nine walked around in the clouds, handily beating Silverton high 21 to 4. Tuesday the same players put on an exhibition of walking in the sleep and allowed the ancient foe-men of Eugene to carry home a 12 to 8 victory.

A significant fact is that four times Salem men were caught napping off base by the alert Eugene batters. This same condition was prevalent in all departments of the game.

Perrine was knocked out of the box in just one and two-thirds innings and was followed by Van Cleave who pitched a good game. However his fielders showed drowsiness and not all of the 12 runs were earned. On the other hand the Eugene men played good ball and Salem had to earn its six runs.

Friday or Saturday the O. S. C. rocks will be played here. A number of the men wish to see the state track meet at Corvallis Saturday so the game will be played on Friday if arrangements can be made.

Acid Test for Jimmy

By HARDIN BURNLEY

KETCHEL... HE TURNED THE TABLES ON PAPKE IN THE MOST DRAMATIC OF FISTIC REVERSALS!

JIMMY McLARNIN—WHO WILL TRY TO REVERSE HIS DEFEAT BY THE FARGO EXPRESS, BILLY PETROLLE, IN A RETURN BOUT MAY 8!

WHEN Jimmy McLarnin engages Billy Petrolle in a 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden next Friday night, friends of "Baby Face" hope he will feel like the immortal Stanley Ketchel did when he squared off with the famous Billy Papke in their second battle. Old-timers may say it's quite far-fetched to invoke the heroic shade of Ketchel in connection with "such glorified club fighters as McLarnin and Petrolle."

Nevertheless there is a parallel so far as the fistic fates were, and are, concerned. And here it is. Petrolle gave McLarnin a severe beating during most of their 10-round sockfest in New York City last Nov. 21. It was a genuine upset, for Jimmy was a 4-to-1 favorite to win. Some even quoted such odds that "Baby Face" would stop the veteran. Instead, Petrolle came close to rocking McLarnin to sleep. Only Jimmy's courage prevented that.

Back in 1908, Papke caught Ketchel with a terrific punch before Stan was warmed up and Billy administered fearful punishment, finally stopping the champion in the 12th round. That was on Sept. 7. Less than three months later, Ketchel retrieved the middleweight crown by kayaking Papke in the 11th round of another slashing bout. Grisy and deeply disappointing memories of Papke's punishing prowess did not daunt the Bon-heated Ketchel. He was of the rawhide type—insensible to pain, it seemed, and he never

Gretsch Hurts Nice Ball to Allow Only Four Hits; Peterson Homes

Willamette university opened its 1931 baseball championship drive Tuesday, defeating Lintfield 8 to 0 at McMinnville with Pete Gretsch pitching shutout ball allowing but four hits. Today at 3:30 Willamette will play College of Puget Sound on Olinger field.

The Bearcats started the fireworks early in the game with Peterson hitting a home run with one man on. Three runs were made in the first inning and three again in the third. The other two runs came in the fifth and the ninth. The Wildcat fielders played steady which stopped a lot of long drives from being hits.

Pete Gretsch had the Wildcats perfectly domesticated and even chasing mice for him so to speak, eight times as they tapped the ball just hard enough for him to pick up. Gretsch stopped the ball in his home town, but slammed out three hits with three times at bat. Moore also batted 1,000 percent with two out of two and Gill did the same thing, one out of one. Messenger rolled a three base hit off his bat.

DALLAS, May 5.—The Industrial team came through with a 3 to 2 win over the Farmers in the Twilight league opener here yesterday.

The Industrials scored in the first, third and fourth innings of the five inning league game. Their men reached the bases every inning but they could not bunt their hits to score. The Farmers were unable to connect with Patchell's speed ball until the fourth. They threatened in the fourth but Patchell managed to knock through with some fine support.

In their half of the fifth the Farmers pushed across two runs but could not make the tying out. This rally was the result of some timely hitting and some errors on the part of the Industrials. The batteries were: Patchell and Luthie, and Vaughn and Rosebaugh. Umpires were Mathews and Robinson.

CURTIS COMMENTS

There'll be one less sport page in Oregon tomorrow. Too bad. The Telegram sport page didn't give exceptional state coverage but was the liveliest and dearest part of the paper. Maybe the News-Telegram can make up for what both have lacked in outside coverage.

Went down and took a look at the Ducks yesterday. Picked a poor day to see much action as it was a mound duel, but saw plenty of a couple of Duck pitchers—Posedel and Bowman. Posedel kept the ball inside the infield most of six innings and Bowman the rest of the game. Posedel had two of these scratchy. Just seven times it got past the infield without being touched.

Posedel was throwing a sinker that had the Suds swinging six inches over the plate. Bowman served up a booming fast one that hopped several ways. One fellow behind us said "that was an upshot," and it looked like it to us but we know better.

Pitching like that sort of prevented the fielders from showing us much but Johnson did some distance running out into right field to pull down Texas leaguers and Fenton showed all the agility and first base we've seen reading about, turning wild throws into putouts.

Didn't see much hitting, as Zahnsler and Freitas were almost as stingy as the Duck pair but anyway the boys swing pretty nice.

First time we ever saw a pitcher yanked after striking out the first man up and making the second one ground out. But Posedel had hurt his elbow again—the injury started opening week at San Francisco—and that was Abbott's reason for jorking him.

Saw Johnny Beck leaning over the rail looking gloomily at the bullpen, "where he'd often been before. Looked like he'd admire to be back there and we'll bet he will some day.
