

John Kellis, Southwest Grappler, Here to Meet Pete

MATCH BILLED NEXT TUESDAY

New Arrival has Record of Wins Over Some Tough Gents Known Here

Figuring that new blood is the crying need of the wrestling game in Salem, Matchmaker Harry Plant has imported an honorable whom he thinks will fill the bill, John Kellis of Tulsa, Okla. Kellis is a middleweight and has had a record of 10-3-0 in his next Tuesday night—note the date, Tuesday—against Wildcat Pete.

That ought to prove right off the bat whether or not Harry made a mistake in bringing Kellis out here at some expense to the local management. However, Plant knew the man's record and he brings along clippings which indicate he is the goods.

Kellis some time ago defeated Young Hackensmith, of Carthage, Mo., who a couple of years ago gave Pete an awful battle at Eugene. Hackensmith is a strong, rough bruiser and if Kellis can beat him he'll stand the racket in these parts.

Today Waters is also his meat. He also won from Paul Pehn of Mason City, Iowa, and wrestled to a draw with Joe Parelli of Boston. He has wrestled Gus Kallio twice.

Another person who has been Kellis' meat is Texas Teddy Waters, he of the "whale" hold, who gave a good account of himself around here a year or so ago. Kellis will be working out at the armory Saturday and Sunday at 2:30 in the afternoon, and the fans are invited to look in and see what they think of him. He has a big repertoire of holds but the flying mare is one of his specialties.

The matchmaker announces that Tuesday will be wrestling night for some time to come, as the evangelistic meetings are taking up all other week nights in the armory.

Birdie Isn't Appreciated

Golf has its "birdies" all right. Mrs. Nettie Misson, teacher at the state tuberculosis sanatorium discovered early this week. Only she didn't find the kind of "birdies" golfers are wild about, and as a result she has a cut on her nose, squarely between the eyes, which necessitated three stitches.

Mrs. Misson, local mechanic, was practicing golf strokes. She thought he was going to hand her a club and let her try a stroke he had been showing her. But he meant to demonstrate and started to do so.

As result of the misunderstanding, she received the club blow, which fortunately did not result in broken bones. She was able to go about her work almost immediately, although she still bears two badly swollen eyes in addition to the cut.

BEARCAT TRACK TEAM WORKING

Meet With Pacific Friday At Forest Grove First Conference Contest

The Willamette track men are working out with energy this week in an effort to be in the best of condition for the meet with Pacific at Forest Grove Friday.

Pacific beat Albany college which in turn humbled the Bearcats. However the Bearcats were not at full strength by any means for the meet with Albany. Vancouver was unable to run and several of the other men were not in condition to do their best.

Also it was the first meet for the Bearcats and the second for Albany. Better time was made at Pacific than was made in the meet here, but the track there is not of the sun-baked variety which is found here and is a little speedier.

Cinder path for Next Year Likely Although the track on Sweetland field is a poor excuse, the men are making the best of it and are working toward building a strong team for next year when a track will be installed. "Lee" Sparks, track coach at Willamette, states that if a cinder track is not obtained, this will be the last year for track at Willamette. Willamette has occupied either the the cellar or the cellar stairs in the northwest conference standing for five years, due in a large measure to poor facilities.

"Spec" Keene, head coach and physical director of Willamette, stated recently that Willamette will have a cinder track next year. It is planned to cooperate with Salem high in building a track on Sweetland field. Coach Vernon Gilmore of the high school is not going to go another season without a first class track and with all heads working together, the chances are good that the oval will be placed in condition for the coming season. At Portland, rain. Doubleheader Saturday.

VALLEY MOTOR WINS WILD ONE

Spots McKay's Nine Runs, Then Captures Contest By Score of 13-11

After being nine runs behind when it went to bat in the second inning, the Valley Motor baseball team in the American League Junior league, forged ahead and defeated McKay Chevrolet 13 to 11 Wednesday afternoon.

McKay's, strengthened by the acquisition of three players from Sacred Heart academy, scored four runs in the first inning and five in the second, but was held to no more for the remainder of the game getting those in the fourth.

The Fordmen opened up with five in the second, two in the third, three in the fourth and got the winning three in the fifth. Ashcraft had a big day at bat with three singles. DeJardin of McKay's opened the game with a homer and tried to duplicate when he came up in the third but was caught at the plate.

Bulldogs to Face Silver Foxes Again

WOODBURN, May 6.—"If the kids get in and play ball, we'll have an even chance of beating Silverton," was the opinion of Gil Oddie, baseball coach at Woodburn high school, when he was asked about Woodburn's chances Friday when the Bulldogs cross bats with their traditional rivals, Silverton.

Although the first game with Silverton ended in a none-score-for-none tie, Woodburn's chances Friday even better than before. The fact that the game will be played on the Foxes' home field will probably offset many of the points conceded to Woodburn.

Three of Woodburn's "bad boys" have been reinstated, and as most of them are regulars, the result may be gratifying. Woodburn won its first game with Silverton with these men sitting in the grandstand. Those returned to the fold are Gustafson, second baseman, Hastie, pitcher, and George Oberst, fielder.

The fact that "Moke" Gearin, who caught Reed's twisting chunks so nicely in the first game, will be missing from the lineup, is another fact to consider. Gearin is being kept in bed by a bad case of mumps. Dirksen, or possibly Artie Owings, will catch Friday.

Oddie will probably start Reed against the Foxes again Friday, although there is a possibility that Hastie will get the nod. Woodburn's pitcher is sure to have a crafty opponent in Burch Silverton's tosser. Burch pitched a beautiful game against Woodburn and will probably repeat his performance.

600's Rolled By Nine Men

Half of the players, nine out of 18, rolled series totals better than 600 in two postponed City bowling league matches at Winter Garden late Tuesday night. The Capital Bowlers took in McKay's Chevies three to nothing and Winter Garden bested Willamette Valley Transfer in two out of three.

Don Poulin led individual scoring with three nice games, 224-215-222, totaling 661. Kantola was close behind with 657 and Mohr with 655. Other six-century players were Hal 642, Kay 613, Steinbock 607, Victor 606, Johnson 613 and Karr 603. Kantola and Larson each with 248 tied for high game score.

Smith Case to Be Heard Today

Hearing of the case of State vs. Alvin E. Smith, charged with possession of unlawful liquor, will be on this morning at 11 o'clock in justice court here. Smith was arrested near Butteville. Eleven gallons of liquor said to have been in his possession, will be offered in evidence. He has been released pending the hearing on bail of $750.

Warrant Needed To Make Arrest

A peace officer cannot, without a warrant, lawfully make an arrest for a misdemeanor not committed in his presence, unless the person arrested consents thereto, according to an opinion handed down by the attorney general Wednesday. The opinion was requested by Hal E. Hoss, secretary of State.

CURT COMMENTS

Yeah, Andy! That boy has gone and done it again. A no-hit no-run game wasn't enough to suit him, so he had to keep 'em off the paths altogether.

Or strictly speaking, we judge from Andy's demeanor that he isn't a bit hard to suit, and wouldn't have said a word if some poor luckless fielder had dropped the ball on the last out and spoiled his record.

Goah, wouldn't the guy that did that be happy? Making a record such as Andy did with a lot of help from the boys, certainly creates a dinkish situation as it approaches the end. But somehow, from the third inning on, we knew it was going to happen.

That is no weak sister of a Puget Sound team, either, as Northwest conference ball teams go. It beat Pacific the day before. It held the Bearcats down better than some big college teams did previously, and today's game is likely to be a scorcher. We hear Puget Sound was keeping a hot pitcher from coming over covering up on a comeback today.

And some Bearcat moundsman is likely to reap the whirlwind of the Loggers' suppressed resentment at being victims of Andy's stunt.

We used to disbelieve in the inheritance of acquired characteristics, which if you don't know it has been quite a moot psychological problem. But now we don't know. Our two-year-old saw her mother come in from a shopping trip yesterday and remarked: "Mamma got new shoes. Five dollars."

And her own experience with money has been limited to the copper variety.
