

WOODBURN HONORS GOLD STAR MOTHERS

Program Given at Armory Draws People From Entire Valley

WOODBURN, May 8.—A large crowd of people from all parts of the Willamette valley gathered in the Woodburn armory Wednesday to pay tribute to the Gold Star mothers of this district. The program was put on by members of the Women's auxiliary of the Woodburn post No. 46 of the American Legion.

Rev. Duncan Cameron, state chaplain of the American Legion, was the speaker for the evening. He spoke in the absence of John Biggs, state commander of the American Legion, who was originally scheduled to address the assemblage. Rev. Cameron presented the six Gold Star mothers present with bouquets of flowers. The Gold Star mothers were: Mrs. Nettie Zimmerman, Mrs. M. Wilson, Mrs. Louisa Gibbons, Mrs. Maggie Tedder, Mrs. Lena Unger and Mrs. Ed Roon.

Rev. A. Cameron told of the work of the American Legion and also spoke highly of the woman's auxiliary chapters. An American Legion post, said Rev. Cameron, without an auxiliary chapter is like a man with only one arm. The speaker told of his experiences in the war and especially noted the various acts of bravery done by the soldiers.

The program was opened by the Woodburn high school orchestra under the direction of Dr. A. P. deLapinasse. Mrs. Vorn Dodge, president of the Woodburn woman's auxiliary, gave a brief and pointed talk on the aims and purposes of the auxiliary.

Urusula Moshberger, Betty Jane Proctor, Rita Becker, Roma Kallak, Lois Proctor, Thelma Anonby and Kathleen Shorey, Woodburn high school girls, under the direction of Miss Alma Taylor, gave some clever clogs dances.

Music Is Enjoyed
The high school's orchestra played "The Poet and Peasant" overture. Probably one of the most appreciated numbers on the program was a nature dance by little "Bunny" Kuesting. Mrs. Broadacre, Mrs. E. C. Diller and Mrs. N. E. Tyler, representing the Aurora Choral society, sang a duet. They were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. A. L. Strickland.

Dr. deLapinasse's orchestra played the popular selection, "Sweet Jennie Lee", after which the Hubbard Camp Fire girls presented a beautiful pageant. They put on the candle-lighting ceremony, which was very effective. Girls in the number: Miss Gungadene Bidgood, a divider; Anna Knight, Betty Brown, Marjorie Wolfer, Dorothy McKee, Helen Claypool, Marion McKenzie, Beatrice Claypool and Eleanor Johnson.

The Grog Norwegian Male chorus, an unusual group of singers from Monitor, sang two numbers. The first was a Swedish song, entitled "A Joere Vatton". The other number was a "The Sleepy Hollow Tune". The chorus is directed by Dr. A. P. E. Schierbaum of Mount Angel.

Miss Maxine Tour, a student at the Mount Angel academy, gave two tap dances. Miss Betty Hendrich accompanied her at the piano.

The Monitor chorus next sang two numbers, "Rose Bud" and "Hede Rose". These numbers were dedicated to the six Gold Star mothers.

HUBBARD SCHOOL PRESENTS PROGRAM

Parents and Friends Appreciate Efforts of Pupils and Teachers

HUBBARD, May 8.—Many parents were present at the health program and art exhibit held at the school house Thursday afternoon. The program, which was presented in the music room and which was announced by Principal J. R. Bidgood, included the following numbers, each of which was most enthusiastically received: "No Land Like Oregon", girls of grades five and six. Recitation, "Posture", Edward Johnson. Health play, "Care of the Teeth", grades one and two. Song, "Water Babies Lullaby", girls of grades three and four. Presentation of Heralds of Health buttons to honor roll pupils. Recitation, "Zamning Zease", Hlene Bontrager. Health play, "The Battle", grades five and six. First aid demonstration, grade eight. Health play, "A Make Believe Party", grades three and four. Song, "We Have the Mumps", boys of grades five and six.

The first-aid demonstration by Miss Juanita Johnson, county health nurse, and her class of boys and girls in class eight aroused much interest among the parents who expressed their appreciation of the excellent assistance given the school by Miss Johnson.

Awards Presented
Following the demonstration Miss Johnson awarded first aid certificates to Miss Eleanor Johnson, Miss Helen Claypool, Miss Bessie Ingalls, Miss Esther Bailley, Miss Jessie Ingalls, Miss Marjorie McKenzie, James Bidgood, Manton Carl, Lester Barrett and Marvin Barrett, all pupils of her class having completed 15 hours of instruction in first aid.

Heralds of Health buttons were presented to honor roll pupils by Prof. Bidgood. Grades one and two—Robert Grimps, Junior Grimps, Mildred Schoor, Robert Moon, Arthur Moon, Marjorie Murphy, and Ray Alderman. Grades 3-4—June Croissant, Barbara Cornell, Phyllis Brown, Ivan English, Marie Zelinka, Shirley Grimps, Jimmie Stewart, Wallace Brown, Anna Koutney, Veona Trout and Jack Dempsey.

Grades 5-6—Gordon Boje, Marjorie Rich, Robert Weaver, Bernice Stevens, Elliott Johnson, Richard Watkins, Herbert Schlicker, Marie Boje, and Harold Wolfer. Grades 7-8—Lester Barrett, Marvin Barrett, Manton Carl, Jessie Ingalls, Edward Koutney, Howard Loney, Boyd Brown, Marion McKenzie, Bessie Ingalls, Gladys Ingalls, Eleanor Johnson, John Dimick, Helen Claypool, and Frieda Voget.

The success of the program was due to the efforts of Mrs. Lorena Duncan, primary teacher, Mrs. Lottie Fry and Miss Frances Hatch, intermediate teachers, and also to Miss Juanita Johnson.

Art Work Exhibited
The art exhibit was a revelation of the excellent work done during the past year by the pupils of grades one to six inclusive, and also by Miss Ruby Evens and Miss Grace Williams, high school students in commercial art taught by Mr. Bidgood.

Miss Frances Hatch and her pupils featured a product map of the United States that attracted much attention. The pupils in Mrs. Lottie Fry's room had completed a bird house contest and the bird houses, nests, small fir trees, and miniature paper birds made a lovely background for her excellent art exhibit, held in her room.

The primary grades featured health rules used in many unique posters, booklets and other devices cleverly worked out by the little tots under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Lorena Duncan.

CLUB HAS PICNIC
HAZEL GREEN, May 8.—The Science club of Silverton high school had the annual picnic at Hazel Green park Thursday. Thirty pupils and three teachers enjoyed the various amusements, including a ball game.

GOES TO MICHIGAN
Mrs. Ethel I. Steward boarded the train in Salem Thursday morning for Kalamazoo, Mich., where she will make her home with a sister. Since the death, a month ago, of her husband, George Steward, Mrs. Steward has been disposing of her personal effects and has left her beautiful home at 1334 Edgewater street in the hands of a Salem realtor for sale or rent.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Fishback and children drove to the seaside Tuesday, returning home Wednesday. They visited Tillamook, Garibaldi and Rockaway. They were dinner guests Tuesday evening at Rockaway of Mr. and Mrs. John Hamby, former residents of West Salem.

AT TELEVISION CELEBRATION

In a two-hour program stage stars and notables of the literary world celebrated the emerging of television from the laboratory to the home at the formal opening of WJXR, the first sound-and-sight synchronized broadcasting station, at Fifth Avenue, New York. Among the celebrities who took part in the proceedings were Peggy Hopkins Joyce and Ted Cook, author of "Cook-Cooks" (both shown).

PYTHIAN SISTERS PLAN PROGRAM

Silverton Organization to Honor Mothers on May 19

SILVERTON, May 8.—The Pythian Sisters, Home Temple 21, held an interesting meeting Tuesday night at the Knights of Pythias hall with Anna Hadley, most excellent chief, in the chair. The Sisters decided to observe Mothers' Day at their next regular meeting which falls on Tuesday, May 19. At this time all mothers of members, Knights of Pythias, other specially invited guests and Centralia Temple 11 from Salem will be guests.

For this occasion a special program is being prepared with Ruth McPike, Bessie Specht and Myrtle Eastman in charge. The refreshment committee includes Elizabeth Gottenberg, Alice Jack, Marie McNeil, Stella Hills, Alma Larson, Olive Morley, Lottie Loomis, Ella McCleary and Myrtle Mehl.

The next regular meeting will conclude the membership contest which has been conducted during the winter. Norma Storaasli and Wanda Anderson have been the captains of the contesting sides. The losers will serve a banquet to the winners.

Levon Heald, M. of R. and C., reported that Home temple had been paid its maintenance fund to the Children's unit of the Oregon-Washington Pythian home. The order also voted to celebrate the birthdays of its members in the future. At the first regular meeting in June those who have birthdays falling in April, May, and June will be honored.

SPRING EVIDENT AT NORTH HOWELL

School Children Revel in Picnics and Bird Study

NORTH HOWELL, May 8.—As the school term for this year draws to a close, picnics seem to be very popular with the grade pupils.

Wednesday the entire group of pupils in the upper room walked down to Parkersville, carrying lunches and raincoats and enjoyed their annual picnic on the banks of old Pudding river. Their teacher, Miss Ramsby, accompanied them and in spite of recent showers and a rather chilly wind blowing, every one had a fine time and thoroughly enjoyed the bountiful picnic supper beside the bonfire.

The sewing class in the primary room under the leadership of Miss Ida Peterson, enjoyed their picnic in Waltman's woods, and the other pupils in Miss Peterson's room were allowed to go home.

The sewing club girls include, Flora Woelek, Frances Kurze, Loretta Waltman, Florence Pickens and Eleanor Jefferson. Birds Are Studied
For several weeks past, the pupils in the primary room have been working on "Bird books."

This was done under the guidance and inspiration of Miss Peterson who taught them the beauty and value of our feathered friends and tried to impress on their minds the importance of birds, especially to rural homes. Each grade was promised a reward for the best arranged pictures and also best specimens shown and the work was done individually. The first grade winner was Delphia Gottenberg. The second and third grades combined and Mary Lou Wisener won. In the fourth grade, Alice Rickard was winner and reward for the best book in all the room was given to Eleanor Jefferson.

"It's the little things that tell"

THAT'S what big sister said to her boy friend as she pulled little brother out from under the sofa. But wait till big sister and the boy friend are man and wife, with a home of their own to run. Then how much more she'll realize the truth of her observation!

For then the age-old problems will come pressing hard. So much in the pocketbook. So much on the shopping list. Will it fit? Then's when the little things make the big difference. The little savings—the small economies—the slightly better values of which a good housekeeper takes advantage.

Then's when big sister will read the advertisements as she never read them before. Comparing values; learning reliable brands; watching the bargain and reduction announcements.

... The advertisements will help her in a thousand ways to take care of the little things, acquire the little short-cuts in time and effort—in the big job of running a house.

Read the advertisements every day. Consistently advertised goods are worthy of your confidence... otherwise they couldn't be consistently advertised.
