

Bearcats Meet Pacific Here Today; Peterson Will Pitch

BADGERS WILL PUT UP SCRAP

Held Willamette Until Last Inning in First Game At Forest Grove

Debonair Andy Peterson will occupy the mound today when the Pacific Badgers make their invasion on Olinger field to attempt to even up the count with Willamette. The game will start at 3:30. Today's game and Friday's game against Linfield will be the last two on the home field for the Bearcats. Next week Coach "Spec" Keene's team will storm Walla Walla with bats, balls, gloves and other implements of baseball warfare in quest of the second consecutive northwest conference championship.

This may be Andy Peterson's last home game of the season and a large crowd will be attracted to see the Salem pitcher perform. Last week Peterson pitched a perfect ball game allowing no hits and not even a man to get on first base. In that game Andy got 15 strikeouts and only two hit balls traveled over the heads of the infielders.

Peterson is the outstanding college pitcher of the state and last summer was the outstanding hurler in the Willamette valley league, pitching the Salem Senators to the championship and pitching a no hit, no run game against Ralph Coleman's Corvallis town team in the bargain.

It is understood that a scout for the New York Yankees will witness today's game and have a look in on Peterson's performance. This will be the second big league scout to interview Andy.

Had Tough Time

At Forest Grove the Bearcats had a hard time beating Pacific last Saturday in Forest Grove as that team was pepped up to win. It was only by a rally in the last two innings that the Bearcats managed to win 7 to 3. John Walker pitched a great game for the Badgers and allowed only 8 hits. He may be able to pitch again today.

Good ball was played by both teams Saturday. The Bearcats fielded well, but could not get their eyes on the ball while up to bat. In spite of this weakness in batting, "Spec" gave his men a rest Monday and only Peterson and Messenger took light workouts.

Last year the Bearcats won the northwest conference championship in baseball without being beaten once. This year they have started out in like manner and for the beginning of the season, have made a more impressive record than was made by the 1929 team. Two shutout games have already been registered in favor of Willamette in the conference.

Rajah Avers Cubs Hitting Bit Too Hard

By ALAN GOULD
NEW YORK, May 11.—(AP)—Knute Rockne used to get about a backfield man so fast he could get into the arms of a tackle quicker than anyone else on the team.

On the same general theory, Rogers Hornsby thinks the reason the Chicago Cubs look so good on the bases is because they drive the ball so hard it fields. That it speeds up double play possibilities.

"We've got some fast men, like Cuyler and English, but perhaps we are a little slower on the bases as a team than some of the other clubs," Hornsby said. "However, you've got to figure that when one of our players smacks that ball, it loses no time going for a hit or reaching a fielder."

"The main trouble is we aren't all hitting up to normal. No. 1 can't complain myself. I find this new ball travels just as far as the old one when it's hit squarely. Hack Wilson has been in a slump. We have shaken up the batting order a little and I'm confident we will hit plenty when we get going."

HOW KALLIS THROWS 'EM

Wildcat Pete and Kallis Clash Tonight at Armory

John Kallis, newcomer from Oklahoma, will attempt to show Salem fans he is the goods as a wrestler, tonight at the armory when he meets Wildcat Pete of Eugene. Kallis indicated Monday that he was pleased with Salem and hoped it would be pleased with him, as he would like to settle down here provided things look right for building up a following.

Kallis uses a variety of holds but the flying mare is his favorite. He said Monday he had heard of Pete's surfboard hold and admitted it was a good one. "Maybe Pete will get a chance to use it and maybe he won't,"

Valley Motor made five hits produce twice as many runs, with some aid from a sloop-like Guardian Loan Monday afternoon, and the low-cost transportation boys galloped to a 10 to 7 victory in a decisive Legion Junior league game. The series includes only two more games.

Valley Motor will be champion if it wins from Cherry City Bakers Wednesday night, but if it loses the Guardian defeats McKay Chevrolet Saturday the series will wind up in a three-way tie, and a playoff will be necessary.

Capital Post No. 9 has announced that the winning team in the local race will be rewarded with a trip to the state championship series in Corvallis in August, even if the local team doesn't happen to be one of those participating. In addition, Cadwell and Parker will present the champions with gold baseballs.

CURT COMMENTS

Ever notice how the company you play in makes a difference in your play? Take Kitchin and Foreman for instance. They are pretty good youngsters all right, but no doubt there was some question when they trotted out with the Senators Sunday, as to whether they belonged in that sort of company. But the way those boys gobbled up the ground balls and tossed 'em over to first, is pretty certain to land them steady jobs, Kitchin for the rest of the season and Foreman until Zeke gets on the job, at least. Trux also figured in about as fast a double play as we've seen this year. He also has an uncanny trick of getting them banded and if like a fire chief he can't get his glove over there.

Johnny Beck also qualified as a slugger, getting three bingles when they were badly needed.

We liked this new ump, Gus Hanke. Some of the boys thought he missed a few, but most of them looked right to us and he called them right on the dot so there could be no mistake. He announced like a fire chief who had taken a public speaking course, but you could hear him every time.

My goodness, is that the way Bobby Jones plays his chip shots? We'll bet there isn't a golfer around here who uses anything like the same style. The swing is the same but that stance!

Donut Baseball Popular Among Normal Women

MONMOUTH, May 11.—Donut baseball is finding favor with young women students of the Normal this spring, as evidenced by the number turning out for practice which near 200. Eighteen student homes are listed in the contest, with Town Girls and Senior Cottage showing up especially well.

Tournament games are being played this week to permit teams being chosen for May Day the 16th. The Town Girls were victors in basketball and volleyball; and two of them, Madelon Riley and Nadine Nason are first string tennis players. Should they also capture the baseball championship they will hold undisputed athletic championship in school.

CASCADE RACE STILL TIED UP

Lebanon Beats Tucker's and Turner Also Unbeaten; Hill's is Winner

Salem teams broke even in the Cascade league Sunday as Hill's candy shop team went up one notch and Tucker's team dropped down one.

One of the best games of the day was at Stayton where Hill's won 4 to 3. Harvey pitched a great game for the winners until he was replaced in the eighth by Wilson. Close fielding behind both pitchers helped to keep the score down. Grundy played a great game at second base and remained in the game in spite of an injured leg. Bashor and Harvey each got three base hits for Hill's. Kirsch had a number of variations to offer the Salem batsmen and mixed in a change of pace which proved effective. Stayton scored all of its runs in the seventh inning.

The lineups were: Hill's, Harvey and Wilson, pitchers; Bashor, c; Jeglum, 1b; Grundy, 2b; Nutter, 2b; H. Holman, 3b; Moriarty, lf; Watkins, cf; Hornsberger, rf.

Rookie Revelations

By HARDIN BURNLEY

FANS are raving already about Joe Vosmik, new Cleveland outfielder, and Tom Bridges, who's making his major league mound debut with Detroit. The national spotlight was focused on neither during Spring training, though both did well, especially Bridges whose strike-outs made some critics tab him as "another Vance" in the making. As an introduction, Tiger Tom blanked the St. Louis Browns, 1-0, after an air-tight pitching duel with Stew Art, fanning four and holding 'em .331 in nine games.

Improved power of attack was exhibited by the Salem Senators Sunday when they pounded out a 7 to 2 victory over Compton's of Portland on Olinger field. The Senators leaned on the horsehide for 15 hits, bunching six of them in the third for four runs, while Johnny Beck was holding the clothing salesmen to four bingles, one a homer by Soule in the seventh which scored both of the visitors' runs.

Beck put up his best performance of the year to date, whereas he allowed one more hit than the previous Sunday. He contributed no walks. For the first five innings, only three men faced him to the inning. One got on base through an error, but was blotted out in a double play.

With a seven run lead, Beck took it a little easier in the sixth and seventh, and two runs came in on a single and a homer that should have been a putout.

Lefty Schwartz who had tamed Hillsboro the Sunday before, found the going tough on Olinger field. Wilkinson started things in the second and Beck, who was one of the heavy hitters of the day, brought him in.

Six hits in success after one was out, and then a walk sent Schwartz to the showers and permitted the Senators to score two runs and put the game on ice. Adolph, Kitchin, Ashby and Beck singled and Wilkinson and Bruce doubled in that inning.

Hutchinson took up the responsibility and got the Senators out that time, but didn't look so good when Adolph tripled to open the fourth. Wilkinson drove Adolph in and scored on a wild pitch after Kitchin's hit had advanced him. From then on Hutchinson blanked the Solons that they got four more hits.

Kitchin and Foreman broke into the lineup for the first time but looked like veterans. Kitchin handled six changes without a bobble and got three hits. Foreman figured in a double play and twice made barehanded catches that couldn't be made into putouts but saved some costly base running on the part of the visitors.
