Deaf School Program Is Success

The program given under direction of Mrs. Tom Wolgamott assisted by Mrs. Vivian Bartholomew by about 70 of Salem high school students in which they presented much of the "Jim Jam-boree" numbers given recently in the high school was enthusiastically received by the students at the school for the deaf Tuesday night. The program was sponsored by the institutions department of the Salem Woman's club of which department Mrs. S. M. Endicott is general chairman.

A group of parents and Woman's club members offered transportation for the group. These were Mrs. Gene Alexander, Mrs. John Van Lydegraf, Mrs. S. D. Salem, Johnson, Mrs. Hyday, Mrs. Yokum, and Mr. Albee. Those from the Woman's club were Mrs. Frank Myers, Mrs. U. S. Page, Mrs. C. E. Stricklin, Mrs. W. L. Needham and Mrs. G. L. Forge who was accompanied by her young son, Billy.

The program will be repeated at the boys' training school in Woodburn Friday evening.

A quiet marriage of Saturday was that which united Miss Edith Graves and Kenneth D. Shoemaker. Rev. L. W. Biddle read the simple ceremony in the United Brethren church at 2:30 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Seaman were the only attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker will make their home at 284 Center street.

Subscription Club Supper Dance For Saturday

The Subscription club will give the last of its series of four dancing parties for the season Saturday night at Hazel Green. With the coming of the fall another series will be started. The date for the dance has been set for May 22 but in order to get the hall at Hazel Green it was necessary to change the date to Saturday night.

This last affair will be a picnic supper at 7:30 o'clock and then dancing will follow. There will be a number of out-of-town guests for the affair.

Church Women to Hear Frederick Libby

The Council of Church women of Salem and vicinity will hold an all-day session at the Evangelical church Friday. Music, a noon luncheon at the church and a business meeting in the afternoon will be a part of the program.

The two outstanding parts of the program are the reports of Mrs. Miva which will be given concerning the Japanese work in the Lake Labish district and will be given at 11:45 o'clock and in the afternoon following the business meeting an address by Frederick J. Libby, general secretary for the National Council for the Prevention of war.

Miss Creighton Announces Plans

Miss Mabel Creighton and Mrs. W. Al. Jones will be hostesses for callers at Jonesmore farm Saturday and Sunday afternoons between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock for the annual "open garden" given each year by them.

This is an event anticipated by all the flower lovers of the valley and with good weather large numbers of people will call during the two afternoons.

Assisting during Saturday afternoon will be Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Mrs. Romeo Goulet, and Mrs. Homer Goulet. Master Arnold Thromsted will receive the guests at the gate. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kinzer will preside at the punch bowls for both afternoons.

Sunday Mrs. Dancy, Creighton Jones and Ivan Martin from Oregon State college will assist in receiving the guests.

Mrs. Elbert Bradford Club Hostess

Mrs. Elbert Bradford and Mrs. Mervin Fidler entertained the Wednesday afternoon club at bridge at the Fidler home. The guest rooms were attractively arranged with roses in shades of red and yellow. Mrs. Ralph Mase and Mrs. Alvin Marr held winning scores. Following cards tea was served and a social hour enjoyed.

Members present were Mrs. Ralph Mase, Mrs. Alvin Marr, Mrs. Carl Allport, Mrs. Harry Kroner, Mrs. Reed Carter, Mrs. Tyler Brown, Mrs. Edwin Eby, Mrs. Forrest Fulton, Mrs. Judson Bressler, Mrs. Carroll Robinson, and Mrs. Fidler and Mrs. Bradford.
