

TURNER WINNS TALENT TEST

Colorful Garden Scene Provides Setting for Musical Number

TURNER, May 16.—The Federated community clubs district contest for the southern part of Marion county was held at Turner Friday evening, with a crowd of 500 in attendance. Disappointment was felt because clubs expecting to take part withdrew, leaving but two Amvilles and Turner clubs in the elimination contest.

Turner gave up their club meeting which was to have been held Monday night and merged into the Friday night meeting. A committee was named to nominate new officers at the meeting which will be the last club night until October. Members held at Turner were H. B. Bond, Mrs. A. A. Riches, Mrs. Mary McKinney, G. A. McKay, Mrs. Jay Cook, O. F. Fowler.

Program Given

The following program was given: Pianoforte by Margaret Gilstrap and Mildred Bousa, with Ruth Gilstrap at the piano; skit by Glenn Titus and Violet Perkins of Amvilles; recitation, "Telling Secrets," by Nadine Gilstrap; music by Jay Betty Post; duet, "Love's Sweet Song," by Mrs. Earl Clark, Miss Josephine Gilstrap, accompanist; solo, "May Song," by Ruth Rawlings of Crawford district Miss Helen McCullough at the piano.

Amvilles club was represented by 49 members arranged on the rostrum and were led in three numbers by Prof. T. Mountain: "Cheery Lights of Home," "Sleepy Hollow Tune" and "Auld Lang Syne." The Turner 4-H club girls sang candy dandy international.

The Turner contest number was put on as an orchestra number with variations. Colored lights were focused on the stage. "Garden of Dreams" was the name of the production. The first "Dew on the Road," sung by quartet, Miss Helen and Helena Witzel, Edmund Tappin and Wallace Chandler. Scene representing the American garden. Music, "Salute to the Colors," "Here Comes the Sun" given by the orchestra, closing with "Lost Anchors."

Members of the Turner orchestra are Mrs. Walter Miller, Misses Gladys Given, Helen and Helena Witzel, A. Skipton, G. M. Kay, George Crane, Kenneth Fowler, James Denyer, Maxwell McKay, Harold Fowler, Russell Denyer, Deane Tucker and Kenneth Hecok, director and composer of part of the music and duet. Miss Josephine Gilstrap is pianist.

While the judges were out, the Misses Leona Clark and Helen and Helena Witzel gave a trio, "School Days."

The judges' decision turned in 151 points for Amvilles and 112 for Turner.

After the evening's program all were invited to the gymnasium, where sandwiches, cake and punch were served to the crowd.

The contest is under the direction of Dr. P. O. Riley of Hubbard, president of the federation, and Mrs. C. I. Clark of Turner, vice-president; Sidney Jackson of Mt. Angel, secretary-treasurer; Dr. Henry Morris, Salem, Roy Rice, Howard Zinser and John Marshall, board of directors.

BOUNDARY DISPUTE SETTLED

JEFFERSON, May 16.—At a meeting of the county school boundary board held in Salem Monday, the controversy over the boundary to apply to the Marion district, which Stayton wished to usurp, was decided in favor of Jefferson. A. M. Jefferson's boundary line will be between Marion and Turner. It is planned to have a school bus to cover that route, next school year.

PUPIL HONORED

INDEPENDENCE, May 16.—Lowell Eddy being the outstanding student in high school, a plaque with his name engraved on it has been placed in the office of the Independence high school. The plaque stands for loyalty, scholarship and achievement. The selection was made by the student council with the aid of the faculty.

BUTTER NOW SEASONALLY WEAK SELLING CAUSES WHEAT TO DIVE

Cubes Steady, Prints Erratic; Chicken, Mart Weak

PORTLAND, May 16.—(AP)—Seasonable weakness appears underlying the general butter market trend. Locally there was no change in quotations and only limited fluctuations are reflected in the country generally.

Surface conditions in the local trade appears more or less steady with price of cubes maintained for the week end session of the produce exchange. On the open market sales continued at the previous spread. Prints continue their erratic course with some of the nearby country creameries supplying the big stores at discounted prices.

Trading in the egg market continues very slow here with practically no change in open prices. Local co-ops continue 16c sales for extras. Receipts showing greater per cent of hot weather offerings.

Markets for chickens is weak with some of the killers showing further price reductions in their buying values. Heavy hens are down to 17c in some quarters but light weights continue mostly 11c.

At the weekend, while there continued more or less pressure against the price of veal except for a few selected tops; general country meat trade appeared steady. Lambs are really firm for top springers.
