Waldo Hills to Salem Friday a wheel on the trailer broke and the rim with a tire on it came off near the M. M. Magee home. Mr. Krift drove a short distance and got his load off of the road, then returned to look for the rim and tire but did not find it.

Whether it was picked up or rolled into the brush and grass is not known. The trailer was not badly damaged and no one was injured.

GUESTS AT SILVERTON
SILVERTON, May 20—Mr. and Mrs. Amos Corhouse arrived at Silverton Monday and will remain for a visit of some time. They are making headquarters with their daughter, Mrs. Dan Riviness of Marquam. They will, however, visit a great number of friends at Silverton where they lived for a number of years. Mr. Corhouse was a contractor and also served on the city council here for several years. The birth of a grandson in March was part of the attraction which drew the Corhouses west.

When you take the Oregon Statesman from a carrier boy you are patronizing a little merchant of your own neighborhood.
