

PICNIC PROGRAM CLOSES SCHOOL

Central Howell Community Turns out to Help Pupils Celebrate 'Last Day'

CENTRAL HOWELL, May 20.—Exhibits by the 4-H clubs, a school program in the morning, a business dinner with ice cream, donated by the district and a ball game between the boys and married men in which the boys were the victors were features of the last day of school Tuesday which a large number of patrons enjoyed in spite of the busy season.

The program included: song by advanced room; exercise by Rita Stevens, Carol King, Hazel Beale, Ralph Nafziger and Alfred Dettwyler; recitation, John Lichty, Jr.; dialogue, Delbert Lovre, Henry Rudishauser and James Lichty; group of songs by primary girls with duet by Elva Darkens and Lucille Hall; recitation by Leonard Roth; vocal solo, Irene Nafziger; Dialogue, Irene Nafziger, Lucille Wood, Beulah Lichty and Hollis Ramsden; exercise, Elva Darkens, Joe Wood, Frances King, Clarence Simmons, Donald Nafziger and Lewis Hildebrandt; piano solo, Helen Nafziger; playlet, with Lucille Hall, Carolyn Kaufman and Donald Steffen; songs by girls of the advanced room; recitation, Edris Van Cleave; short play, Eugene Wood, Helen Nafziger, Nelson Darkens, Edgar Nafziger, Ruth Simmons, Earl Schaar, Jean Landerback, Bessie Darkens, Lucille Roth and James Lichty.

25 Win Honors

An unusual number of pupils received perfect attendance certificates for being neither absent nor tardy during the year. The 25 pupils receiving certificates were: Glen Beasley, Robert Detwiler, Clarence Simmons, Robert Simmons, Alfred Detwiler, Fred Scharrer, Alvin Hansen, Ralph Nafziger, Delbert Lovre; Henry Rudishauser, Esther Detwiler, James Lichty, Louise Aubrey, Helen Detwiler, Frances King, Edris Van Cleave, Donald Steffen, Evelyn Plunkett, Max Simmons, Leonard Lichty, Florence Hansen, Hollis Ramsden, Evaline Nafziger, Edgar Nafziger and Emmaline Nafziger.

Club Workers Exhibit

In the 4-H club work Emogene Wood took first and Ruth Finkemond second on angel food cakes and Lucille Roth third on sponge cake. Bessie Darkens first and Ida Schaar second on cookies. Mrs. R. C. Ramsden, Mrs. Alec Lichty and Mrs. Clarence Johnson were the judges of this exhibit.

Ernest Werner, Clarence Simmons, and Andrew Hall were judges of the woodwork in which Leonard Lichty took first, Grover Lichty second and James Lichty third.

Evelyn Plunkett, Evaline Nafziger and Beulah Lichty took the first places in the sewing exhibit which Mrs. John Landerback, Mrs. E. Dunnigan and Mrs. Thos. Lovre judged. Many patrons expressed their regret that Mrs. Mabel Martin and Mrs. Nell Hilliker, who have taught the school for three years will not return next year. Their work here has been highly satisfactory and much appreciated.

"Hen Party" Gets 50 Chickens for the Turner Boys Home

TURNER, May 20.—Members of the Turner boys home helped give a program at the Christian church the evening of May 17. Friends had suggested that each person attending donate one or more chickens as a nucleus for a "hen party" at the home. As a sequel the boys are now caring for 50 chickens.

Charles Peaslee is the present local superintendent of the home.

NORTH HOWELL HAS ACHIEVEMENT DAY

Pupils Display Excellent Work Done During School Year

NORTH HOWELL, May 20.—The primary room of the local school closed Monday with a sewing exhibit, a splendid display of cakes and cookies made by the cookery club and many art exhibits in pencil, pen, and crayon and free hand drawings.

The sewing class has had their teacher, Miss Peterson, as leader and awards were given as follows:

First—Eleanor Jefferson; second—Loretta Waltman; third—Flora Woelke.

In the clever little pajama parade first place was given to Flora Woelke; second to Florence Pickens and third to Frances Kurze.

There were six entries in the cake division and the judges found it hard to decide but finally first place was given to Margaret Woelke; second to Myrtle Kurze; third to Helena Schmidt.

Of the thirteen entries in the cookie division the first place was won by Dorothy Summers; second, Leona Schmidt; third, Paul Hagan.

Four Finish Work

Four pupils, Caroline Bump, Ellen Vinton, Esther Bailey and John Coomler have completed the eighth grade and have been invited to attend the Silverton high school Tuesday May 26, as a part of their graduation. These four pupils expect to attend the Silverton high school next year.

Three in 4's

Three in 4's in 4's to this "Achievement day" at our school were cleverly written and decorated by the older girls who also sold candy during the afternoon. The proceeds of the candy sale were to be used toward tuning the piano.

Miss Peterson will visit her parents at Garibaldi for a few days and then accompany her sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bischof of Oakland, to their home and spend the summer in California.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, May 20.—At the monthly meeting Monday night of the community club, two reels of moving pictures were shown by Mr. West of Salem, showing some interesting phases of the life and activities of Charles Lindbergh and also pictures of Boy Scout camp life taken last year at Camp Santiam. During the business session a motion carried that the annual strawberry festival be held Saturday, June 6. The matter of a location for the festival was left to the judgment of the executive board. It will probably be on the school grounds.

The board of directors, committees and all interested persons who will volunteer to assist in making the festival a success are requested to meet Monday night in the church basement to make final arrangements.

Announcement was made by Rev. M. A. Groves that a Bible school of two weeks' duration will be held in West Salem during the month of June, definite dates to be announced later.

A refreshment committee composed of Mrs. Emory Williams, Mrs. J. M. Fisher and Eugene Krebs served cake and coffee at the close of the meeting.

PEP TEACHERS CLUB ELECTS

Mrs. Cecil Wiegand Chosen President of Marion County Organization

SALEM HEIGHTS, May 20.—The P. E. P. teacher's club of Marion county held the last meeting of the year at the Salem Heights school, Tuesday evening, May 19.

New officers for the coming year were elected as follows: Mrs. Cecil Wiegand, president; Mrs. Jessie Hains, vice president; Mamie Bostrack, secretary. At the conclusion of the business session, Mrs. Clara Reese gave a project on transportation after which the program was held. Several piano solos were given by Barbara Schottthoefter followed by Scotch dancers, pupils of Miss Schottthoefter which were greatly enjoyed. The program was in charge of Cecile Schottthoefter. Fifteen teachers were represented at the meeting.

FAIRFIELD GRANGE HAS SOCIAL NIGHT

FAIRFIELD, May 20.—A social evening was enjoyed Friday by members of Fairfield grange. Accordion music for dancing was furnished by the Skindler brothers of Mt. Angel.

The birthday committee composed of Mrs. T. A. Dittmar, Mrs. Andrews and B. J. Miller served refreshments at a late hour. Wednesday evening May 27, will be regular grange night.

Painter Kills Youthful Bride

LOS ANGELES, May 20.—(AP)—Edward M. Newton, 52, a house painter, Tuesday shot and killed his 24 year old wife of five months, Dee Graham Newton, and then shot himself. At the hospital it was said he has slight chance for recovery. Jealousy on the part of Newton was reported by police as the cause.

Fire Emergency Noted in South

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—(AP)—While grass and brush fires burned in scores of places over a wide area in northern California Tuesday and mercury shot up to new altitudes in many localities Governor James Rolph, Jr., took official notice of the situation and appointed a fire emergency committee to coordinate state and private fire forces.

Bow Articles Result in Suit

LOS ANGELES, May 20.—(AP)—Daisy I. DeBoe, former secretary to Clara Bow, film actress, filed suit here against Frederick H. Girman, weekly newspaper publisher, asking damages of $100,000 for the alleged use of her name in a series of articles.
