Mrs. F. K. Power To be Honored Today

Mrs. F. Kenneth Power will be the guest of honor for a pretty bridge afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Power with Mrs. Power and Miss Florence Power as hostesses. A dainty arrangement of spring flowers will form a background for the three tables of bridge which will be in play during the afternoon. This party is one of the many which are complimenting Mrs. Power before her departure Friday for the east where she will spend two months.

Guests in compliment to Mrs. Power will be Mrs. Wolcott Burton, Mrs. George Weller, Mrs. Wallace Carson, Mrs. Willard Marshall, Mrs. Charles Robertson, Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, Mrs. John Coughell, Jr., Mrs. Frank Chapman, Mrs. Rex Adolph, Mrs. Milton Steiner, and Mrs. W. W. Baum.

Mrs. Nellie Rahe Complimented

Dr. and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney entertained with dinner in compliment to Mrs. Nellie Rahe Tuesday evening. Mrs. Rahe will leave soon for Indianapolis where she will be married. Guests in compliment to Mrs. Rahe were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rahe, Miss Frances Virginia Melton, Miss Olive Dahl, Prof. Cameron Marshall, and Dr. and Mrs. Doney.

Pretty Tea Evening For Art Exhibit

The art exhibit which is being sponsored by the Salem Arts League under the direction of Mrs. Clifton Mudd, this week in the fireplace room of the city library each day until Friday between the hours of two and four in the afternoon and seven and nine in the evening is proving an interesting exhibit.

The pictures are those of younger Oregon artists and while there are not as many of these and thus not as many exhibits as the Salem Arts League had expected, still there is a valuable collection on display which is drawing much attention from art lovers of Salem.

An interesting feature of the exhibit was the social evening held Wednesday night. For this Mrs. John Clifton, Mrs. L. H. Tarpley, Mrs. Clifton Mudd, Mrs. Gustav Eosen, and Mrs. Ella Halthway were hostesses. Punch and wafers were served from an artistically and colorful tea table. Hostesses for today will be Mrs. W. E. Anderson and Mrs. J. M. Devers for the afternoon and Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Miss Alice Brown and Miss Mirph Blair will be hostesses during the evening.

Friday afternoon Miss Luella Baker and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney will be hostesses and in the evening Mrs. Ora Melvayne and Mrs. Maud Covington will act as hostesses.

Recitals Offer Pleasing Work

Three interesting recitals have been given this week among the many which have given this spring an evening which will continue until into June. Laneta Bellinger, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger, was presented by Mabel S. Powers in piano recital at the studio of Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts Monday night. Little Miss Bellinger is 12 years old and played an artistically interpreted program. She was assisted by Miss Isabelle Gragg, violinist, and small Pauline Zoe Chambers appeared in some attractive feature dance numbers. Only immediate friends of the young artists were invited for this recital.

A second recital of much interest to a large number of people was that given by Miss Jeanette Scott, violinist, who was presented by Prof. William Wallace Graham in Waller hall Tuesday night. That young student of the violin gave a beautiful program. She was assisted by Miss Lucille Cummings, contralto, Miss Elizabeth Boylan, and Miss Lois Plummer accompanist.

The recital of Miss Rosalind Van Winkle, pianist, and student of Frances Virginia Melton, was a delightful Monday night event at Waller hall, Willamette university. Miss Van Winkle was assisted in a brilliant program by Miss Josephine Albert, contralto, and Miss Elizabeth Clement, accompanist.

Writers Club Plans Picnic

Mrs. William Fordyce Fargo was hostess for the regular meeting of the Writer's section of the Salem Arts league Tuesday night at her home. Election was held to name a section leader for the next year. Mrs. F. C. Franklin was elected to succeed Mrs. John Clifton who has been leader for the past two years. It was also decided to continue section meetings during the summer months and to have a special picnic supper for the June meeting, the supper to be held at the home of Mrs. C. A. Lytle.

Following the business meeting a delightful program of original writing from poetry to prose and radio talks were presented by the authors, Mrs. Blanche Jones, Perry Prescott Reigelman, Lynn Cronenlind, Mrs. Fred Alban Wolf, Mrs. Edna Dally, Mrs. C. A. Lytle, Dr. F. C. Franklin.

Following the program and discussions refreshments were served by Mrs. Fargo, assisted by Mrs. B. L. Steeves.

Miss Margaret Pro Complimented

Miss Margaret Pro was the guest of honor for a pre-nuptial shower at the home of Mrs. Hugh B. Fouke, Jr., Monday night. Miss Pro will leave soon for Boston where she will become the bride of George L. Poor. Members of the Wesleyan Guild of Jason Lee church were the complimenting guests.

After an informal social evening a large basket of many gifts was presented to Miss Pro. Refreshments concluded the pleasant evening. Several more informal affairs are being planned for Miss Pro before her departure June 7.

Guests in compliment to the bride-elect Monday night were Miss Luella Kaighin, Miss Jewell Christenson, Mrs. Pearl Bonney, Miss Isabelle Leiper, Miss Alberta Minton, Miss Eva Beatty, Miss Laura Phipps, Mrs. Marion Wilber, Mrs. Helen Elmer, Mrs. Vida Miller, Mrs. Rhea Harris, Miss Jean Baumgartner, Mrs. Beale Zobel, Miss Marcia Feustman.

Business College Students Elect

A business meeting was held by the students of the Capital Business college Tuesday morning for the purpose of electing officers for the summer months. Those appointed on the nominating committee were: Miss Adelia Shepherd, Miss Frances Martin, Miss Faye Lemon, Miss Verna Keppinger, and Miss Inez Elliott. The committee nominated for president, Miss Margaret Nathman and Miss Ethel Wieg; Miss Nathman was elected. For vice president, Harold Percy and Miss Ramona Estudillo; with Mr. Percy elected; for secretary and treasurer, Miss Irene Bougff and Miss Mary Baby; Miss Bougff was elected; and Miss Virginia Benavente, first secretary.

Mrs. Otto Schelberg, Mrs. Laura Little Hanson, Mrs. David Fur-Johnson, Mrs. Mary Aptin, Mrs. Lough, Mrs. Norma Teewilliger, Mrs. Anna Borkman, Mrs. Mamie Callaway, and Miss Beatrice Olin.

Continuing Summer Prices

For Every Day In The Week. These Are Not Specials.

You cannot pass up the opportunity this market offers you to save on your meat bill. We made a statement last week, that as long as the price of livestock remained at the present low level, we would be in line. We offer you choice meats and guarantee the quality. Retail quantities at practically wholesale prices.
