Futures Export Sales

Noted; Corn Gains After low Mark

CHICAGO, May 22.—(AP)—Heavy frosts over Kansas gave wheat a lift today, especially in the final dealings. Wheat was also assisted upward by late announcement that the first export sales of United States 1931 crop wheat had been made today for July shipment, and that New Orleans had cleared some domestic wheat. Corn established a new low price record for the season but rallied on account of Iowa reports that corn in some sections had been hit by frost. Wheat closed irregular, 1-8 cent off to 7-8 up, corn at 2-8 cent to 3/4 advance, oats unchanged to 5-8 higher.

JERSEY JUBILEE IS SLATED FOR JUNE 4

Levi McKee Heads Group; To Tour and View Herds. In Northern Part

DALLAS, May 22.—Final plans for the fourteenth annual Folk county Jersey jubilee June 4 have been completed. Levi McKee is president of the organization. The celebration this year will be a tour to some of the leading Jersey herds on the north side of the county. The tour will start from Rickreall at 8:45 on the morning of June 4, and the first stop will be the Frank Lynn farm at Perrydale, then to the W. H. McKee and sons also near Perrydale, then to the W. B. Allen herd at Oak Grove and the W. O. Morrow and S. H. Robison farms east of Rickreall. Lunch will be served at the Robison farm by the wives of the Jersey cattle club members to all those present. Over 500 invitations have been sent out to Jersey folks on the Pacific coast and many have indicated they will attend. Several other tours will be held this same week in the valley. The U. S. Salt Agency is in part at a meeting at the W. B. Allen farm with members of the Oregon cattle club last Saturday to link up the various celebrations. Frank Lynn is president of the Oregon cattle club.

Picnic Marks End Of Auburn Term

AUBURN, May 22.—The Auburn school closed for the year with an all day picnic at the school house. A picnic dinner such as only country folks can prepare was topped off with ice cream and cake. Races and ball playing were the sports of the day. The teachers received many little tokens of appreciation from their pupils. Mrs. Ingram will return next year, but Miss Zielke goes to Kaiser school.

JOLLY DAY AT LAKE

LAKE LABISH, May 22.—A delightful round of field sports, a delicious picnic dinner with plenty of "soda-pop," coffee, and ice cream were among the features of Lake Labish District 102, closing day, Tuesday Willard Mathews and Addison Fag were the star performers in a Charlie Chaplin race.

OHI FOR THE LIFE

The Navy should receive a spurt in enlistments after this picture gets out. The life of a sailor can't be so dull, even afloat, for here is Ethel Herman, Broadway show star, entertaining the crew of the U. S. Salt Agency in part at a meeting at the W. B. Allen farm with members of the Oregon cattle club last Saturday to link up the various celebrations. Frank Lynn is president of the Oregon cattle club.

ALL-DAY PICNIC AT GRAND ISLAND TREAT

Parents and School Children Join in Frolic; Program Interesting

GRAND ISLAND, May 22.—The school children and patrons of the district enjoyed a pleasant all-day picnic at the school house Tuesday. In the morning the children gave a short interesting program under the direction of the teachers. Mrs. Mable Narver and Miss Zoo Easterly. At noon a bountiful picnic dinner was served to a large crowd and in the afternoon every one enjoyed a generous helping of home made ice cream. The afternoon was spent in having races and baseball games. The school boys played their fathers in a baseball game in which the aged were victorious. The girls played the women in an indoor baseball game with the ladies winning by only a small margin. With the picnic the school activities were ended in the primary room for this year. Due to illness this spring, Mrs. Narver's room was closed for a few days, so the upper room will not be closed until Friday.
