Relatives to Be Visited on Tour Abroad

HAYESVILLE, May 23.—Mrs. L. T. Reynolds, son John, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Saucy left Friday night on a trip to Switzerland. They went by way of Canada and will visit at Niagara Falls en route and will sail from Montreal May 30, on the liner Melita.

While abroad they expect to visit in Glasgow, Scotland, and Liverpool, England, but most of the time will be spent in Montier, Switzerland, visiting a sister and niece of Mrs. Reynolds and Mr. Saucy. They expect to remain abroad until September and will return by way of New York and Chicago.

The teachers and pupils of Hayesville are holding open house Monday afternoon, May 25, at 2:30. All parents and friends are cordially invited to attend. There will be exhibits of sewing and art, also an assembly program.

GIVES AWAY ASTERS

PRATUM, May 23.—Fred De Vries will give away several thousand red aster plants Tuesday night, May 26, to anyone who will get them and grow them to be used at the Sunday school booth at the fair grounds during state fair week.

Silverton

SILVERTON, May 23.—One of the loveliest things given by any high school group this season was the musical comedy, "In Old Vienna," given under the direction of Miss Fay Sparks by the Girls' Glee and the mixed choruses of the senior high school Friday night at the Eugene Field auditorium. The house was packed for the affair and everyone, it was easily discernable, both by the applause and spoken comment between acts, was highly pleased.

Certainly much credit is reflected on Miss Sparks. The accompaniment, with Blanch Toering and Violet Herrigstad at the piano and Beryl Ottaway, violinist, was also exceptionally good.

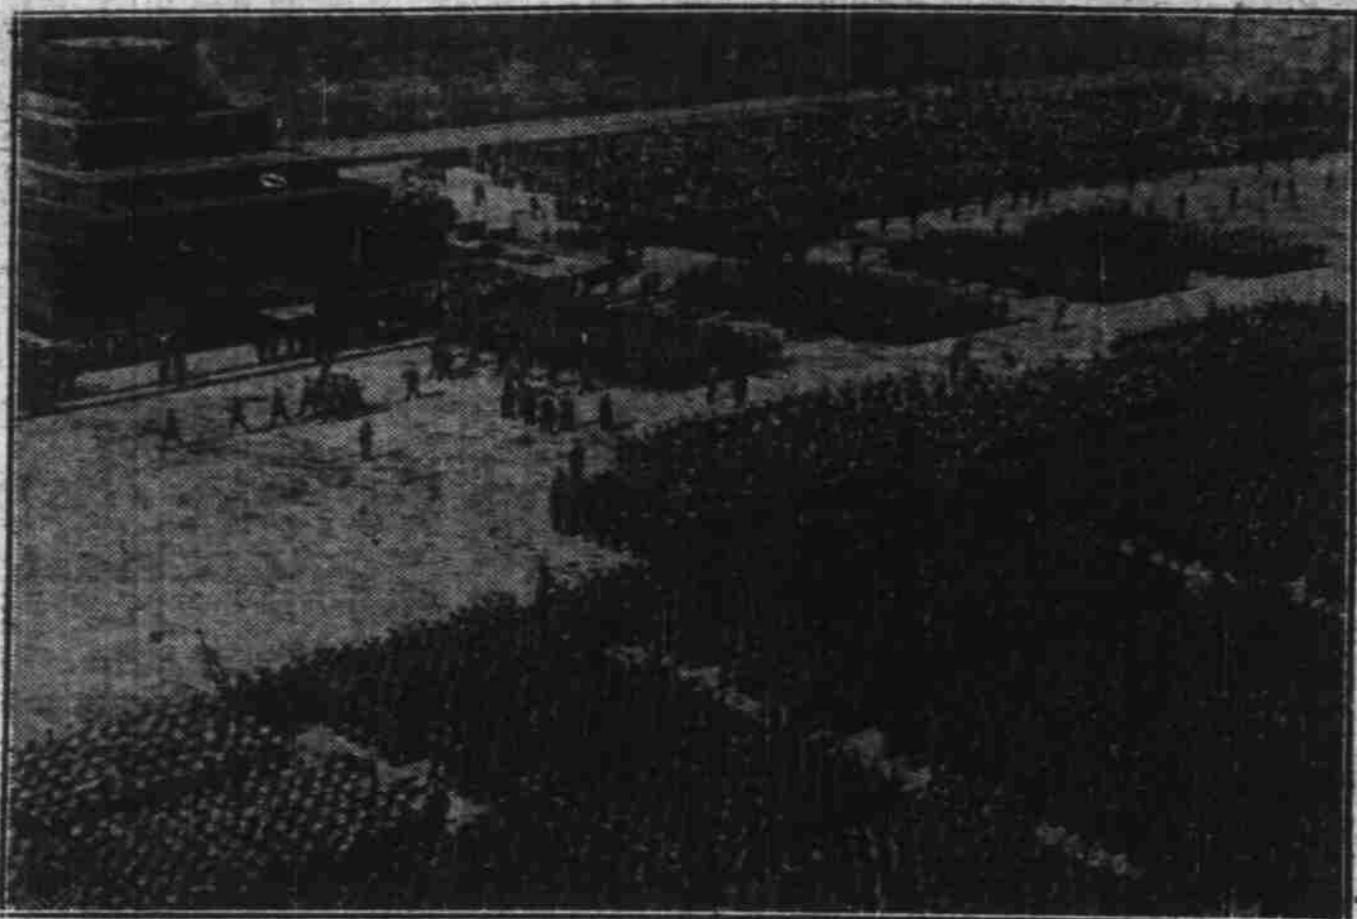

It would be rather difficult to select one character of the heavier roles and say that he or she was particularly outstanding. Max Lindholm and Frances Nelson, carrying the leading parts, were excellent, and their support in Donald Burch, Diane Moore, Elvin Almqvist, Ethyl Smith, and Ralph Langley was very good. "The Mystical Pool" sung by Ilona (Frances Nelson) and the chorus, and "A Vision" by Lady Vivian (Ethyl Smith) and Ilona were outstanding.

ARRESTED

Police Chief Ass Cusick, of Evans, Ky., above, is undergoing a unique experience for one who is usually on the outside looking in. For now Chief Cusick is behind the bars charged with murder in connection with the slaying of four men in the Harlan County mine disorders. Chief Cusick's assistant and another official also were arrested with him, charged with participating in the fatal disturbances. They have denied the charges.

"REDS" HONOR LENIN ON MAY DAY

a solid phalanx and martial array, with bands blaring and crimson banners waving, thousands of the soldiery and citizenry of the Soviet Republic assembled in Red Square in Moscow May Day to observe the annual day of celebration of Communism. Lenin's impressive tomb can be seen in the left background with the hordes of the Red empire surrounding it at stiff attention.

Picnic Enjoyed By First Aiders Hubbard School

HUBBARD, May 23.—Miss Juanita Johnson, health nurse of the Hubbard unit, and her First Aid class in the Hubbard school enjoyed a picnic at Shad-E-Acres Friday afternoon.

A jolly time was spent at swimming, baseball playing and a picnic dinner spread on tables under the large shade trees.

Colorful Spectacle Marks Crowning of Queen Mary I At West Salem Activities

WEST SALEM, May 23.—A colorful and beautiful spectacle was the crowning of Queen Mary I the first Friday afternoon at the May festivities of the West Salem school. The queen, who in private life is Miss Mary Helen Urrish, was attended at her coronation by the following maids-in-waiting: Ruth Maerz, Hazel Myers, Naomi Alsop, Mildred Crum, Wilma Crum, Catherine Applewhite, Reba Clarke and Jean Smith.

With the queen crowned, her attendants trod the stately measures of a minuet. The primary grades, clad in rainbow hues, wound the May pole, Mary Ruth Riffey represented Madam Spring in a pageant in which she was welcomed by two red-breasted robins who ushered in rain-drops, breezes, sunbeams, and flowers. A song, "Welcome Sweet Springtime" was followed by a May pole dance by pupils of the upper grades. Sports, including a baseball game between Marion and the home team, completed the afternoon's program. Marlon won by a score of 15 to 9. Friday will mark the close of the school term.

The final meeting for the season of the Parent-Teachers' association was held in the new school building Friday afternoon. It was a brief business session with Mrs. Elmer Cook, president, presiding. In view of the new free text book law, a discussion was held concerning disposition of books now on hand. A motion carried that teachers be authorized to confer with parents in the matter of all books being left in the school building for fumigation and for redistribution at behest, wounding the May pole, Mary Ruth Riffey represented Madam Spring in a pageant in which she was welcomed by two red-breasted robins who ushered in rain-drops, breezes, sunbeams, and flowers.
