

MRS. CHAMBERS PASSES AWAY

"Aunt Malinda" Long-Time Resident There; Many Relatives Living

TURNER, May 23.—Mrs. Malinda E. Chambers, one of Turner's oldest residents died May 18 at John Day, Oregon, at the home of her son, Worth Janney. Mrs. Chambers left her home four weeks ago for the trip which proved to be too hard for her as she suffered a stroke of paralysis soon after reaching her son's home. Malinda E. Lewis was born November 2, 1851, daughter of pioneer parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Lewis. In 1868 she was married to William Porter of Aumsville; four children came to the home, Minnie, Essie, Frank and Marion, two of whom survive. Mrs. Essie Haggey of Hanford, Cal., and Frank of Pendleton.

Several years after Mr. Porter's death in 1880, she was married to P. H. Janney. One son, Worth, was born. After Mr. Janney's death and about 1898 she was married to E. J. Chambers of Sunnyside, where she made her home a few years until the death of her husband. She has since made her home with her children and grandchildren.

She was known as "Aunt Malinda" who was loved by all who knew her. She was always ready to lend a helping hand to friends and to anyone in need. The Christian church was filled Wednesday afternoon with relatives and friends, whose floral offerings were many.

Rev. M. A. Groves of the Ford Memorial church of West Salem officiated at the funeral, assisted by Rev. E. J. Gilstrap, pastor of the Christian church. Burial was made in Twin Oak cemetery beside her first husband. Graveside services were in charge of the Eastern Star of which organization Mrs. Chambers had been a member for many years.

Class was congratulated by an address by Benjamin Chamberlin and William Royse. Diplomas presented by Mr. Royse.

Presentations were made to the class and congratulations were offered by everyone.

The hall and stage were decorated with lavender and green crepe paper, these were the class colors. A large crowd attended and only standing room was available.

Weekend Guests Many at Marcums'

JEFFERSON, May 23.—Mr. and Mrs. Marcum had as guests over the week end Rev. and Mrs. V. W. Anglin and daughter, Dorothy, Mrs. Margaret Kindlesperger, Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wilson, the Misses Estel and Alice Newton and Doris Durand, all of Marshfield, and Mr. and Mrs. John Haskins and daughter Katherine of Philomath. The group from Marshfield was en route to Portland to attend the district assembly of the Nazarene church which convened there during the week. Little Dorothy Anglin remained at the Marcum home until her parents' return from the assembly.

STROUDS TURNER VISITORS TURNER, May 23.—Mr. and Mrs. Rosco Stroud and two daughters, Dona and Carmen, of Portland, spent Thursday night and Friday at the home of Mr. Stroud's aunt, Mrs. C. A. Bear. Mr. Stroud is a tenor singer and is often heard over the radio. The family called on relatives in the Rosedale district and returned home Friday night.

WINS BEAUTY

Arthur "Bugs" Beer, famous newspaper writer and humorist, with his bride, the former Louise Andrews, ex-Follies beauty, after their secret marriage in New Jersey. Beer's first wife, Margery Cassidy Beer, died two years ago, leaving a daughter, whom "Bugs" affectionately calls "Buglets."

MISS M'DOWELL ON WAY BACK TO HEALTH

ORCHARD HEIGHTS, May 23.—Miss Ethel McDowell is recovering from injuries received in an auto accident while riding with Frank Sbaat and his sister, Miss Sbaat of Pratum, with whom she made her home while teaching in the Pratum school. Miss McDowell is home for the summer vacation, her school having closed May 15.

J. W. Edgar is suffering from severe bruises caused by a heavy gate falling and striking him in the side.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Stribe of Hiawatha, Kans., arrived Monday at the J. W. Simmons' home. The Stribes are parents of Mrs. Simmons, whom they had not met for eight years. They expect to remain until October. An additional guest at the Simmons' home is Mrs. Simmons' sister, Mrs. Ella Adams of Seattle.

Withers Buys Farm A. A. Withers has purchased the 10-acre fruit farm formerly owned by Mrs. T. Kuntz. He expects to take out some of the orchard and plant loganberries.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Gibson of Salem are camping on their farm here and will remain through the berry season. Berry harvest will begin in earnest the first of the week. Most growers report prospects for a good crop though not such a bountiful one as last year.

Miss Dorothy Baker of Chicago was a recent dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. William McDowell. Miss Baker is visiting other friends in Salem. Mountain View school will hold the last Parent-Teachers' meeting for the season Thursday evening, May 28, instead of Friday as previously announced. The change of date is due to the fact that many people are going away over Memorial day.
