

Events of Interest in Social - Musical - Club Circles

OLIVER M. DOAK, Society Editor

Monday Party Will Be Delightful Affair

MRS. HARRY WORTH and Mrs. George Arbuckle will entertain with a 10-table bridge luncheon at the Gray Belle Monday at 1 o'clock. This will be one of the smartest affairs of the spring. Snaps and roses will be used to make the Silver Grill room of the Gray Belle a delightful background for the affair.

The guest list will include Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. C. E. Bates, Mrs. Max Bacon, Mrs. F. G. Bowser, Mrs. F. G. Brock, Mrs. Ralph Cooley, Mrs. Harry N. Crain, Mrs. G. F. Chambers, Mrs. Wilson Darby, Mrs. Rex Davis, Mrs. I. M. Doughton, Mrs. George L. Forge, Mrs. Ray Hartman, Mrs. Guy Irwin, Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mrs. E. B. Kugel, Mrs. Percy Kelly, Mrs. T. L. Kuhns, Mrs. George King, Mrs. E. Ling, Mrs. J. E. Law, Mrs. Frank Myers, Mrs. Douglas McKay, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. G. B. McCullough, Mrs. Roger Mything, Mrs. Roy Mills, Mrs. James Nicholson, Mrs. Phillip Newmyer, Mrs. Walter M. Pennington, Mrs. Max Page, Mrs. W. L. Phillips, Mrs. H. L. Stiff, Mrs. W. I. Staley, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Claude Stensloff, Mrs. E. M. Simons, Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. Erwin Smith, Miss Zoe Stockton, Mrs. George R. Vehrs, Mrs. J. H. Willott, Mrs. A. L. Wallace and Mrs. Harry J. Wiedmer.

Miss Tartar to Present Pupil

Lena Belle Tartar will present Miss Marjory O'Dell, soprano, in a voice recital Tuesday night in Waller hall. Miss Lencie Cummings will accompany and Miss Hortense Taylor, violinist will assist.

Miss O'Dell is a sophomore in Willamette university and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Taylor who were formerly of the First Methodist church, Salem.

The program includes:

- I
- Aria from "Theodora" Handel
- Angela, Ever Bright and Fair Handel
- Der Nussbaum Schumann
- Widmung Schumann
- Vollkriedchen Schumann
- III
- Concerto in A Minor (last half) Accoly
- Aria from "Samson et Dalila" Handel
- Men cour d'ours a la voile - Massenet
- Ours les yeux bleus - Massenet
- Be Sweetie in Blue - 19th Century Air
- Cherry Ripe - Horn
- When Love is Kind - Old English
- Sonata in G Minor Tartini
- Adagio-Presto
- The Moon Goes Drifting - Grum
- In Luxembourg Gardens - Woodman
- A Birthday

Aurora Club Will Install Officers

Aurora—Mrs. A. M. Kraus and Miss Georgia Kraus entertained the Aurora Woman's club at the home of Mrs. Kraus, Wednesday. President Lena Ehlen disposed of the business in a speedy manner to make time for the reading of papers on county government and public health and safety by Florence Crissell. Mrs. Lorin Giesy read a short poem. Pictures reviewed were "Boy with Rabbit" and "The Storage Room" by Eleanor Reed. "The Artist's Mother" by Whistler given by Leta Giesy and "Behind the Flower" Kamp Welch was given by Arda Kraus. A group of songs was led by Madge Stoner.

A social time and refreshments followed. This meeting concluded the year's program. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ida Yergen June 3, at which time officers for the coming year will be elected. Refreshments will be served.

Ankeny Woman's Club at Watts Home

Sidney—The Ankeny Woman's club met at the country home of Mrs. Ben Watts recently. The spacious living rooms were made attractive with large bowls of roses. An interesting program was given and a social afternoon was enjoyed.

Dainty refreshments were served at the tea hour by the hostesses to the following club members: Mrs. E. L. Finley, Mrs. A. H. Thompson, Mrs. Sidney Howard and daughter Margaret, Mrs. William Wiederkehr, Mrs. R. H. Farr, Mrs. L. B. Smith, Mrs. Charles Meier, Mrs. J. O. Farr, Mrs. C. F. Johnston and the hostess, Mrs. Ben Watts.

The auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars will hold a pep rally for the sale of poppies Monday night at the Woman's clubhouse beginning at 8 o'clock. The poppy sale will take place Thursday and Friday of this week. Announcement will be made at this meeting of those members of the auxiliary who will speak in the schools as a part of the pre-memorial services.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Mrs. W. A. Jones and Miss Mabel Creighton motored to Corvallis Thursday night and surprised Creighton Jones with a birthday dinner served at the Benton hotel. Ivan Martin of Portland was an additional guest. Mr. Jones is a junior in Oregon State college and is a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity.

Mrs. F. W. Covatt entertained her thimble club at her home on South 15th street Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Iva Covatt was a guest of honor. Club members present were Mrs. Bertha Loveland, Mrs. George Strang, Mrs. Anna Calise, Mrs. Ed Budings, Mrs. T. R. Soder, Mrs. W. E. Adolbert, Mrs. Katherine Lewis, Miss Margaret Bernidini.

POPULAR HOSTESS OF SPRING

MRS. J. E. LAW who with Mrs. U. G. Shipley has been a popular hostess of the recent weeks. A series of brilliant social affairs were given by Mrs. Law and Mrs. Shipley at the Shipley home.—Photo by Kennell-Elis.

Small Maid is Birthday Hostess

MRS. WALTER SPAULDING entertained in compliment to the ninth birthday of her daughter, Leone Spaulding, Saturday morning with a charming 9:30 o'clock breakfast.

The long breakfast table was a study in pastel shades. Flowers centered the table and at the place of each small guest was a place card arranged with tapers and a tiny bud vase holding a bud.

Mrs. Spaulding was assisted by Mrs. C. A. Spaulding, Mrs. D. X. Beecher, Mrs. Roy Scott, Miss Carolyn Braden and Miss Beryl Marsters. Following the breakfast the young guests enjoyed a line party.

Guests in compliment to Miss Leone were Wida Jerman, Carolyn Brady, Nancy Strickland, Jean Strickland, Elizabeth Ann Herrick, Beverley Boydston, Carmen Jean Vehrs, Alice Ann Wirtz, Margaret Upjohn, Rowena Upjohn, Florence Upjohn, Frances Roseman, Margery Roseman, Sybil Spear, Frances Liburn, Florence Liburn, Ruth Ranger, Jean Ranger, Mary Laughlin, Marjorie Pickens, Beth Jo Schott, Ila Mills, Vera Beecher, Harriett Crawford, Lorah Kate Griffith, Ella Collier, Doris McDonald and Jean Marie Spaulding of Newberg.

Teachers Have Picnic

The annual picnic for the Salem Teachers' association was held in Kays park Wednesday with about 95 teachers present.

The committees in charge were: entertainment, Martha Jean Dixon, and Mrs. Lyle Bartholomew; refreshment committee, Ruth Draper, Grace Fallin, Edith Starrett, Grace Diebel, Gladys Humphreys, Florence Steward, Esther Wilcox, Mildred Severson, and Mrs. Shields.

OFFICER IN STATE LODGE

MRS. DORA R. MORLEY, newly elected state vice-president in the Degree of Honor lodge, and also president of the local lodge, Salem Lodge No. 19. She was elected at the recent convention.—Photo Kennell-Elis.

Events as They Come

THE week comes to a close with several hours short for the number of things that there are to be done, for the State Business and Professional women are concluding their session of three days' convention and the last minutes are mostly social.

This group has mixed pleasure and business in a delightful manner. A brilliant reception Friday night set the social tone for the convention. Colorful and beautifully appointed this reception made a delightful memory for the club members.

Saturday night a "birthday" banquet marking the thirtieth birthday of the club was observed and this morning the impressive "emblem" breakfast will bring to a close the social events of the weekend.

Hostesses this week have been numerous. Mrs. Palmer MacDonald and Mrs. Wayne Loder were hostesses for one of the most beautiful parties of the season at the Marion hotel. Mrs. A. C. F. Perry was hostess in compliment to her mother.

Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., and Mrs. Harry Hawkins were informal tea hostesses Friday afternoon; Mrs. W. H. Darby was hostess for six tables of cards Friday afternoon which charming event closed a series of parties for which she has been hostess.

Other hostesses for the week have been Mrs. A. E. Wickert, Mrs. Saul Janz, Mrs. Curtis Cole, and Mrs. Edward Heenan.

Pre-Nuptial Fete Bride of June Eleven

MISS MARGARET PRO, who will be married in Boston June 11 to George L. Poor, was the inspiration for a pre-nuptial shower for which Misses Louvera and Wilma Horn were hostesses at the Pro home Friday evening.

The affair was a surprise to Miss Pro, who returned from a dinner party in the country to find the guests assembled in the living rooms. After games and musical numbers, the girls were delivered on a "missionary barrel." Late in the evening dainty refreshments were served. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. G. L. Pro.

The guests invited for the shower were: Mrs. Perle Burnham, L. M. Dewey, Evelyn McKinley, H. C. Hummel, Rollin Beavler, Lena Hockett, Sophia Wheeler, George Rhodes, Mina Saunders, Jack Bates, R. A. Horn, S. E. Keith, George White, Harry Watson, Grace Lawless, Everett Brown, S. M. Wright, Fay Sherman, Leda Nichols, Gordon Black, Hazel Shepherd, E. O. Kinderman, Ethel Gilstrap, Claude Bennett, O. P. Driggs, Paul Frommelt, Charles D. Hulings, Daisy Collar, Isabelle Overby, Christine Daniels and C. L. Collier, and the Misses Frances L. Welch, Edith Fanning, Lela Belle Sanders, Kathryn Young, Dorothy Franko, Helen Prang, Virginia Brown, Loretta Pro, Dorothy Pro and the very young Betty Jean White and Marion Horn.

Oregon Girl Wins Honor in East

Miss Carmen Siewert, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. S. A. Siewert of Warsaw, Ind., and who is well remembered in Salem, has just been awarded a gold medal from American Conservatory of Music in Chicago by a board of critics before whom she sang May 16.

Miss Siewert, niece of A. A. Siewert of Salem, will graduate from the conservatory in June. She will then have a bachelor's degree in piano and composition. Both Rev. and Mrs. Siewert graduated from Willamette university. Mrs. Siewert will be remembered as Frances Cornelius.

Past Matrons Will Meet

Mrs. James Godfrey will open her home to members of the Past Matrons club Friday evening. Mrs. W. B. Johnson, Mrs. Alice Coolidge, and Miss Lelia Johnson will be hostesses for this business and social meeting.

Pratum Wedding Pretty Event

Pratum—Beneath a beautiful arch of cedar boughs and white roses, Grace Kleen of Pratum and Newton Allen of Denver, California, were united in marriage at Pratum Methodist church Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The bride party entered the beautifully decorated church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Miriam Keating of Vancouver, Wn.

The bride was beautiful in a heavy white crepe dress with close fitted bodice and a full length veil caught with mock orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Cecil Bruner roses and sweet peas.

Her only attendant was Nellie Kleen who wore a nice green crepe de chine dress and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas and white roses.

Ralph Kleen served as best man. Just preceding the ceremony Roscoe Plowman of Salem sang "Love Never Falteth" accompanied by Miss Keating.

Rev. Althea Allen Dunsmuir, sister of the groom, performed the impressive ceremony. James Raymond and Herman Smith of Portland served as ushers.

The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kleen of Pratum and is a graduate of Salem high school and attended Portland Bible Institute.

The groom is a graduate of Scotts Mills high school and Portland Bible Institute.

After a wedding trip through Redwood highway and Oregon Caves they will be at home to their many friends at Delhi, California, where Mr. Allen is employed.

During the reception given in the basement of the church, Miriam Keating and Ralph Kleen sang "I Love You Truly" accompanied by Miss Genevieve Beckett, Mrs. William de Vries, Mrs. Loretta Thompson, Helen Bischoff and Ida Mittner served.

Many beautiful gifts were received by the couple.

Student nurses of Salem General hospital spent Wednesday at the coast. The affair was planned in compliment to the graduates this year, Miss Virginia Farr, Miss Etta Wells, and Miss Doris Thompson.

Mrs. Charles Thompson of Seattle has been a guest of her mother, Mrs. Effie Irton for the past week.

Salem Students Appear in Portland

A number of students from Miss Elizabeth Levy's studio motored to Portland to participate in a joint recital with her Portland students. They were assisted by students of Ferens Steiner. The first half of the program was given by beginners, while the second part was played by the artist pupils. This part of the program was made up of numbers in which chamber music had an important place.

The auditorium was filled to capacity and each number was received with enthusiasm.

Miss Mary Schoettle, violinist of the Salem Junior Symphony orchestra, assisted in the string quartet numbers.

Students taking part in the program were Alcyon Logan, Dorsey Reed, Virginia Lou Harkins, Jean Lewis, Tommy Gattlemier, Billy Looker, Marjorie Wallace, Ralph Branch, John Marr, Horense Taylor, Berie Jean Allen, Beryl Atwood, Beryl Ottaway, Jessie Melvin, Nathan Steinbock, and Mary Schoettle.

Grand Lodge Session Draws Attention

The Grand lodge of Oregon meeting in Corvallis for a five day session beginning last weekend, drew the attention of many people from Salem. Delegates from the Rebekah lodge of Salem were Mrs. Carl O. Engstrom, Miss Elnora Engstrom, Mrs. Coral McNeil, Mrs. Elsie Townsend, and Mrs. Edith McElroy.

Mrs. Engstrom was appointed state chairman of good of the order committee by the new president, Mrs. Ethel Moldram of Milwaukee. Mrs. Engstrom is making plans for visits to the various Rebekah groups of the state.

Carl O. Engstrom was elected brigadier chaplain of the Patriarchs Militant. Mrs. Alma Henderson, who for two years was associate president of the Patriarchs, was present for the Grand lodge. Mrs. Henderson is now past associate president and Mrs. Gertrude Rooney of Marshfield was elected associate president.

Chi Delta Delphians Will Meet Tuesday

Mrs. J. T. Delaney will be hostess to members of the Chi Delta chapter of the Delphian society at her home 760 North Summer street, Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

The topic for discussion is "Jolly and his Age." Topics will be taken by Mrs. E. B. Millard, Mrs. W. J. Nelson, Mrs. Karl Heinlein, Mrs. J. T. Delaney, Mrs. E. A. Collier, Mrs. Charles Hudkins, and Mrs. Carl Nelson.

Barbara Barnes Will Present Dance Revue

One of the interesting events for the public is the annual spring dance revue presented by Salem groups. Miss Barbara Barnes will present students from the Barbara Barnes School of the Dance, June 4 and 5 at Warner Bros. Elainore theater.

Of unusual interest is the "Indian drama" which will conclude the program. Miss Barnes arranged the steps and interpretation for the drama and Ralph Schomp arranged the music. The drama is based on the Indian legend of the Willamette valley, "The Bridge of the Gods".

Mrs. Otto Paulus, who designed the costumes and sets for the Egyptian ballet of last year will design the costumes and stage sets for the Indian drama.

The entire program will include six numbers. The first will be the tiny people between the ages of three to 14 years old and will be called "The Little Circus" with Pauline Zoe Chambers as the "ring leader".

Other numbers will be "Adagio Classique", Josie Acklin and Elmer Lowell Griepentrog; "Scarf Dance" by a group of advanced students with Miss Barnes doing the solo dance; a "Dutch Love" dance, comedy; and a group of specialty numbers by advanced students.

HEADS ECCLESIA CLUB HERE

MISS ESTHER ERICKSON who was elected president of the Ecclesia club, popular young business woman's club of the city, at the annual election of officers Tuesday of the past week.—Photo by Kennell-Elis.

Melovidoff Will Give Program

A program of unusual interest is that which will be given before the Rebekahs and the Odd Fellows Monday night following a regular meeting in the Odd Fellows' hall. At 9 o'clock Alexander S. Melovidoff, known to the concert stage as Chief Minwacato, will play a group of numbers for the combined meeting of the lodges.

Mr. Melovidoff is a violinist of national fame in musical circles. For the past three summers he has played in the Hollywood bowl, and he has played with the Los Angeles symphony orchestra as a guest artist. In the East he has appeared in many of the large programs and in Europe he has played for crown heads.

The program for the lodges Monday night is a courtesy program from Mr. Melovidoff to the members.

Eastern Star Club Will Meet Tuesday

Members of the Eastern Star Social club are planning a program for Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the social room of the Masonic temple. A special invitation is being extended to any visiting Star who may be in the city Tuesday.

The committee in charge is Mrs. Eunice Blodgett, Mrs. Jennie Uller, Mrs. Stella Henry, Mrs. Georgia Cook, Mrs. Minnie Jirak, Mrs. Alice Frizzell, Mrs. Daisy McIntire, Miss Eva Serec.

Pythian Sisters will sponsor a "jitter" supper at Fraternal temple Tuesday night. There will be a special program followed by dancing. The committee in charge is Mrs. W. Lamin, Lillian Marshall, Mrs. Azale Hixson, Mrs. Lellie Hanson, and Mrs. Mary Fugh.

Pythian Sisters Will Sponsor Supper

Mrs. W. M. Persons will be hostess to members of the Past Grand Matrons club at her home 960 Gaines street, Tuesday with Mrs. F. L. Waters and Mrs. J. E. Kirkpatrick.

Orchestra Member Will be Honored

Donald Poujade will have conferred upon him May 28 the DeMolay Legion of Honor, highest degree which may be won by a DeMolay, and which was voted to him at the last meeting of the grand council at Washington, D. C., at which time President Hoover also received the degree.

As a token of admiration from the Salem Symphony orchestra, of which Mr. Poujade is a member, it will play as part of the services of the evening according to a vote taken by the organization at the last rehearsal Tuesday night.

Prof. E. W. Beatty of Corvallis and members of the Corvallis chapter will confer the degree. This is the third time such a degree has been given a DeMolay in Oregon.

The public is invited to attend the ceremony, which will begin at 8 o'clock Thursday night and which will be held in the lodge rooms of the Masonic temple.

Choose a Stitched Crepe "My Own" HAT In Exquisite Tints to Contrast Your Summer Frocks! $2.95

We suggest you get this flattering "My Own" Hat immediately! It's as pretty as a picture... and just the hat you'll want to wear with summery chiffons and silks in the coolest shade of pale green with the new watermelon crown, and pale pink facing and bow-stitched brim! And... it's only one of the many adorable styles included in the latest shipment of "My Own" Hats!

A New Shipment Every Week! ... A Hat Box Free With Every Hat!

MONTGOMERY WARD & CO. 275 N. LIBERTY

Good News!

DID YOU KNOW THAT

MACK'S

are Offering Their Entire Stock at a Genuine Discount?

It will pay to... SHOP There!

395 N. High

DIAMOND Rings of Romance

NATIONALLY ADVERTISED

"Ideal O'Love" $110

18K RING OF ROMANCE

Pomeroy & Keene JEWELERS

379 State Street Telephone 7463