Hubbard Maid is Honored With Shower

HUBBARD—Miss Anita Bevens, a popular member of the younger set and also prominent in Hubbard's musical circle, was honored with a kitchen shower Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Knight.

Large bowls of sweet peas and maiden-hair fern were arranged about the lovely living room in one corner of which was placed a large armchair and over it was raised a big umbrella from which various kitchen utensils, including the rolling pin, were suspended.

Open umbrellas were placed over other chairs in the room so that each guest was seated beneath an umbrella.

Miss Bevens wearing a red raincoat and galoshes and carrying a small pink parasol was requested to gather packages from the guests using an inverted umbrella for a basket, after which she unwrapped the many lovely gifts showered upon her.

Each guest then wrote a message to Miss Bevens and put them all into an envelope which was sealed to be opened on her first wedding anniversary.

Miss Bevens announced Saturday evening as the date set for her wedding a Melvin Mitts of Rural Del. at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bevens.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Knight assisted by her daughter, Miss Helen Knight, and Miss Gungadene Bidgood.

Present were Mrs. Irene Blinckhorn and her sister, Miss Talotta Vogel of Salem, Miss Marion and Miss Geraldine Carlson, Miss Ruby Bevens, Miss Marjorie Wolfer, Miss Leah Kromling, Miss Lenore Scholl, Miss Elsie Jungnickle, Miss Orva Barrett, Miss Frances Hatch, Miss Dorothy Scholl, Miss Carmen Scholl, Miss E. Bevens, Mrs. Richard Fields, Mrs. Louise Grimps, Miss Gungadene Bidgood, Miss Helen and Miss Anna Knight, the guest of honor, Miss Anita Bevens and the hostess, Mrs. Knight and Mr. Knight.

Pythian Sisters Are Hostesses

Silverton.—Most successful and enjoyable was the Tuesday night meeting of Pythian Sisters Home Temple 21 when they had as their guests their mothers, Centrala Temple No. 11 from Salem, and the Knights of Pythias. Around 200 were present.

Before the evening's program and entertainment for the visitors, the local group held a session over which the most excellent chief, Anna Hadley, presided. Reports of the two member ship committees showed that Wanda Anderson's side won over Norma Storaasli's. The losing side will treat the winners sometime at a later date. Probably a dinner in the form of a picnic will be given at the city park.

A birthday celebration was announced for the next meeting, June 2, at which time all of those having birthdays in April, May and June will be honored.

Grand honors were conferred upon two grand officers who were present Tuesday night. These were Esther Hogan of Salem, who is also supreme representative and attended supreme sessions in Chicago and Florida the past two years; and Helen Wrightman of Silverton, past grand chief of Oregon.

Talks were given by Salem members who expressed their appreciation of the Silverton invitation. At the close of the session a special musical program honoring mothers was given consisting of the following numbers: Remarks on Mother's Day, Ruth McPike; piano solo, Donna Storaasli; two readings, Ruby Downs; musical number by Harold Thompson's string trio; vocal solo, Myrtle Gifford; reading, Wanda Anderson; selection by women's quartet composed of Myrtle Gifford, Estelle Specht, Ola Benson and Mrs. A. W. Kleeb.

Mrs. Helen Wrightman was the accompanist for the vocal numbers and Mrs. Ruth McPike, who was largely responsible for the success of the affair, was chairman of the program.

Following the program a grand march was held led by the grand officers and followed by Centrala Temple, the mothers and children.

The dining room in which the supper was served was beautifully decorated. Supper arrangements were supervised by Veneta Meyers, Olive Morley, Marie Mc-

Mrs. Robin Day Elected Club President

HAYESVILLE.—The Hayesville Woman's club held the last meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. McAfee and Mrs. Robin Day Thursday. A pot luck luncheon was served at noon on tables placed on the lawn. After luncheon James Russell Patterson of New York City who at present is giving a short course on interior decorating at O. A. C. gave an interesting talk on house furnishings.

Immediately following this a business meeting was called by the president, Mrs. Reed, at which time officers were elected for the ensuing year. Officers elected are Mrs. Robin Day, president; Mrs. David Greig, vice president; Mrs. Claude Talmage, secretary-treasurer. The program committee appointed by the new president includes Mrs. E. M. Bailey, Mrs. E. L. Moor, Mrs. J. Claude Talmage.
