

Wildcat Pete Outfoxes Burly Salt Lake Man to Win Bout

FINAL FALL IS REAL THRILLER

Spin Winds up With Foemen Both out; Anderson Has Unusual Strength

Wildcat Pete outfoxed Jimmie Anderson of Salt Lake City at the armory Monday night to win the last two falls of a wrestling match in short order.

Anderson used a half nelson and cradle to gain the first fall in 10 minutes. The Salt Lake City man weighed 153 and was proportioned like a bull, with all of his strength at easy command. However, he fell prey to Wildcat Pete's clever fakings.

Pete gained his first fall in eight minutes after allowing Anderson to clamp a half dozen headlocks on him in rapid succession. Each time the Eugene wrestler staggered worse than before until he saw Anderson standing straight up. Then with a true wildcat lunge he executed a flying tackle, spun around Anderson's back with a hammerlock and emerged with his airboard hold.

Anderson almost had Pete's shoulders down in the third period when he applied a cradle, but the Wildcat managed to wriggle free in time. When Anderson started applying the headlocks once more Pete waited until an opening came for the airplane spin.

Final Fall is Spectacular One

It was a wobbly takeoff, rocky ride and worse landing, with both bumping their heads on the mat and going out. Pete managed to come to first, however, and rolled over on top of Anderson, gaining the last fall in seven and one-half minutes.

Anderson broke more holds by brute strength, often accompanied by vehement concentrated grunts, than any other grappler who has been here this year. He was also one of the best sportsmen in the ring here all season, and congratulated Pete after each fall.

Smiling Jack Brentano of McMinnville and Joe Gardiner of St. Louis wrestled a 20-minute draw, which received the hearty approval of the audience. Gardiner was strong on headlocks, but was rather a sorehead, while Jack took all of his punishment and came back smiling with spring-like regularity. Each weighed slightly less than 150 pounds.

PROPOSAL FOR SUPPLIES

SEALED BIDS will be received up to 2 P. M., June 5, 1931, at the office of the undersigned for furnishing to the various state institutions and departments supplies consisting of dry goods, clothing, furnishings, groceries, shoes, hardware, brooms, stationery, crockery, plumbing, etc., for the semi-annual period ending Dec. 31, 1931. Specifications and schedules will be furnished upon application to the undersigned, also from the trade and commercial bureau of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, Multnomah Hotel, or from the Oregon Manufacturers Association, Oregon Building, both located in Portland, Oregon.

Each bid shall be accompanied by a certified check representing ten per cent of the whole amount bid, made payable to Carl E. Abrams, Secretary Oregon State Board of Control, or where the ten per cent amounts to $500.00 or more, a surety bond from some company authorized to do business in Oregon will be accepted in place of the check. The same shall be held as a guaranty of the faithful performance of the contract.

The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids, or any portion of a bid.

CARLE ABRAMS, Secretary Oregon State Board of Control, Capitol Building, Salem, Oregon, May 25-26-1931

Bearcats Want Series With Huskies; Conference Champ Team Given Strong Rating

According to Butler, baseball scout for St. Louis, Willamette has as good a team as any college in the northwest. Sig Borleske, athletic coach of the Whitman Missionaries, stated following the series that he felt Willamette had the best team in the northwest.

Others who have seen the various colleges play this season are of the same opinion concerning the "Spec" Keene's team. Whitman won three out of four games from Washington State college this season and four games straight from University of Idaho. According to Coach Keene, Whitman had the best defensive team Willamette has met all season. What ordinarily went for hits down here, were cut off up there and converted into 36 outs. Whitman handled 36 chances with only seven errors during the three games. In the last 22 games this season for Whitman, no team has scored more than four runs on it.

Willamette had 99 fielding chances and made seven errors for a percentage of .916 for the season. Whitman also out-hit Willamette with 22 to 14 for the series and scored the same number of runs as the Bearcats did during the three games. Whitman's four-Whitman players did on base and 23 Willamette men did base.

Charlie Gill finished his last season of college baseball with a high batting average and though he did not play regularly this season, often came through with hits in pinches and was practically as good as the other fielders. Coach Keene had a winning combination however and hated to change.

Merle Williams is a consistent first sacker and although he does not appear flashy, always played perfect ball, substituting for Dwight. This was his first year and he should be able to hold down the first sack in great style next season. The catcher, three pitchers, the second and third baseman, shortstop and three veteran outfielders will return.

In 19 games played this season Willamette has scored 181 runs to 64 for the opponents. Only O. S. C. and Whitman were able to take wins from the Bearcats. The season's record is as follows:

Non-Conference Games
Willamette 17	Oregon Normal 5
" 3	Oregon State 7
" 7	O. S. C. 10
" 10	O. S. C. 12
" 10	U. of O. 4
" 3	U. of O. 1
" 4	Columbia U. 1
" 23	Columbia U. 5

Willamette-Whitman series shows the old percentages don't count and as far as percentages go, outfielded the Bearcats. Percentages don't show the balls fielded that might have been hits, nor the bases run that shouldn't even have been tried. Plain batting averages don't show home runs and three batters, nor hitting in the pinches. Still, even Spec Keene admits that his boys had a job on their hands.

There was talk about Lee Roy Mahaffey coming back to the Ducks. Not much chance after the way he performed Monday. Instead, he'll most likely figure in the world series.

The Methodist educational board after commending Willamette on its good showing in many departments, mentioned "an unsightly grandstand and a rough track." Apparently it found no over emphasis of athletics.

If we could get out of sand traps and onto the green like Bobby Jones does in the flicker pictures, we'd get into 'em on purpose.

SOLONS TIE UP LEAGUE'S RACE

Hit EverReady Pitchers in Good Style and Cash in on Bad Error

A crowd of 2500 was in attendance at the last game and the crowds for all the games were reported to be the best in 15 years. In the final game Erickson, Gribble, Messenger, Seales and Adams each got hits and Moore, P. Girod and Peterson got two hits each.

Coach "Spec" Keene may write to the University of Washington asking for a three game series with the Husky champions of the north section of the Pacific coast conference. However it is late in the season and doubt was expressed as to the feasibility of such a series.

With only two men graduating this year, Willamette is looking forward to a much greater year in baseball next spring. Adams, first sacker, and Charles Gill, outfielder, will be gone, both having played four years of baseball for Willamette. Adams played on second base for three years and shifted to first this season. He has always played steady ball for Willamette and in addition to being a hard worker has done good work with the stick, especially this season.

Charlie Gill finished his last season of college baseball with a high batting average and though he did not play regularly this season, often came through with hits in pinches and was practically as good as the other fielders. Coach Keene had a winning combination however and hated to change.

Merle Williams is a consistent first sacker and although he does not appear flashy, always played perfect ball, substituting for Dwight. This was his first year and he should be able to hold down the first sack in great style next season. The catcher, three pitchers, the second and third baseman, shortstop and three veteran outfielders will return.

In 19 games played this season Willamette has scored 181 runs to 64 for the opponents. Only O. S. C. and Whitman were able to take wins from the Bearcats. The season's record is as follows:

Non-Conference Games
Willamette 17	Oregon Normal 5
" 3	Oregon State 7
" 7	O. S. C. 10
" 10	O. S. C. 12
" 10	U. of O. 4
" 3	U. of O. 1
" 4	Columbia U. 1
" 23	Columbia U. 5

Willamette-Whitman series shows the old percentages don't count and as far as percentages go, outfielded the Bearcats. Percentages don't show the balls fielded that might have been hits, nor the bases run that shouldn't even have been tried. Plain batting averages don't show home runs and three batters, nor hitting in the pinches. Still, even Spec Keene admits that his boys had a job on their hands.

There was talk about Lee Roy Mahaffey coming back to the Ducks. Not much chance after the way he performed Monday. Instead, he'll most likely figure in the world series.

The Methodist educational board after commending Willamette on its good showing in many departments, mentioned "an unsightly grandstand and a rough track." Apparently it found no over emphasis of athletics.

If we could get out of sand traps and onto the green like Bobby Jones does in the flicker pictures, we'd get into 'em on purpose.

Turner Topples Lebanon From Defeatless Status And Three Tied in Lead

Jefferson team 6 to 3 here Sunday, despite the fact that Wood of Jefferson had the edge over Seguin of the Realtors in strikeouts, eight to four.

Turner Gray Diggers tied up the southern division Cascade league race with Lebanon and let Tucker's Realtors in on the tie as well by humbling the previously unbeaten Lebanon team here Sunday 13 to 4.

Lebanon's six errors were costly and eked out some good hitting on the part of the Turner boys, whereas the Gray Diggers dug themselves out of the mine consistently and prevented the nine Lebanon hits from counting much in the runs column. Rankin, Turner center fielder, got four hits out of five trips to the plate.

Batteries: Lebanon: Strittmeyer, Hartwell and Hassler; Turner: Russell and Schultz.

JEFFERSON, May 25—Tucker's Realtors of Salem pounded the ball for nine hits to beat the Jefferson team 6 to 3 here Sunday, despite the fact that Wood of Jefferson had the edge over Seguin of the Realtors in strikeouts, eight to four.

Turner Gray Diggers tied up the southern division Cascade league race with Lebanon and let Tucker's Realtors in on the tie as well by humbling the previously unbeaten Lebanon team here Sunday 13 to 4.

Lebanon's six errors were costly and eked out some good hitting on the part of the Turner boys, whereas the Gray Diggers dug themselves out of the mine consistently and prevented the nine Lebanon hits from counting much in the runs column. Rankin, Turner center fielder, got four hits out of five trips to the plate.

Batteries: Lebanon: Strittmeyer, Hartwell and Hassler; Turner: Russell and Schultz.

JEFFERSON, May 25—Tucker's Realtors of Salem pounded the ball for nine hits to beat the

NORMAL TRACK SQUAD COMING

Meet Here Today Will Pick Willamette Team for Conference Event

The Willamette Bearcats will have their final home track meet of the season today against the Monmouth Normal team on Sweetland field at 4 o'clock.

Coach "Spec" Keene will have several of the baseball players in the meet today and tomorrow and will make the final selections for the northwest conference meet at Walla Walla.

Pete Gretsch, Walt Erickson and Andy Peterson are the ball tossers who will be pressed into service today. He has an effort to win from the strong normal school team and also tried out for the conference meet. Gretsch will be used in the 100 yard dash. The "Flying Dutchman", noted for his speed on the gridiron, may prove to be the sprinter who will be needed for several years.

Gretsch may also broad jump and throw the javelin. He has had experience in both of these events in high school.

Walt Erickson is another broad jumper who should be able to place today. He has in the past made better jumps than any of the broad jumpers on the Willamette team this year. Peterson may be used in the 100 and in the 220. Lowell Gribble is another of the baseball players who has some track ability. He has tied for third place in the high jumps against Pacific College here.

Regulars Getting In Good Condition
The regulars of the track team are now getting into better condition and are going to strive for places and good time records today. John Nelson tied for first place in the pole vault at the five way meet at Pacific Saturday. He went 11 feet there and may be able to reach 11½ feet next Saturday at the north-west conference meet. He started late this season, but has developed rapidly and has a strong pull up.

Kaiser did not go to Pacific Saturday, but will run today. He has been working at the track this season and is not in the best of condition. However he states that he will be in better shape by the time he returns to the track.

Regulars Getting In Good Condition
The regulars of the track team are now getting into better condition and are going to strive for places and good time records today. John Nelson tied for first place in the pole vault at the five way meet at Pacific Saturday. He went 11 feet there and may be able to reach 11½ feet next Saturday at the north-west conference meet. He started late this season, but has developed rapidly and has a strong pull up.

Kaiser did not go to Pacific Saturday, but will run today. He has been working at the track this season and is not in the best of condition. However he states that he will be in better shape by the time he returns to the track.

Regulars Getting In Good Condition
The regulars of the track team are now getting into better condition and are going to strive for places and good time records today. John Nelson tied for first place in the pole vault at the five way meet at Pacific Saturday. He went 11 feet there and may be able to reach 11½ feet next Saturday at the north-west conference meet. He started late this season, but has developed rapidly and has a strong pull up.

Kaiser did not go to Pacific Saturday, but will run today. He has been working at the track this season and is not in the best of condition. However he states that he will be in better shape by the time he returns to the track.

Regulars Getting In Good Condition
The regulars of the track team are now getting into better condition and are going to strive for places and good time records today. John Nelson tied for first place in the pole vault at the five way meet at Pacific Saturday. He went 11 feet there and may be able to reach 11½ feet next Saturday at the north-west conference meet. He started late this season, but has developed rapidly and has a strong pull up.

Kaiser did not go to Pacific Saturday, but will run today. He has been working at the track this season and is not in the best of condition. However he states that he will be in better shape by the time he returns to the track.

Regulars Getting In Good Condition
The regulars of the track team are now getting into better condition and are going to strive for places and good time records today. John Nelson tied for first place in the pole vault at the five way meet at Pacific Saturday. He went 11 feet there and may be able to reach 11½ feet next Saturday at the north-west conference meet. He started late this season, but has developed rapidly and has a strong pull up.

Kaiser did not go to Pacific Saturday, but will run today. He has been working at the track this season and is not in the best of condition. However he states that he will be in better shape by the time he returns to the track.

CURTIS COMMENTS

Dunno whether it's permanent or not, but Tom Potwin is writing the "Highclimber" column on the Register-News page every day. He used to read all our stuff carefully every day. He had to. He was the proofreader.

Reminded me of our kid days when John Beck dived the ball to a hunt, and a bum one at that, in the second inning Sunday. When the ball is once thrown away in a ball game, the best thing to do after recovering it is to throw, or preferably carry it to home plate and hold it there.

Looked as though Johnny was following the experts' advice and letting them hit until the bases got crowded Sunday, then bearing down. Ever Ready had eight men left on bases, and of Beck's ten strikeouts, six came with men on bases and four when third base was occupied.

Willamette-Whitman series shows the old percentages don't count and as far as percentages go, outfielded the Bearcats. Percentages don't show the balls fielded that might have been hits, nor the bases run that shouldn't even have been tried. Plain batting averages don't show home runs and three batters, nor hitting in the pinches. Still, even Spec Keene admits that his boys had a job on their hands.

There was talk about Lee Roy Mahaffey coming back to the Ducks. Not much chance after the way he performed Monday. Instead, he'll most likely figure in the world series.

The Methodist educational board after commending Willamette on its good showing in many departments, mentioned "an unsightly grandstand and a rough track." Apparently it found no over emphasis of athletics.

If we could get out of sand traps and onto the green like Bobby Jones does in the flicker pictures, we'd get into 'em on purpose.

CURTIS COMMENTS

Dunno whether it's permanent or not, but Tom Potwin is writing the "Highclimber" column on the Register-News page every day. He used to read all our stuff carefully every day. He had to. He was the proofreader.

Reminded me of our kid days when John Beck dived the ball to a hunt, and a bum one at that, in the second inning Sunday. When the ball is once thrown away in a ball game, the best thing to do after recovering it is to throw, or preferably carry it to home plate and hold it there.

Looked as though Johnny was following the experts' advice and letting them hit until the bases got crowded Sunday, then bearing down. Ever Ready had eight men left on bases, and of Beck's ten strikeouts, six came with men on bases and four when third base was occupied.

Willamette-Whitman series shows the old percentages don't count and as far as percentages go, outfielded the Bearcats. Percentages don't show the balls fielded that might have been hits, nor the bases run that shouldn't even have been tried. Plain batting averages don't show home runs and three batters, nor hitting in the pinches. Still, even Spec Keene admits that his boys had a job on their hands.

There was talk about Lee Roy Mahaffey coming back to the Ducks. Not much chance after the way he performed Monday. Instead, he'll most likely figure in the world series.

The Methodist educational board after commending Willamette on its good showing in many departments, mentioned "an unsightly grandstand and a rough track." Apparently it found no over emphasis of athletics.

If we could get out of sand traps and onto the green like Bobby Jones does in the flicker pictures, we'd get into 'em on purpose.

CURTIS COMMENTS

Dunno whether it's permanent or not, but Tom Potwin is writing the "Highclimber" column on the Register-News page every day. He used to read all our stuff carefully every day. He had to. He was the proofreader.

Reminded me of our kid days when John Beck dived the ball to a hunt, and a bum one at that, in the second inning Sunday. When the ball is once thrown away in a ball game, the best thing to do after recovering it is to throw, or preferably carry it to home plate and hold it there.

Looked as though Johnny was following the experts' advice and letting them hit until the bases got crowded Sunday, then bearing down. Ever Ready had eight men left on bases, and of Beck's ten strikeouts, six came with men on bases and four when third base was occupied.

Willamette-Whitman series shows the old percentages don't count and as far as percentages go, outfielded the Bearcats. Percentages don't show the balls fielded that might have been hits, nor the bases run that shouldn't even have been tried. Plain batting averages don't show home runs and three batters, nor hitting in the pinches. Still, even Spec Keene admits that his boys had a job on their hands.

There was talk about Lee Roy Mahaffey coming back to the Ducks. Not much chance after the way he performed Monday. Instead, he'll most likely figure in the world series.

The Methodist educational board after commending Willamette on its good showing in many departments, mentioned "an unsightly grandstand and a rough track." Apparently it found no over emphasis of athletics.

If we could get out of sand traps and onto the green like Bobby Jones does in the flicker pictures, we'd get into 'em on purpose.

CURTIS COMMENTS

Dunno whether it's permanent or not, but Tom Potwin is writing the "Highclimber" column on the Register-News page every day. He used to read all our stuff carefully every day. He had to. He was the proofreader.

Reminded me of our kid days when John Beck dived the ball to a hunt, and a bum one at that, in the second inning Sunday. When the ball is once thrown away in a ball game, the best thing to do after recovering it is to throw, or preferably carry it to home plate and hold it there.

Looked as though Johnny was following the experts' advice and letting them hit until the bases got crowded Sunday, then bearing down. Ever Ready had eight men left on bases, and of Beck's ten strikeouts, six came with men on bases and four when third base was occupied.

Willamette-Whitman series shows the old percentages don't count and as far as percentages go, outfielded the Bearcats. Percentages don't show the balls fielded that might have been hits, nor the bases run that shouldn't even have been tried. Plain batting averages don't show home runs and three batters, nor hitting in the pinches. Still, even Spec Keene admits that his boys had a job on their hands.

There was talk about Lee Roy Mahaffey coming back to the Ducks. Not much chance after the way he performed Monday. Instead, he'll most likely figure in the world series.

The Methodist educational board after commending Willamette on its good showing in many departments, mentioned "an unsightly grandstand and a rough track." Apparently it found no over emphasis of athletics.

If we could get out of sand traps and onto the green like Bobby Jones does in the flicker pictures, we'd get into 'em on purpose.

CURTIS COMMENTS

Dunno whether it's permanent or not, but Tom Potwin is writing the "Highclimber" column on the Register-News page every day. He used to read all our stuff carefully every day. He had to. He was the proofreader.

Reminded me of our kid days when John Beck dived the ball to a hunt, and a bum one at that, in the second inning Sunday. When the ball is once thrown away in a ball game, the best thing to do after recovering it is to throw, or preferably carry it to home plate and hold it there.

Looked as though Johnny was following the experts' advice and letting them hit until the bases got crowded Sunday, then bearing down. Ever Ready had eight men left on bases, and of Beck's ten strikeouts, six came with men on bases and four when third base was occupied.

Willamette-Whitman series shows the old percentages don't count and as far as percentages go, outfielded the Bearcats. Percentages don't show the balls fielded that might have been hits, nor the bases run that shouldn't even have been tried. Plain batting averages don't show home runs and three batters, nor hitting in the pinches. Still, even Spec Keene admits that his boys had a job on their hands.

There was talk about Lee Roy Mahaffey coming back to the Ducks. Not much chance after the way he performed Monday. Instead, he'll most likely figure in the world series.

The Methodist educational board after commending Willamette on its good showing in many departments, mentioned "an unsightly grandstand and a rough track." Apparently it found no over emphasis of athletics.

If we could get out of sand traps and onto the green like Bobby Jones does in the flicker pictures, we'd get into 'em on purpose.

CURTIS COMMENTS

Dunno whether it's permanent or not, but Tom Potwin is writing the "Highclimber" column on the Register-News page every day. He used to read all our stuff carefully every day. He had to. He was the proofreader.

Reminded me of our kid days when John Beck dived the ball to a hunt, and a bum one at that, in the second inning Sunday. When the ball is once thrown away in a ball game, the best thing to do after recovering it is to throw, or preferably carry it to home plate and hold it there.

Looked as though Johnny was following the experts' advice and letting them hit until the bases got crowded Sunday, then bearing down. Ever Ready had eight men left on bases, and of Beck's ten strikeouts, six came with men on bases and four when third base was occupied.

Willamette-Whitman series shows the old percentages don't count and as far as percentages go, outfielded the Bearcats. Percentages don't show the balls fielded that might have been hits, nor the bases run that shouldn't even have been tried. Plain batting averages don't show home runs and three batters, nor hitting in the pinches. Still, even Spec Keene admits that his boys had a job on their hands.

There was talk about Lee Roy Mahaffey coming back to the Ducks. Not much chance after the way he performed Monday. Instead, he'll most likely figure in the world series.

The Methodist educational board after commending Willamette on its good showing in many departments, mentioned "an unsightly grandstand and a rough track." Apparently it found no over emphasis of athletics.

If we could get out of sand traps and onto the green like Bobby Jones does in the flicker pictures, we'd get into 'em on purpose.

CURTIS COMMENTS

Dunno whether it's permanent or not, but Tom Potwin is writing the "Highclimber" column on the Register-News page every day. He used to read all our stuff carefully every day. He had to. He was the proofreader.

Reminded me of our kid days when John Beck dived the ball to a hunt, and a bum one at that, in the second inning Sunday. When the ball is once thrown away in a ball game, the best thing to do after recovering it is to throw, or preferably carry it to home plate and hold it there.

Looked as though Johnny was following the experts' advice and letting them hit until the bases got crowded Sunday, then bearing down. Ever Ready had eight men left on bases, and of Beck's ten strikeouts, six came with men on bases and four when third base was occupied.

Willamette-Whitman series shows the old percentages don't count and as far as percentages go, outfielded the Bearcats. Percentages don't show the balls fielded that might have been hits, nor the bases run that shouldn't even have been tried. Plain batting averages don't show home runs and three batters, nor hitting in the pinches. Still, even Spec Keene admits that his boys had a job on their hands.

There was talk about Lee Roy Mahaffey coming back to the Ducks. Not much chance after the way he performed Monday. Instead, he'll most likely figure in the world series.

The Methodist educational board after commending Willamette on its good showing in many departments, mentioned "an unsightly grandstand and a rough track." Apparently it found no over emphasis of athletics.

If we could get out of sand traps and onto the green like Bobby Jones does in the flicker pictures, we'd get into 'em on purpose.

CURTIS COMMENTS

Dunno whether it's permanent or not, but Tom Potwin is writing the "Highclimber" column on the Register-News page every day. He used to read all our stuff carefully every day. He had to. He was the proofreader.

Reminded me of our kid days when John Beck dived the ball to a hunt, and a bum one at that, in the second inning Sunday. When the ball is once thrown away in a ball game, the best thing to do after recovering it is to throw, or preferably carry it to home plate and hold it there.

Looked as though Johnny was following the experts' advice and letting them hit until the bases got crowded Sunday, then bearing down. Ever Ready had eight men left on bases, and of Beck's ten strikeouts, six came with men on bases and four when third base was occupied.

Willamette-Whitman series shows the old percentages don't count and as far as percentages go, outfielded the Bearcats. Percentages don't show the balls fielded that might have been hits, nor the bases run that shouldn't even have been tried. Plain batting averages don't show home runs and three batters, nor hitting in the pinches. Still, even Spec Keene admits that his boys had a job on their hands.

There was talk about Lee Roy Mahaffey coming back to the Ducks. Not much chance after the way he performed Monday. Instead, he'll most likely figure in the world series.

The Methodist educational board after commending Willamette on its good showing in many departments, mentioned "an unsightly grandstand and a rough track." Apparently it found no over emphasis of athletics.

If we could get out of sand traps and onto the green like Bobby Jones does in the flicker pictures, we'd get into 'em on purpose.

CURTIS COMMENTS

Dunno whether it's permanent or not, but Tom Potwin is writing the "Highclimber" column on the Register-News page every day. He used to read all our stuff carefully every day. He had to. He was the proofreader.

Reminded me of our kid days when John Beck dived the ball to a hunt, and a bum one at that, in the second inning Sunday. When the ball is once thrown away in a ball game, the best thing to do after recovering it is to throw, or preferably carry it to home plate and hold it there.

Looked as though Johnny was following the experts' advice and letting them hit until the bases got crowded Sunday, then bearing down. Ever Ready had eight men left on bases, and of Beck's ten strikeouts, six came with men on bases and four when third base was occupied.

Willamette-Whitman series shows the old percentages don't count and as far as percentages go, outfielded the Bearcats. Percentages don't show the balls fielded that might have been hits, nor the bases run that shouldn't even have been tried. Plain batting averages don't show home runs and three batters, nor hitting in the pinches. Still, even Spec Keene admits that his boys had a job on their hands.

There was talk about Lee Roy Mahaffey coming back to the Ducks. Not much chance after the way he performed Monday. Instead, he'll most likely figure in the world series.

The Methodist educational board after commending Willamette on its good showing in many departments, mentioned "an unsightly grandstand and a rough track." Apparently it found no over emphasis of athletics.

If we could get out of sand traps and onto the green like Bobby Jones does in the flicker pictures, we'd get into 'em on purpose.

CURTIS COMMENTS

Dunno whether it's permanent or not, but Tom Potwin is writing the "Highclimber" column on the Register-News page every day. He used to read all our stuff carefully every day. He had to. He was the proofreader.

Reminded me of our kid days when John Beck dived the ball to a hunt, and a bum one at that, in the second inning Sunday. When the ball is once thrown away in a ball game, the best thing to do after recovering it is to throw, or preferably carry it to home plate and hold it there.

Looked as though Johnny was following the experts' advice and letting them hit until the bases got crowded Sunday, then bearing down. Ever Ready had eight men left on bases, and of Beck's ten strikeouts, six came with men on bases and four when third base was occupied.

Willamette-Whitman series shows the old percentages don't count and as far as percentages go, outfielded the Bearcats. Percentages don't show the balls fielded that might have been hits, nor the bases run that shouldn't even have been tried. Plain batting averages don't show home runs and three batters, nor hitting in the pinches. Still, even Spec Keene admits that his boys had a job on their hands.

There was talk about Lee Roy Mahaffey coming back to the Ducks. Not much chance after the way he performed Monday. Instead, he'll most likely figure in the world series.

The Methodist educational board after commending Willamette on its good showing in many departments, mentioned "an unsightly grandstand and a rough track." Apparently it found no over emphasis of athletics.

If we could get out of sand traps and onto the green like Bobby Jones does in the flicker pictures, we'd get into 'em on purpose.

CURTIS COMMENTS

Dunno whether it's permanent or not, but Tom Potwin is writing the "Highclimber" column on the Register-News page every day. He used to read all our stuff carefully every day. He had to. He was the proofreader.

Reminded me of our kid days when John Beck dived the ball to a hunt, and a bum one at that, in the second inning Sunday. When the ball is once thrown away in a ball game, the best thing to do after recovering it is to throw, or preferably carry it to home plate and hold it there.

Looked as though Johnny was following the experts' advice and letting them hit until the bases got crowded Sunday, then bearing down. Ever Ready had eight men left on bases, and of Beck's ten strikeouts, six came with men on bases and four when third base was occupied.

Willamette-Whitman series shows the old percentages don't count and as far as percentages go, outfielded the Bearcats. Percentages don't show the balls fielded that might have been hits, nor the bases run that shouldn't even have been tried. Plain batting averages don't show home runs and three batters, nor hitting in the pinches. Still, even Spec Keene admits that his boys had a job on their hands.

There was talk about Lee Roy Mahaffey coming back to the Ducks. Not much chance after the way he performed Monday. Instead, he'll most likely figure in the world series.

The Methodist educational board after commending Willamette on its good showing in many departments, mentioned "an unsightly grandstand and a rough track." Apparently it found no over emphasis of athletics.

If we could get out of sand traps and onto the green like Bobby Jones does in the flicker pictures, we'd get into 'em on purpose.

CURTIS COMMENTS

Dunno whether it's permanent or not, but Tom Potwin is writing the "Highclimber" column on the Register-News page every day. He used to read all our stuff carefully every day. He had to. He was the proofreader.

Reminded me of our kid days when John Beck dived the ball to a hunt, and a bum one at that, in the second inning Sunday. When the ball is once thrown away in a ball game, the best thing to do after recovering it is to throw, or preferably carry it to home plate and hold it there.

Looked as though Johnny was following the experts' advice and letting them hit until the bases got crowded Sunday, then bearing down. Ever Ready had eight men left on bases, and of Beck's ten strikeouts, six came with men on bases and four when third base was occupied.

Willamette-Whitman series shows the old percentages don't count and as far as percentages go, outfielded the Bearcats. Percentages don't show the balls fielded that might have been hits, nor the bases run that shouldn't even have been tried. Plain batting averages don't show home runs and three batters, nor hitting in the pinches. Still, even Spec Keene admits that his boys had a job on their hands.

There was talk about Lee Roy Mahaffey coming back to the Ducks. Not much chance after the way he performed Monday. Instead, he'll most likely figure in the world series.

The Methodist educational board after commending Willamette on its good showing in many departments, mentioned "an unsightly grandstand and a rough track." Apparently it found no over emphasis of athletics.

If we could get out of sand traps and onto the green like Bobby Jones does in the flicker pictures, we'd get into 'em on purpose.

CURTIS COMMENTS

Dunno whether it's permanent or not, but Tom Potwin is writing the "Highclimber" column on the Register-News page every day. He used to read all our stuff carefully every day. He had to. He was the proofreader.

Reminded me of our kid days when John Beck dived the ball to a hunt, and a bum one at that, in the second inning Sunday. When the ball is once thrown away in a ball game, the best thing to do after recovering it is to throw, or preferably carry it to home plate and hold it there.

Looked as though Johnny was following the experts' advice and letting them hit until the bases got crowded Sunday, then bearing down. Ever Ready had eight men left on bases, and of Beck's ten strikeouts, six came with men on bases and four when third base was occupied.

Willamette-Whitman series shows the old percentages don't count and as far as percentages go, outfielded the Bearcats. Percentages don't show the balls fielded that might have been hits, nor the bases run that shouldn't even have been tried. Plain batting averages don't show home runs and three batters, nor hitting in the pinches. Still, even Spec Keene admits that his boys had a job on their hands.

There was talk about Lee Roy Mahaffey coming back to the Ducks. Not much chance after the way he performed Monday. Instead, he'll most likely figure in the world series.

The Methodist educational board after commending Willamette on its good showing in many departments, mentioned "an unsightly grandstand and a rough track." Apparently it found no over emphasis of athletics.

If we could get out of sand traps and onto the green like Bobby Jones does in the flicker pictures, we'd get into 'em on purpose.