him over the honors he did receive. Members of Dick's party were his father, C. A. Rockhill; his grandfather J. A. Mothorn and his instructor Professor Burris L. Young. The trip was made by automobile which proved to be a very enjoyable outing.

Burnett Bros., Jewelers, established more than thirty years ago. "Pay Us as You Are Paid"

"And the Right Girl Deserves the Best"

The Rings are sketched from a trayful that are priced at an even hundred dollars—the Diamonds are of the finest quality. What is of importance is the fact that the Diamonds weigh 25 Points. If you will take the time to figure you will note that at this price you are buying diamonds at the rate of FOUR DOLLARS A POINT—and that price is, we believe, the lowest ever quoted by any good jewelry store in this good town of ours.

Cash or Budget Plan, the price is the same. Take any ring in the group for a five-dollar bill—pay the balance "as you are paid." Two dollars a week will do.

457 STATE

Toots and Casper, their dog and their baby, all bring a daily laugh. You'll want to see them Sunday, too, look in the new comic section of The Statesman.

Announcement... Extraordinary!

THE STATESMAN is pleased to announce the greatest single improvement to its feature service in the last three years—a four-page, two-color Sunday comic section. The first release will begin next Sunday, May 31!

This popular addition to the paper is in line with The Statesman's policy of a consistently better newspaper. In producing the Sunday comic, those characters who have become known to Statesman readers through years of acquaintance will be carried along, with two additions which are sure to prove popular.

Polly and Her Pals will go on with their ever-interesting adventures, as will Toots and Casper, their baby and their dog. Then the redoubtable Popeye, who has risen to national attention faster than Bobby Jones or Will Rogers, will be seen each Sunday as well as each publication day of the week. As a splendid comic feature for the kiddies, "Elmer" is to be added on Sunday to the family of The Statesman.

These comics, prepared in the stereotype rooms of The Statesman and printed on the paper's own large, two-color press, mark the very finest work of America's best artists. The same characters afforded to millions of readers of large metropolitan papers on Sunday will be brought to Salem through The Statesman.

This service is available without extra charge to Statesman readers. Remember, The Statesman is Salem's only Sunday paper. If you don't take it regularly you'll be wise to subscribe now.

What a riot is the Perkins family! There's fashionable Polly, comfortable old Pa, skeptical Ma, Ashur, the financial wizard (?) and Delicia and Aunt Maggie. What a family.
