

KEIZER SCHOOL PRONKS PICNIC

Hazel Green Park Scene of Feativity at Close of School

KEIZER, May 25.—The school closes at Keizer May 25 and May 26 about 200 gathered for the annual picnic held at Hazel Green park. Boating and swimming, riding the cable trolley, the teeters, swings, slides and merry mix-up were much enjoyed by the children and young people. The moon-busted themselves with the horse-shoe game.

At the dinner hour the long table groaned with the viands prepared by the housewives. The committee on refreshments was headed by Mrs. J. C. Ackman, who made the most delicious coffee, Mrs. W. E. Savage and Mrs. Robert McClay. In the afternoon, sides were chosen by Lloyd Weeks and Glenn Savage for a baseball game. Those on Lloyd's side were Bill McClay, Howard Evans, Ed Weather, John Evans, Obad Frogley, Jack Bowden, Tom Slettemier and Harold Sanford. On Glenn's side were Wayne Brownings, Gordon Bowden, Tom Bowden, Carroll Poole, Warren Poole, Boyd Claggett and James Campbell. Claude Slettemier was umpire. The score stood 13 to 11 in favor of Glenn's team.

The children were all treated to ice cream, and the Boy Scouts afterwards had charge of the sale of ice cream to help swell their treasury.

BACCALAUREATE IS IMPRESSIVE SERVICE

WOODBURN, May 25.—Impressive baccalaureate services were conducted for the graduating class of Woodburn high school when the 64 graduates-to-be gathered at the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday night, at 8 o'clock.

Rev. Elmer Woodruff, pastor of the first Presbyterian church of Woodburn, was the speaker of the evening. The title of his sermon was "The Major Aim of Life," and had as his text, the Bible quotation, "But the thing I do, forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which are before, I press on toward the goal, unto the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." Rev. Biew collected the graduating class to make high aims, and then prepared a definite route to that aim. He also pointed out that failure to reach your highest aim is not as bad as not setting an aim to try to attain.

The prelude, entitled "To the Rising Sun," was played by Zora Schwab, '12.

Wilma Morrison, of the class of 1926, and S. E. Brune, playing the organ, played the processional, "March Reimane," a composition of Gounod.

Rev. Walter Shrock, pastor of the Woodburn Church of God, delivered the invocation. The vocal response was given by the high school glee clubs singing "Dear God and Father of Mankind," by Whittier.

After the song of "Day is Dying in the West," sung by the congregation, Rev. Katherine Powell gave the baccalaureate prayer.

A trio of high school girls, consisting of Opal Dickey, Edith Shrock and Zora Schwab, sang "The Pilgrim," Miss Helen McPherson, music instructor at the school, accompanied them on the piano.

After the baccalaureate sermon, the high school glee clubs sang Barnaby's composition called "Now the Day is Over."

Rev. Gladders of the Monitor church gave the benediction. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers for the occasion. Decorations, ushering, and other arrangements were done by the sophomore class of the school.

TURNER SENIORS ENJOY BEACH PARTY

TURNER, May 25.—The Turner high school senior class accompanied by Prof and Mrs. J. R. Cox, and Kenneth Hickok, commercial teacher, left early Saturday morning for Newport. They reported a very enjoyable trip.

The members of the class are Sheila Dehler, Helen and Russell Wiatell, Lela Wilkenin, Rufel Denyer, Kenneth Fowler, Gerald Given, Harold Smith and Seymour Steward.

The high school student body and their teachers went to Hazel Green picnic grounds Monday, for their annual picnic. Class day exercises will be held Tuesday afternoon, May 26.

The commencement program will be given in the high school auditorium Friday evening, June 5. Dr. H. G. Dubach, dean of men of the Oregon State college will give the commencement address.

BERRY HOUSE OPEN
HUBBARD, May 25.—D. E. McArthur, manager of the berry house for the Hubbard Fruit Growers' association, will open the building Monday to receive strawberries. He opened the berry house Friday to distribute berry crates but fruit was not received at that time.

BLUE MONDAY FOR STRAWBERRIES GRAINS RALLY BUT THEN RECEDE

Impending Opening of Canneries is Factor With Wash day

PORTLAND, May 25.—(AP)—Blue Monday in strawberry time appeared for the initial showing this week on the east side farmers' market. With two days' picking on hand and with the average housewife busy with wash day and the canneries just about to open, it was quite natural that prices should be more or less of a dip. Sales of strawberries on the curb, before the market opened, as usual, gave the inside market a bad start. In fact the finest load of berries available sold on the curb before the opening at $1.50 crate which set the price practically at that point.

Both Dollars and Improved Oregon and Marshalls were included. Inside the market sales showed a general range of $1.25-1.75 with the bulk of the fruit at $1.50 and a fair supply $1.40-1.75. One grower from Felida with made to order stuff sold some at $2, and they were worth it.

Peas sold at 5-7¢/lb. with the bulk around 5-6¢. Lettuce was firmer with a spread of 25-35¢ crates. Beets sold 60-65¢ doz bunches with a fair supply.

Cabbage movement was mainly 50¢ crates. Old potatoes were in fair call; mostly 75¢ sack for best. Spinach sold $1.00-1.25 orange box. Gooseberries moved mainly at a nickel.

Rhubarb sold 50-55¢ box. Extra fancy hothouse tomatoes were $2.25 crate.

Frosts Hurt in Kansas But Stocks Weak and Selling Results

CHICAGO, May 25.—(AP)—Despite a rallying tendency shown much of the time, grains finished lower today with corn and oats outdoing season bottom price records. Weakness of stocks and of cotton led to free selling of cereals.

Grain price setbacks were in the face of authoritative unofficial estimates that recent frosts had reduced the Kansas prospective wheat yield 10,000,000 to 15,000,000 bushels.

Wheat closed irregular, ranging from 1-1/8 cents drop to 1/2 advance, corn 3-8-7-8 down, oats 1/2-1/4 off.

na Muller followed by a solo by Mary Muller.

Jake Van Staavora had the class poem, a humorous rhyim promising the upper classes some real competition for next year.

June Rowland gave the class history, and Helen Brubaker had a poem mentioning each classmate, Emma Parr had the class will, willing good dispositions and good grades to underclassmates.

Janette Rowland gave a reading and Marie Houk had a class prophecy. Estella Wirts sang a solo and Roberta Mitchell had a theme on education.

J. E. Houk presented the diploma after a short talk to the class. Students with perfect attendance for the year were Jeanette Rowland, Estella Wirts, Marie Houk, Emma Parr, Ethel Wirts, Lamae Miller. They will receive a certificate from Supt. Josiah Willis for their efforts in having perfect attendance.

MOVES TO PORTLAND

AURORA, May 25.—George Knapp, after a residence of many years in Aurora and until a year ago was editor of the Aurora Observer, has moved to Portland, where he will make his future home. Mr. Knapp has made friends here who regret the change of residence.

WACONDA SCHOOL TEACHER HONORED

Picnic and Program Featured on Last Day of School

WACONDA, May 25.—A large crowd gathered at the school grounds Tuesday at Waconda for the annual picnic held for the pupils and their parents. One of the big features of the afternoon was a baseball game between the fathers and their boys; the boys won.

An exhibition and demonstration of Four-H club work was given and awards made. The cookery club demonstrated cakes and prizes were received by Clara Faust, first, and Evelyn Aspinwall second.

Spelling awards were made by the teachers Miss Gladys Brown and those who hold the highest average at the end of the school year were, Catherine Melthoff advanced, and Evelyn Aspinwall, lower.

Fred Sahli won the prize in the geography contest. Following the program, picnic dinner and exhibitions the baseball game was held.

Health Awards Made

Those winning health awards at Waconda school were: Robert and Carl Pitts, Lorraine Sahli, Clara Faust, Harold Martin and Nelta Brundidge.

As a token of esteem and appreciation the parents and pupils presented Miss Brown with a beautiful watch bracelet. Arthur Goffin made the presentation. Miss Brown who lives here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, has held the position of teacher at Waconda school the last two years, and is held in the highest regard by residents of this community. Much good has been accomplished through her associations with the young people here.

Besides her excellent ability as a teacher she is a special leader and a Sunday school worker. She has taken an active part in "Treasure Seekers" girls' club; and helped organize the Sunday school at Eldridge, where increased interest and attendance is being shown.

SOUTH SEAS FOLLIES BEAUTY

Florenz Ziegfeld, well known for his "glorified" girls, has gone 'way to the South Seas to get his latest example of the feminine face and figure divine. Reri, shown on left, in her native dress, is contrasted sharply on the right, where the beautiful Polynesian enacts the role of an American miss to perfection. Reri was discovered on the Isle of Bora Bora by a movie producer seeking a star for his picture, "Tabu." The new addition to the Follies knows no English, but speaks French.

ANDRES RAUGLAND CALLED BEYOND

SILVERTON, May 25.—Andres Raugland, aged 70, passed away at his home here this morning after an illness of six months. Mr. Raugland was born in Norway December 25, 1861 and came to America 43 years ago.

In 1903 he was married to Beale Ragna in North Carolina and the couple came to Oregon 10 years ago. They have made their home on East Hill where Mr. Raugland won wide recognition for his success as an apple grower.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Wednesday from Emanuel Lutheran church with Rev. J. M. Jensen officiating. Interment will be in the Evans Valley cemetery. Jack and Ekman are in charge of arrangements.

TEACHER HONORED AT GRAND ISLAND

GRAND ISLAND, May 25.—Mrs. Mable Narver, instructor of the four upper grades closed a very successful school year Friday. To express their appreciation of her work in the school during the past two years the ladies of the district presented her with a quilt at the close of the program Tuesday.

The quilt was pieced with embroidery flower blocks and plain pieces upon which was worked the name of the two teachers with whom she had taught and the name of every child she had had in her room during her two years work. The gift was such a complete surprise that the receiver could hardly find words to express her appreciation.

Mrs. Narver returned to her home in Amity where she will make her headquarters for the summer. Although she has a position for the coming year she has nearly decided to attend the Oregon Normal at Monmouth instead where she will graduate and thus entitle her to a life certificate.

AURORA WOMAN HURT IN ACCIDENT

AURORA, May 25.—Mrs. Charles Kracknberger, who lives on route 1, near Macksburg, was taken in an ambulance to an Oregon City hospital Friday evening following an accident when she was hit by an automobile in the driveway of her own home.

A leg was broken between the hip and the knee and minor cuts and bruises were suffered. Miss Sophie, a daughter who is a trained nurse, was called and will remain with her mother. Mr. Kracknberger will also remain in Oregon City while she is there.

AURORA, May 25.—Vernon Eller and his friend "Slats" Gill, both athletic coaches at O. S. C. and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shipley and children of Willamette were week-end guests at the U. Eilers residence.
