persons were affected by the resolution: W. T. Davis, Dorothy Brant, Helen Bradley, Grace Brockenridge, Myra Gleason, Irene Reeves, Ellen Hodson, Lois Cochran, Willetta Taylor, Juanita Walling, Mrs. Mae Sammons, Ruth Reed, Odille McFarland and Rita Claggett.

Secretary of State Hoss, before leaving on a trip to the coast late Wednesday, declared that he was not informed that the resolution reorganizing the state purchasing department was to come up for consideration, until he was called by Governor Meier by telephone. Gave No Reasons For Reorganizing

"I asked Governor Meier when he called me what he hoped to accomplish by reorganizing the board of control," Hoss said. "He gave me no satisfaction."

"I am just as anxious as Governor Meier or Rufus Holman to administer the business of the state on the most efficient and economical basis possible, and I have never refused to join the governor in any action I thought would accomplish that end."

"But I am not anxious to join blindly with him in matters upon which I have not been informed and of which I know nothing. "He has given me not the slightest inkling of what his plans are for reorganizing the office of the board of control, nor do I know any constructive suggestions he has made for administering the affairs of the board that have not been carried out by Mr. Abrams and his assistants."

WARNER'S ELISINORE

Today—Marlene Dietrich in "Unfaithful."

Today—Ruth Chatterton in "Unfaithful."

Today—"Rango."

Today—"The Bachelor."

Today—"The White Rengade" with an all-star cast.

THE GRAND

Today—Irene Delroy in "Divorce Among Friends."

Friday—Edmund Low in "Men on Call."

Two new shows open in Salem today. "Rango" at Warner Bros. Capitol and "Unfaithful" with Ruth Chatterton at Warner Bros. Elsinore. It depends upon the mood in which you find yourself which of the two shows you will want to attend first.

"Rango" takes the observer into the heart of Sumatra, way down on the Malay peninsula, and the villagers are tigers, real and the Malay natives and apes are the heroes. Director Schoedsack spent a year in Sumatra getting the pictures for this play.

Ruth Chatterton in "Unfaithful" is altogether different. This is a sophisticated play in which a matrimonial venture goes awry. It is a dramatic play in which all the splendid finish and artistry of Ruth Chatterton's acting should be seen at its best. One is sure of not being disappointed when Chatterton plays in a picture.

Coming Sunday to Warner Bros. Elsinore is "Trader Horn." This is a picture that not a few people of Salem have waited anxiously to see. It is a Metro Goldwyn-Mayer production, directed by W. S. Van Dyke, and taken from the book of the same name written by Ethelreda Lewis and published in 1927. The book itself was the cause of many a long and interesting after-dinner discussion. America comes the picture and it too has been the cause of much discussion.

It was "Trader Horn" which made a record for all picture history because a whole "crew" of actors were picked up by Van Dyke and transported to Africa, the locale of the story. Here in the surroundings read about in the book the story is enacted with a background of the voices of the jungle. The roars of the lions, the songs of the jungle birds, the eerie laugh of the hyenas and the deep throaty gurgle of the crocodile—all these were recorded on the spot, with the first and only sound apparatus ever taken into Africa.

As drama, it is engrossing and as a chronicle of adventure it is amazing. There are the wild tom-toms which usher in the death dance of the savage Isorgi; and there are weird native chants to the accompaniment of thousands of bare feet pounding in unison on the brickhard ground; there are dramatic battles between wild beasts, out in the jungle where everything eats something else to live. And through it runs the tender human love story of a boy and the girl, the young adventurer and the golden haired, priestess of a savage tribe.

RULING OF EKWALL PARTLY REVERSED

Numerous Opinions Handed Down by Supreme Court

The state supreme court, in an opinion written by Justice Rand, Tuesday affirmed in part and reversed in part the decree of Judge W. A. Occurrences and Gossip at the center of Oregon's state government

It didn't take long yesterday for the majority of state board of control to wipe out the personnel of an entire department. The resignations of 18 persons in the state purchasing department, headed by Carle Abrams, were requested as of June 1. It took Mr. Holman and Mr. Meier just two minutes to accomplish the act.

Two weeks vacation will be granted the entire staff, indicating their pay will stop the middle of June. It is further expected that many of the women in the department will be reemployed by the new purchasing agent, who also acts as secretary to the state board of control. Thirteen women and five men are affected by the sweeping order.

William Einsig, special investigator of state departments under the direction of the governor, has been mentioned as the probable candidate for purchasing agent. He has been active in the recent purchases by the state and has attended recent meetings of the board.

Appointment of the new secretary will be brought up at the meeting of the board next week.

Besides his $10 fine, Williams is to pay for the windows broken. Williams has worked on the night shift at the depot only a short time.

Calhoun Leaves For New Job at Butte, Montana

L. H. Calhoun, for the last two years sales manager for the Portland Gas & Coke company here, left yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Calhoun for Butte, Montana, where they will make their home. Mr. Calhoun will have charge of sales with the gas company at Butte. Twelve smaller towns are handled out of the Butte office.

C.N.A. Donally of Albany, is to come to Salem today to take Mr. Calhoun's place. Donally has been in charge of sales for the Portland Gas & Coke company at the Linn county city.

Hopper Control On in Klamath

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., May 27—(AP)—Grasshopper control work is under way in Klamath and Lake counties. Seventy men are employed in scattering poison on the more than half million acres of grazing land in the two counties.

STAYTON, May 27—Mrs. J. W. Mayo, Mrs. G. F. Korinek and George H. Bell attended the meeting and luncheon of the Marion County Health association at the Marion hotel in Salem Tuesday. Mr. Bell is treasurer of the association and was re-elected at this meeting. His report was most gratifying to those present at the meeting.

of the fastest and most luxurious passenger trains in operation in the country. It was named for James J. Hill, "The Empire Builder," who constructed the Great Northern from St. Paul to Seattle, Wash. It operates between those two points via Minnesota, North Dakota, Montana and Idaho.

Seattle Woman's Hurts May Be Fatal

It was believed Mrs. Emily Hanson, Seattle, was the most seriously injured and that she might be suffering from internal injuries and possibly a broken neck.

Clay Philbrick, Seattle, on his way to attend the Rotary international convention at Vienna, accompanied by his wife suffered an injured hand and head which will keep him confined to the hospital for several days.

Mrs. Hilda Qualley, Winchester, Wash., and her baby daughter were injured. It was feared the injuries to the baby were serious, its head being badly bruised.

Along with this activity yesterday, the supreme court held the brief title of the referendum against the state police bill, now in circulation, was satisfactory, thus wiping out the last legal objection to the referendum positions. Should the positions be completed by June 8, the administration's police measure will be delayed a year and a half.

Among other things the supreme court said that "it is not contended that the attorney general be required to be wiser than the law". That's an excellent conclusion, and it is expected Mr. Van Winkle appreciates the consideration given mere man and his mental capacity.

At another hearing yesterday, eastern Oregon power and light users were granted a 5 percent rate reduction.

It was pointed out at this session, held before Utilities Commissioner Charles M. Thomas, that these users would then be paying 10 per cent less than rates charged by neighboring utilities. In other words, it is expected other utilities will be called upon to reduce rates.

VETERANS HERE TO AID ALBANY EVENT

Members of Capitol Post American Legion and the Capitol Post drum corps will be guests of Albany on Memorial day and participate in the dedication of the Veterans Memorial building there. Capitol Post drum corps will have a part in the dedication program and a number of legion men and their wives are expected to attend.

The local post will participate in the Memorial day services in Salem in the morning and go to Albany in the afternoon. Due to the fact that there is no train connection between Salem and Albany at this time, members of Capitol Post are hoping to charter a special train for the trip.

The proposed train will leave Salem at 2:30 and return that evening. The round trip will cost only 50 cents per person and if 150 can be secured to make the trip by train it will be chartered.
