WEDDING DATE IS TOLD AT PRETTY DINNER PARTY

A charming dinner party Tuesday night for which Mrs. C. R. Gregg was hostess at her country home in compliment to her daughter, Miss Loraine Gregg, was the inspiration for the announcement of the wedding date of Miss Gregg to Kenneth Graber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Graber, June 28.

A delicate color scheme of yellow and pink was carried out for the long dinner table. Each place was marked with a tiny flower pot favor in which was a rose and attached to the announcement card bearing the announcement.

Seats were placed for the honor guest, Miss Gregg, and Miss Doris Nye, Miss Lorita Robinson, Miss Lolita Robinson, Miss Leolyn Barnett, Miss Eva Cochran, Miss Dorothy Pickens, Miss Dorothy Bjork, Mrs. Davie Willis and Miss Zaida Harlan.

Mrs. Gregg was assisted by her daughter, Miss Helen Gregg. Following the dinner hour a social evening was enjoyed.

Miss Gregg will be married in a quiet home at her parents' country home. She will be attended by Miss Doris Nolan of Huntington Park, Cal. Mr. Graber will have for his best man his brother, Melbourne Graber.

Mrs. Ella Knight Heads Willard Club

Waldo Hill—The Willard Women's club held their last meeting of the year Thursday at the home of Mrs. D. F. Hillman. The president, Mrs. Karl Haberly presided. A motion was carried objecting to any of the money raised for a Marion county cottage at the Children's Farm being used for any other purpose.

It was also decided that the members take fruit or vegetables from the Old People's home in Salem and Mrs. Robert Jans was appointed by the president to see that jars were gotten from the home.

Plans for a club picnic were also discussed.

Election of officers was held and the following women will head the organization for 1931-32; president, Mrs. Ella Knight; vice president, Mrs. Elizabeth Jans, secretary, Mrs. Lina Bye; treasurer, Mrs. Olive Ottaway gave an interesting reading.

The hostess served lunch assisted by her young daughter, Marjorie Gillman.

Bevens-Mitts Nuptials Celebrated

Hubbard—Miss Anita Bevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bevens, became the bride of Melvin Mitts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Mitts of Rural-Del at a lovely wedding at the home of the bride Saturday evening.

While Arthur Mitts, brother of the groom, played the wedding march from "Lohengrin", the couple, attended by Miss Gundness Bidgood, bridesmaid, and Clifford Mitts, his brother's best man, too kith and place before a bank of beautiful flowers where the ceremony was read by Rev. A. B. Snider of Portland.

The bride wore a lovely gown of peach-colored chiffon and carried an arm bouquet of dainty yellow roses.

The bridesmaid was dressed in a flowered silk crepe gown and carried a beautiful bouquet of yellow roses and sweet peas.

Besides the parents of the bride and groom the only other guests present were Miss Eleanor Mitts, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Snider.

The wedding ceremony was followed by a buffet luncheon after which Mr. and Mrs. Mitts left by auto for a short wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitts plan to reside near Rural-Del.

Miss Anita Bevens was born and educated in Hubbard being a member of the June '27 class. She is a prominent musician and is active in all of Hubbard's social life. Both Mr. and Mrs. Mitts are members of the Hubbard community band.

Bride-Elect is Complimented

Perrydale — Mrs. Frank E. Lynn entertained for Theda Nedrow, bride-elect Saturday afternoon in her lovely home north of Perrydale.

The Lynn home which is a beauty spot of this community was at its best with a profusion of flowers for a background.

The drawing room and dining room were beautiful with huge bouquets of roses and sweet peas.

Miss Nedrow was the recipient of many gifts.

Assisting about the rooms were Luma Miller and Mary Miller at the punch bowl, Mrs. Ethel Fournier, Mrs. H. Gilliam cutting loaves. Those present were Viola Houk, Mrs. J. J. Roberts, Mrs. E. Stultz, Mrs. P. Ribbers, Mrs. Robert Mitchell, Mrs. Alice Hackett, Mrs. D. L. Keyt, Mrs. H. Lee, Mrs. William Stapleton, Mrs. Frank Parr, Doris McKee, Mrs. J. E. Houk, Mrs. H. G. Yoakum, Mrs. Richard Nedrow, June and Jeanette Rowland.

Music for the afternoon was furnished by Ruth Keyt, Wanda Elliott and Viola Houk.

Teacher is Given Farewell Party

Perrydale — Saturday evening the high school students gave Wanda Elliott a surprise party at her home. This was a farewell party, as Miss Elliott does not intend to teach here next year.

The students presented her with a reading lamp, and at a late hour a delicious lunch was served. Those present were Aladine Campbell, Ruth Keyt, Eleanor Gregg, May Van Staaveren, Ethel Mollenaar, Donna Richmond, Arline White, Viola Houk, Andy Van Otten, Edward Mollenaar, Perry, Harry and John Nedrow, Scott Miller and Helea McMillan.

Press Club Will Be Hosts

Salem Press club will entertain extensively for visiting women here next month in connection with the Oregon state editorial convention. A dinner dance, a bridge tea, and extensive drives about the city to places of interest will be included in the social events planned for the visitors at the regular Press club meeting at the home of Mrs. Wayne Pettit Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Murray Wade and Miss Zelpha White assisted Mrs. Pettit at the tea hour which followed the business meeting.

Mrs. H. S. Gile was hostess Tuesday for an informal social meeting for the members of the G. K. P. club. Dinner at night followed the afternoon social hours. Mrs. Walter Nelson will be the June hostess.
