

ROBERTS HAS SCHOOL PICNIC

Program and Sports Provide Entertainment at Riverdale Park

ROBERTS, May 29—School closed Wednesday with a picnic at Riverdale park on the W. C. Pettyjohn farm and was attended by many parents and friends. A very enjoyable day was spent with sports. A sumptuous dinner with lots of ice cream and a good program.

The program was especially attractive and the pupils gave their parts exceedingly well. Mrs. Minnie Beckett and Mrs. Helen Larson, the teachers, deserve a great deal of credit for their work in preparing the children.

The following numbers were given: "Oregon, My Oregon," by school; poems by seven small boys, Verle Tingley, Norman Mallory, Alfred Foster, Gordon Bowman, Jack Orsborn, Buddie Zielke, and Fred Kibb; poem, "Sea Fever," and song, "Sailing," by fourth grade boys, Harold Foster, J. T. Evans and Donald Salchenberg.

Program Appreciated
These were assisted by John Davis, Leroy Edwards and Reuben Mallory; poem, "How Cyrus Laid the Cable," Bennie Salchenberg, Henry Kibb and Louis Salchenberg; song, "School Days," by primary girls; dialogue, "The Magic Wishbone," Mabel Kibb; Virginia Davis and Twilda Selmer; recitation, "Gladness of Nature," Jessie Iwans; recitation, "Solitude," by Leroy Edwards; play "Magic Woods." This was very humorous, but demonstrated a good lesson in ethics. The characters were the girls, Mabel Kibb, Clara Hanson, Frances Blankenship, Virginia Davis, Twilda Selmer and Jessie Iwans; the boys, Gerald Shorey, Louis Salchenberg, James Ingram, Leroy Edwards, Bennie Salchenberg, John Davis and Lawrence Cooper; the fairies, Rose Anne Goodrich, queen, Irene Selmer, Dora Hanson and May Wilson. Reading, "Wishin," Francis Lott; reading, "The Flowerphone," Gerald Shorey; song "Little Red Schoolhouse," Tsunke Usui, Machiko Usui, Masayo and Fumiko Nakamura, Naomi Groser, Violet Iwans, Ruby Babbis and Josephine Wilson; recitation "Sin of the Carpenter Man," John Davis; song, "Oh Susanna," James Ingram, Gerald Shorey and Reuben Mallory; recitation, "Betty and the Bear," Violet Iwans; song by other pupils, "A Merry Heart," recitation, "Mr. Nobody," Reuben Mallory; song by school, "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia."

Prizes Awarded
In the races the following won prizes: Gerald Shorey, Frances Blankenship, Twilda Selmer, Jackie Tingley, Charles Tingley, Ruby Babbis, Lawrence Cooper, Marjorie Tingley, Bertha Kibb, Reuben Mallory, Floyd Bowman. The afternoon closed with a mixed indoor ball game.

WOODBURN PLANS MEMORIAL PROGRAM

WOODBURN, May 29 — The annual Memorial day services will be held in Woodburn again this year, and many business houses will be closed Saturday in honor of the dead.

The Woodburn Women's Relief corps will have charge of a program at Belle Passel cemetery Saturday morning, beginning at 10 a. m. A firing squad from the local Howitzer company will be on hand, as will other persons interested in the services, including members of the American Legion post and other patriotic organizations.

The regular ritualistic services of the Woman's Relief corps will be given at the cemetery. The graves of all Civil war veterans will be decorated. There are 73 Civil war veterans buried in the Belle Passel cemetery.

Cooperation in putting on this program is asked by the W. R. C., and means of transportation to the cemetery and flowers to decorate the graves are needed. Those interested in helping the corps will meet in front of the Odd Fellows hall in Woodburn shortly before 10 o'clock.

Rev. Elmer W. Blew will deliver a short address on Memorial day. Artie Owings will recite the Gettysburg address and Miss Gladys Rena will sing "The Star Spangled Banner."

TWO KILLED IN NEW BEER WAR BETWEEN GANGS

NEW YORK, May 29—(AP)—Two men were shot and killed by machine gun fire last night in what police believed to be the opening of a beer war between rival gangs.

The men, Frank Armato, 40, and Dominick Bologna, 24, reputed lieutenants of Joe Rao, described by police as a Harlem beer baron, were talking to Rao in front of a restaurant in East 116th street when they were fired upon by occupants of a passing sedan.

CITY WORKERS WILL BE PAID

CHICAGO, May 29—(AP)—A public utility concern came to the rescue today and city policemen, firemen, and other employees will be paid June 1, city officials announced. M. S. Skymczak, city comptroller, said the Commonwealth Edison company had promised to pay on June 1 its franchise fee of $2,000,000 instead of waiting until later in the month, as usual.

Busy Work for the Kiddies

You all know Toots and Casper, the young married couple whose sorrows and joys are a daily feature of The Statesman comic page.

Children, try your hand at these cut-outs, color them like you think they should look. Watch The Statesman comic pages; they are full of interest and fun.

TOOTS and CASPER

CUTOUTS FOR COLORING BY JIMMY MURPHY

TO BE CUT OUT AND COLORED

Read Directions Carefully

FIRST—Paste each figure on light cardboard or heavy paper and dry thoroughly. Dry them under a large book or weighted board to hold them flat.

SECOND—Color the figures with water color paints or crayons before cutting out. Do not cut along any dotted lines.

THIRD—Set up figures by folding back on all dotted lines, putting end flaps in back of figures, and pasting under the flaps at corners of the living room. Dress figures in extra garments having letters that correspond.

FORTH—Set up the living room, with figures arranged to make the most attractive group possible.

