"Make Believe"

(Continued from page 4) "Well," said Larry gloomily, "it's all pretty much out of the question, after all, even if she did care anything about me, which she probably doesn't. That girl's like quick-sliver! I can't ask her to live on the bountiful earning capacity of a rotten re-porter, can I? And I wouldn't live on her money, so that's that. I've got to add to my income somehow. Writing a chapter a year of a novel or a scene every six months of a play won't help much. It will be 20 years, I'il be senile before I get one published and the other produced and even then they'll probably be flops, if they get that far," he prophesied drearly, "So I'll have to catch me some extra jobs if only to keep her in lunches. Curious Pay

25 Cents For

"Information"

JEFFERSON, May 29.—Certain Jefferson people feel they have squandered 25 cents for needless information in response to a post card sales service conducted by a Los Angeles concern. This company wrote residents here that "they would receive some valuable information concerning them or their family which would be of interest to them" providing 25 cents was sent south.

When the curious responded, they were sent a clipping from local newspapers, telling of guests over the weekend.

WEST STAYTON, May 29 -Wednesday evening the Growers' club met in Darley's office for their regular meeting. It was being on the fourth Wednesday. is attending Linfield this year,

Mr. Stone gave a very detailed talk on cucumbers answered many questions. Several of the growers have their cucumbers planted, some have turned their seed back to Mr. Stone, and several new parties are going to plant cucumbers. These pickles are being grown for the Aurora Pickling company. Mr. Lundy and wife of the Lilly Seed company of Salem were present. He gave an interesting talk on fertilizers as well as pest control. It seems there are more pests than usual this year and growers are puzzled as to what method to take in con-troling them. The Growers' club will meet in Mr. Darley's office until the new school is ready for use. The furniture has all been moved out of the school building and Monday they will start moving it from the grounds prior to starting the new four-room building.
