Sargent Dies Following Knockout by Meyers in Portland

Vancouver Fighter Fails to Regain Consciousness; Brain is Injured

PORTLAND, Ore., June 10 (AP)—Stanley Sargent, Vancou-ver, Wash., middleweight, died today from injuries received during a boxing match with Peter Meyers, San Francisco, here Tuesday night,

Acting Coroner Roy L. Crab tree has ordered an inquest for Friday and District Attorney Lotus L. Langley said no charge would be filed against Meyers or his manager, Burt Gilbert, unless the coroner's jury recommended further action. Meyers and Gilbert reported to the district attorney's office and promised to remain in Portland until after the inquest. Dr. Charles H. Manlove, who performed an autopsy, reported rhages of the brain." Dr. Manlove said he found no sign of a skull fracture.

Sargent was knocked down from a left in the fifth round of the last six-round bout on the card. He got up after a short count and Myers flattened him with a straight right. Sargent fell backward and his head hit the floor outside the mat. He was taken to a hospital unconscious. Consciousness was Never Regained An hour later Sargent's skull was punctured to relieve pressure and at 5 o'clock this morning another operation was performed to relieve pressure. Sargent died at 1:25 o'clock this afternoon without regaining consciousness.

Sargent had been fighting professionally about two years and had engaged in 25 fights, He had been knocked out only once before. Dr. Louis Buck, examining physician for the Portland boxing commission, said he examined Sargent at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and found him "in the best of shape and his heart was

FINE CHERRIES AT CLOVERDALE NOTED

The finest and soundest cherries he has seen in the county were witnessed in the Cloverdale and West Turner sections yesterday by S. H. Van Trump, county fruit inspector. While the crop is not enormous, it is larger than last year, and the quality is unusually good, the inspector says. There is no sign of insects on the cherries. Picking of Royal Annes will be well under way by late next week.

Growers at Cloverdale and in the south end are having considerable trouble with strawberries, but this is due largely to wet soil, Van Trump reported. Prunes in those sections are healthy and abundant.
