Prominent Salem Couple Wed in New York

News of the wedding of Miss Grace Calkins, formerly assistant superintendent at the Salem General hospital, and Virgil T. Gold-en, head of the Golden Ambulance company and secretary-treasurer of the Clough-Barrick Mortuary company, which took place Wednesday in New York city, has just reached Salem relatives and friends, according to a telegram received Thursday by Mr. Golden's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Gold-

Both Mr. and Mrs. Golden are well known in Salem, having made their homes here for several years. Mrs. Golden is a former Eugene girl, where she was grad-uated from the University of Oregon, prior to taking her nurse's training work. Mr. Golden has been in Cincinnati, O., taking graduate work in plastic surgery. At the termination of his course in Ohio, he drove to Philadelphia where Miss Calkins was teaching a nursing class in a Philadelphia hospital, arriving there Monday. The ceremony at New York followed. They are not expected to return to Salem until the middle of July.

Golden left Salem high school during the war period to enlist in the original "company M." the Salem company. He was transferred to the signal corps and saw service in the ambulance department on four fronts, during which time he was wounded in action. On his return he attended Oregon State college, where he was graduated. He was a member of Theta Kappa Nu fraternity. He started the Golden Ambulance service here about five years ago and three years ago became connected with the mortuary company. He has been a member of the firm for the. past year.

Mrs. E. W. Feldman has chosen the middle west and points east for her summer vacation and leaves Salem Friday morning for Seattle, for the first stop, later going by way of the Canadian Pacific route to Canada where she plans to spend some time with friends and relatives before continuing on her journey. Mrs. Feldman will be joined in two weeks in Minneapolis, Minnesota, by Mr. Feldman, and together they will visit in Chicago, and several of the larger cities in Michigan and other eastern states before returning to their home sometime in September.

Miss Alida Olson of Evanston, Illinois, who is the house guest of Miss Ruth Fick at her home in the Royal Court apartments, was complimeted Moday evening with an attractive dinner party given by Miss Esther Gibbard, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Gibbard.

Graceful green tapers and a lovely centerpiece of pink rese-buds in a low silver bowl, were used on the dining table where covers were placed for the honor guest, Miss Alida Olson, Miss Ruth Fick, John Nelson, Marvin Headrick, Lowell Gribble and the hostess, Miss Gibbard. Following the dinner the group enjoyed an invitational dance at Castillian hall. A picnic at Neskowin is being arranged for Sunday honoring the out-of-town

Afternoon of Bridge Honors Club Group

One of the pleasant informal afffairs of the week was the one o'clock bridge luncheon with which Mrs. Stanley Burgess complimented members of her bridge club in her home on Thursday afternoon. Sweet peas in pastel tints were combined effectively throughout the rooms of the Burgess home. Those enjoying the afternoon included, Mrs. J. T. Delaney, Mrs. R. D. Woodrow, Mrs. Kuhns, Mrs. Leif Bergsvik, Mrs. Mrs. B. Goodenough Lars Bergsvik, Mrs. Raiph T. Ure Bridge Hostess and the hostess, Mrs. Burgess.

Honors bridge for the afternoon were awarded Mrs. V. P. McNamara and Mrs. Stanley Burgess. Mrs. Woodrow assisted the hostess at the luncheon hour.

Miss Evaline Ross who has been attending the Junior College at Long Beach, California, is expected to return home Tuesday to pend the summer with her aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Ross on North Cottage street. Miss Velma May who sailed last August for the Hawaiian Islands, to attend the University of Hawaii in Honolulu, is expected to arrive in Los Angeles, next Monday, where she will join Miss Evaline Ross and together motor to Salem to spend the summer with their respective families. Before her departure Miss May was the inspiration for many interesting social affairs. Miss May has been making her home in the Islands with her uncle Col. May who is connected with the U. S. Army stationed in that part.
