Presbyterians To Hear Special Programs Sunday

Sunday morning at the First Presbyterian church Dr. Grover Birtchett will preach on "An Unexpected Answer". The organ numbers will all be compositions of Luis A. Calvo, a leper and a native of Colombia, the music having been brought from that country by Dr. Birtchett upon his return from missionary work there.

At 7:30 o'clock the Rev. F. R. Falconer will speak on "The Growth of Alaska." Rev. Falconer has been engaged in missionary work there for more than 30 years, and his wide knowledge of his subject is made doubly interesting in its presentation through the use of selected slides and three reels of moving pictures. There will be special music by the choir, and a song service with the orchestra assisting.

Visit to Farm Home Scheduled By Polk Women

DALLAS, June 12.—The Polk county W. C. T. U. will hold its annual caravan and visit the home of W. C. T. U. Farm Home for Children, near Corvallis, June 16.

Governor Meier has been asked to be the speaker of the day, and Dr. Holmes of Hillsboro has also been invited to speak. The program will start at 10 a. m. and later a basket dinner will be held in the picnic grounds. In the afternoon the group will have a general inspection of the cottages and of the farm.

Englewood Group To Hold Picnic Tuesday, June 16

The annual Sunday school picnic of the Englewood United Brethren church will be held Tuesday, June 16, at Hager's grove, weather permitting. Cars will leave the church for the picnic grounds at 10 o'clock that morning.

The regular prayer meeting and personal work class of the church will be held Thursday night at 8 o'clock.

German Baptist Pastors Will Go To Annual Meet

Rev. G. W. Rutch, minister, and G. Schunke, assistant minister of the First German Baptist church here, will be in Beaverton from June 17 to 21 to attend the annual conference of the German Baptists of California, Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

The sessions will be held in the Bethany church at Beaverton.

Berry to Deliver Lectures Sunday

SCOTTS MILLS, June 12.—T. E. Berry, author and traveler, now living in Portland, will deliver a lecture both morning and evening Sunday, June 14, at the Christian church. At 11 o'clock he will lecture on the Holy Land and Palestine; at 8 o'clock on Rome and Italy.
