

Society News and Club Affairs

OLIVE M. DOAK, Society Editor

Doney Reception Stellar Social Event

The annual president's reception, to be given Saturday evening in Lausanne hall by Dr. Carl Gregg Doney, president of Willamette university, and Mrs. Doney, will be a lovely closing of university social events. This reception is always the outstanding social affair of the year and has a collegiate background and atmosphere with the graduating seniors in caps and gowns.

Dr. and Mrs. Doney will entertain for the university faculty, the graduating seniors, all university students and all interested townpeople.

Mrs. George H. Alden and Mrs. M. C. Findley will introduce to the line which will include Dr. and Mrs. Doney, Dean Olive M. Dahl, Dean and Mrs. Frank M. Erickson, Dean and Mrs. Roy Hewitt, and Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves. Receiving at the door will be Miss Helen MacFriton, Mrs. Herman Clark, Mrs. Cecil Monk, and Mrs. Egbert S. Oliver. Directing to the line will be Mrs. Robert Moulton Gakke, Mrs. Lettie Jesse Sparks, Mrs. T. S. Roberts and Miss Lella Johnson.

Those who will assist about the spacious living rooms will include Mrs. Paul Ellis, Mrs. Alexander Ysakas, Miss Edith De- Nise, Mrs. A. Moore, Mrs. C. A. Kells, Mrs. F. G. Franklin, Mrs. Daniel Schulze, Mrs. C. C. Clarke, Mrs. Frank Snedecor, Mrs. Willis S. Moore, Mrs. C. M. Inman, Mrs. Kenneth Powers, Mrs. Ray Smith, Mrs. William C. Jones, Mrs. S. B. Laughlin, Mrs. N. S. Savage, Miss Beesie McClelland, Mrs. Charles M. Duncan, Mrs. M. A. Marcy, Mrs. Morton E. Peck, Mrs. Paul Edwards, Mrs. Mary Johnson, Mrs. C. C. Haworth and Mrs. H. M. Tennant.

Inviting the many guests to the dining room will be Miss Frances Virginia Melton, Miss Helen Pierce, Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Mrs. A. Lee, Mrs. E. C. Richards, Mrs. E. T. Barnes and Mrs. Walter Kirk.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop and Mrs. Paul Hendricks will preside at the serving table during the first hour, and Mrs. J. H. Lauterman and Mrs. A. A. Schramm will pour during the second hour. The table at which they will preside will be centered with a large basket of garden flowers surrounded by lighted tapers in pastel colors.

Directing about the dining room will be Mrs. Roy S. Keene, Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mrs. Herbert Ralhe, Miss Lois Latimer, Mrs. Roy Lockenour, and Mrs. E. T. Brown.

Junior girls at the university will serve at small tables centered with old fashioned bouquets and colored tapers.

Throughout the spacious drawing rooms and the dining room and the hall will be arranged great floor baskets of bright colored flowers. Those in charge of the decoration arrangements include Mrs. Roy Keene, chairman, Mrs. Roy Lockenour, Mrs. Cecil Monk, Mrs. Herman Clark, Mrs. Charles Johnson and Mrs. Daniel Schulze.

Jefferson — Mrs. Herbert Skelton was hostess to the Dever Social club Thursday afternoon which was held at the home of Mrs. F. W. Barnes. The afternoon was spent in quilting and in a social way. Club members present were N. L. Grate, Mrs. Fred Hart, Mrs. Gilbert Groshong, Mrs. Herman Asche, Mrs. Leland Wamsley, Mrs. Robert Ringo, Miss Bertha Asche, Miss Lillie Skelton, Miss Gertrude Asche and the hostess. The guest list included: Mrs. A. E. Campbell, Mrs. Jole Woodbridge, Mrs. R. O. Conser, Miss Lucella Hart, Miss Irene Hart, Miss Helen Conser, Miss Arletta Woodbridge, Miss Beverly Gronso, Miss Beesie Helen Wamsley, Harold Wamsley, and Merline Wamsley. Miss Lillie Skelton assisted the hostess in serving a dainty lunch at the close of the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Huckins and daughter Augusta, arrived in Salem Friday morning from their home in The Dalles, to spend the remainder of the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Russell on South High street.

Employees of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, Willamette valley division, will gather Sunday for a picnic in the Benton-Lane park. They will come from Eugene, Corvallis, Albany and Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Loder and Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Macdonald left Friday afternoon for a week end stay at Agate beach. They will return to Salem Sunday evening.

Mrs. Mert Hemenway motored to Portland Friday evening to see the rose show. She plans to return to Salem Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Sisson motored to Portland on Thursday on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Ladies Golf Play Popular Event

An interesting day was enjoyed at Salem Golf club Friday when Ladies day was observed with the usual Friday golf tournament. Mrs. Mert Hemenway had low medal score for the 18 holes. About 15 ladies spent the day on the course and joined in a no-host luncheon served in the club house at one o'clock. Mrs. Melvin and Mrs. Currie, members of the Silverton Golf club were special guests for the day who took part in the tournament play.

Much interest is being shown in the annual White Elephant tournament which is scheduled for a week from next Friday.

For the past few weeks the two teams under the captaincy of Mrs. Ernest Thomas and Mrs. Arthur Rahn have been competing for honors and at the end of the tournament the losing team was to serve as luncheon hostesses for the winners, and it is Mrs. Thomas' team which will "treat" the members of Mrs. Rahn's team at the luncheon to be served the day of the White Elephant tournament. This has always proven one of the most popular events of the season and a record turnout is expected.

Woodburn Maid Weds C. Van de Wiele

Woodburn — Saint Luke's Catholic church in Woodburn was the scene of a beautiful wedding Wednesday morning, June 10, when Miss Elizabeth Koch, 21, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Koch of Woodburn, married Clement L. Van de Wiele of Saint Paul. Mr. Van de Wiele is 26 years old.

The wedding ceremony took place at 9 a. m., with Father Rubis of Saint Luke's in charge. Miss Anne Koch, Elizabeth's sister, was the bridesmaid and Lawrence Van de Wiele, the groom's brother, was best man.

Attired in a beautiful white dress of lace and satin, and carrying a large bouquet of sweet peas and lilies, the bride presented a striking figure. The bridesmaid wore a dress of orchid lace and carried a bouquet of gladioli. The wedding march was played by Miss Irma Gooding on the violin. She was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Raymond Kerr. Vocal solos were sung by Miss Agnes Van de Wiele and Francis Van de Wiele.

After the wedding ceremonies a dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents on south Front street.

Mr. and Mrs. Van de Wiele left shortly afterward for a two weeks' trip in the south. On their return, they will live in Saint Paul, where Mr. Van de Wiele is a meatcutter.

Miss Elizabeth Koch was a popular member of the younger set in Woodburn. She graduated from Woodburn high school in 1928 and has since stayed at home. Mr. Van de Wiele graduated from Saint Paul high school in 1922.

Turner — Mrs. R. Lee Theissen with Mrs. J. R. Cox as joint hostess entertained with a dinner for the Turner teachers Saturday evening at the Theissen home. Spring flowers were tastefully arranged about the rooms. The dining table was centered with an arrangement of nasturtiums and orange colored tapers. Music and conversation furnished diversion for the evening with an hour spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Standley, nearby. Flowers were presented to Mrs. Standley who is an invalid, having been confined to her room for seven months. Those present for the evening were Prof. and Mrs. J. R. Cox, Mrs. Jean Pearcey, Kenneth Hickok, Mrs. Mae Hadley, Mrs. Clara Parks, Mrs. Leola Sloan, Mr. and Mrs. R. Lee Theissen, Mrs. Crystal Edwards, teacher, was out of town.

Honoring her daughter, Miss Bernice Mulvey, whose marriage will be an event of June 17, Mrs. Grace Mulvey, entertained a group informally in her home Friday evening. A miscellaneous pre-nuptial shower for the bride-elect was the feature of the evening's entertainment. A late supper was served the guests by the hostess.

Mrs. Josephine Williams was a guest over the weekend at the home of her cousin Dr. H. K. and Mrs. Stockwell on Fairmount Hill. Mrs. Williams is enroute from California to her home in Vancouver.

Miss Francis Welch left Salem Thursday morning for Seattle, where she will leave by boat for Sydney, British Columbia, to spend the coming month with her aunt, Mrs. A. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Shipley left Thursday evening by motor for San Francisco, California, where they will spend the next ten days on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Salem Matron Honored in O.E.S.

The formal installation Thursday night of the newly-elected and appointed officers of the grand chapter of Oregon, Order of Eastern Star, marked the close of the 42d annual convention, which had been in session at the Masonic temple in Portland since Monday.

The complete list of the appointive grand officers following the installation ceremonies by the new worthy grand matron, Mrs. Minnie White of Myrtle chapter No. 15, includes: Worthy grand patron, J. H. Hardy, Alpha chapter No. 1; associate grand matron, Mrs. Anna Ellis, Marlon chapter No. 20; associate grand patron, Frank W. Baldwin, Newberg chapter No. 28; grand secretary, Miss Nellie McKinley, Camella chapter No. 27; grand treasurer, Mrs. Isabelle Lowe, Troutdale chapter No. 80; grand conductress, Mrs. Monnie Hauser, Chadwick chapter No. 37; associate grand conductress, Miss Edith I. Phillips, Friendship chapter No. 115.

Grand chaplain, Mrs. Esther Sanderson, Nevada chapter No. 93; grand lecturer, Mrs. Margaret Barnes, Josephine chapter No. 25; grand marshal, Mrs. Lorena McNair, Alpha chapter No. 1; grand organist, Mrs. Elene Logfren, Temple chapter No. 140; grand adah, Mrs. Helen Dillman, Burns chapter No. 140; grand rush, Mrs. Ruth Mason, Locust chapter No. 119; grand Esther, Mrs. Lucy Bristol, Wapawan chapter No. 127; grand Martha, Mrs. Elsie Adams, Hecwa Valley chapter No. 50; grand Electa, Mrs. Ida Willis, Myrtle chapter No. 15; grand warder, Mrs. Hazel Ingram, Columbia chapter No. 33; grand sentinel, Duncan P. Cameron, Cottage Grove chapter No. 4.

Delegates and members attending from Salem included the worthy grand matron, Mrs. Albert C. Smith; worthy grand patron, J. O. Russell; associate matron, Mrs. Wayne D. Henry; associate patron, H. F. Boshard; A. C. Smith, Mrs. J. O. Russell, Mrs. D. K. Beecher, Mrs. Charl Pratt, Mrs. Herbert Hauser, Mrs. Leon Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mohr, Mrs. Walter Pennington, Mrs. Lila Antrean, Mrs. Rauch and Paul Hauser.

During the evening, Mrs. A. C. Smith, worthy grand matron of local Chadwick chapter, presented a gift in behalf of the chapter to Mrs. Emma Plummer Chadwick, as a tribute to the Chadwick name. Mrs. Chadwick is a descendant of the late Governor Chadwick, for whom the local group was named.

Mrs. Monnie Hauser, newly appointed grand conductress, has taken an active part in Eastern Star work and her many friends are well pleased with the new office which has been placed in her care.

Committee appointments included: Student loan, Mrs. Lena C. Peters, Tualatin No. 31; finance, William MacKenzie, Portland No. 97; appeals and grievance, George Cochran, Hope No. 1; Mrs. Inez Glazier, Beulah No. 5; Mrs. Elva Rhlberg, Mountain No. 145.

Installing officers were: Mrs. Emma Plummer Chadwick of Seattle, most worthy grand matron of the general grand chapter; J. Howard Rankin, acting worthy grand patron; Mrs. Stella Kellogg Drake, worthy grand chaplain; Mrs. Linnie James, worthy grand marshal; Mrs. Ida May Howatt, worthy grand organist, and Mrs. Bess Setters, right worthy grand secretary.

The program included a drill by the associate matrons and patrons of the Portland district, vocal solos by Charles W. F. Martin, Corinthian No. 54, and Miss Lorene Riley, Rose City No. 86, and selections by a quartet consisting of George Johnson, Floyd Butch, Charles Lamb and Lieutenant Walter Tyler.

Upon motion made Wednesday by the associate grand patron, J. H. Hardy, the convention voted to install a radio in the home of Colonel Robert E. Miller, first grand patron of Oregon, the gift was presented to Colonel and Mrs. Miller by Past Grand Patron J. H. Rankin. The grand conductress, Mrs. Anna Ellis, on behalf of the grand officers, presented gifts to the worthy grand matron and patron and grand officers, and 1931 matrons of Portland, presented flowers and a gift to Mrs. Stella Kellogg Drake, most worthy grand warder. Mrs. Elizabeth Tipton, past grand matron, presented a diamond ring to Mrs. Carrie Jackson, retiring worthy grand matron, on behalf of the Oregon chapters.

About 600 delegates and several hundred additional guests represented chapters in all parts of the state have attended the convention.

Miss Katherine Scharf, 14 year old pianist, will be presented in recital at the first Evangelical church Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock by her music teacher, Mrs. Ethel Polling Phelps, Miss Kathleen Phelps, vocalist, will assist in the program. The public is invited.

Miss Scharf is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Scharf.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry DeBoest arrived home Thursday evening from a two weeks' vacation spent on the MacKenzie river and at the Oregon beaches.

Mrs. Willis Roughton and small daughter, Elinorlu, returned to Salem Thursday evening from a week's stay in Portland with friends and relatives.

Willamette Shrine, Order of White Shrine of Jerusalem, will hold a memorial service at the regular meeting Monday evening in the Masonic temple, to honor late Mrs. Zella Neimeyer, former worthy high priestess of the organization.

This will be the last of the meetings until fall.

Mrs. Cronemiller is Given Recognition

In the June issue of "Better Homes and Gardens", a local representative, Mrs. Christine Oxford Cronemiller, wife of State Forester Cronemiller, was given considerable recognition through her article which appears this month. The article bears the heading "When It's Blossom Time in Cherry City", with the sub-title "Salem, Oregon is becoming noted for its flower day".

The story occupies the major portion of one of the front pages and is appropriately illustrated with a photograph of the Polk county hills in bloom. Included in the article is the history and development of blossom day and its benefit to Salem and the surrounding country.

Mrs. Cronemiller is well known in Salem and has gained additional prominence through her activity in the Salem Writer's league.

Word has reached Salem of the recent marriage of Valar King, formerly associated with a local oil company, and Mrs. Helen Poynter, at Clayton, New Mexico. Mrs. King is the daughter of Mrs. C. M. Chase of Springfield, New Mexico, and has been a teacher in a rural school near Clayton. Mr. King is now employed as patrol foreman for the New Mexico highway department.

Mrs. Adam Engle, accompanied by her two daughters Miss Margaret and Dorothy Engle, motored to Portland Friday to enjoy the rose festival.

Local Committees Arranged For D.A.R.

Local committees for Chemo-keta chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, have been completed by the new chapter regent, Mrs. William Fordyce Fargo, following her preliminary announcements recently.

National committees remain to be named and will be announced later by Mrs. Fargo.

The colonial tea committee, which will arrange the scholarship loan tea, at which members dress in colonial costume, will be headed by Mrs. John Carlin. Her assistants will be, Miss Ruth Rulison, Mrs. W. W. Allen of Mill City, Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mrs. Homer Smith, Mrs. Frances Cornell, Miss Nina McNary, Mrs. Frank Settlemier of Woodburn, Mrs. C. Conner, Mrs. J. Lyman Stood, Mrs. H. F. Pinkerton, Mrs. R. G. Balderes, Mrs. H. S. Pinkerton, Miss Lillian Applegate, Mrs. J. R. Allgood of Dallas, Mrs. R. C. Aiken and Mrs. U. G. Boyer.

A second large committee and the first to become active in the early fall, is the state fair committee. Mrs. W. B. Johnston is chairman and members who will act as hostesses in the D. A. R. booth include, Mrs. Carey F. Martin, Miss Ida Clark, Mrs. C. A. Sprue, Mrs. H. J. Ostlund, Mrs. Claude Ellison, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. J. W. Harbison, Miss Ruth Rulison and Mrs. C. F. Turner.

The membership committee is made of representatives from each locality who will be responsible for members entering from their neighborhood and which is composed of, Mrs. W. W. Allen of Mill City, Miss Marguerite Looney of Jefferson, Mrs. C. L. Crider of Dallas, Mrs. R. C. Aiken, Mrs. Katherine Powell of Woodburn, and Mrs. E. A. Kimball of Independence.

The Chemo-keta committee which is headed by Mrs. A. E. Austin as general chairman is made up of, Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. W. F. Johnson and Mrs. U. G. Shipley.

Mrs. W. H. Byrd will assume responsibility of the Berean's hospital committee, and has chosen as her assistants, Mrs. Karl Steiwer of Jefferson, Mrs. J. B. Aiken of Dallas, and Mrs. Frank Settlemier of Woodburn. Members of the visiting committee include Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Miss Lillian Applegate, Mrs. C. C. Best and Mrs. Russell Catlin.

Miss Lila Rigdon left Thursday evening for San Francisco and Los Angeles, where she will visit friends for a month. While in Los Angeles, Miss Rigdon will visit with Miss Elva Nelson, who is one of the children's instructors in the private school maintained by members of the movie colony.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Proctor and small daughter, Diane, of Portland, will be guests in Salem over the weekend at the home of Mr. Proctor's mother, Mrs. E. D. Proctor. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Proctor are Willamette university alumni and will attend the commencement affairs while here.

Mrs. Josephine Stewart arrived in Salem Friday from Eugene, where she has been housemother at the Gamma Phi Beta sorority house during the past school year. Mrs. Stewart will make her home while in Salem with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Slater on Rural avenue.

A. H. Otjen of Portland, is a business visitor in Salem for a few days, and while here is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Otjen.

Sunday Chosen For Two Home Weddings

Two important weddings, occurring Sunday will be those uniting Mrs. Amanda Kuntz and Professor Orson M. Washburn of Portland and Miss Evelyn Cummings and William Heesman.

The Washburn-Kuntz services will be read by Dr. B. Earle Parker of the First Methodist church early Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride-elect's daughter, Mrs. A. A. Schramm. There will be no attendants. Only the immediate families will be present. A buffet luncheon will follow the wedding service with the Misses Magdalene and Irene Kuntz of Albany assisting Mrs. Schramm with the serving. The couple will leave from Vancouver, B. C., next Friday on the Empress of Japan for a wedding trip to the Hawaiian islands.

They will return late in August to make their home in Portland.

Two other interesting weddings, though quiet home affairs, will be those of Miss Evelyn Cummings and William Heesman and Miss Echo Balderes and A. H. Julian, the latter to be solemnized at the Balderes home Thursday. They are planning a wedding trip to Alaska.

In compliment to her house guest, Mrs. William Huckins, of The Dalles, Mrs. B. O. Russell entertained informally Friday afternoon in her home on South High street, with an afternoon of auction bridge. Garden flowers were used in profusion about the living rooms where cards were in play at places arranged for the honor guest, Mrs. William Huckins, Miss Augusta Huckins, Mrs. Nettie Smith, Mrs. H. B. Plack, Mrs. Miller Hayden, Mrs. Wrenna Crews, Mrs. Wayne Greenwood, Mrs. W. M. Ash and the hostess, Mrs. Russell.

Bernice Mulvey to Wed Wednesday

One of the attractive June brides to announce her betrothal is Miss Bernice Mulvey, daughter of Mrs. Grace Mulvey, whose marriage to Stephen von Woudenberg of Lynden, Washington, will be quietly solemnized at the Mulvey home, Wednesday, June 17. There will be no attendants.

Miss Mulvey was graduated from Willamette university with the class of '28 and since then has been teaching in Washington. She was also graduated from Salem high school and was secretary of the student body during her senior year there. Mr. von Woudenberg attended Washington State college.

Miss Mulvey has been the recipient of many interesting pre-nuptial affairs since the announcement of her engagement.

Former Salem Girl Weds in Ashland

Their many Salem friends will be interested to learn of the marriage Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock of Miss Marie Davies, and Donald R. Smith of Marshfield.

The wedding was a formal affair in the First Presbyterian church of Ashland, with Rev. H. T. Mitchell officiating, in the presence of about 200 guests. Following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Smith left by motor for Rainier National park after which they will return to make their home in Marshfield.

Mrs. Smith was a member of the teaching staff at the Yew Park school for the past two years, and both Dr. and Mrs. Smith are graduates of the Ashland branch of the Oregon Normal school where the romance began.

Miss Betty Darley of Salem went to Ashland Thursday to attend the wedding.

Storewide Savings

MILLER'S MID-YEAR CLEARANCE

BEGINS TODAY AT 8:30 A. M.

SPECIAL FEATURES OF THIS CLEARANCE WILL BE LOW PRICES ON GOOD QUALITY MERCHANDISE!

Here's an Inkling ---

A Big Clearance of Silk Dresses

Values to $29.50

Crepes, Shantungs etc.

$5 00

A Big Clearance of Pajamas in

Values to $3.50

Printed Broadcloth

$1 00

A Big Clearance of Fine Silks

Shantungs, Flat Crepes, Chiffons, yd.

$1 00

And Thousands of Others Throughout the Store! COME! SAVE!

MILLER'S

MILLER MERCANTILE COMPANY INC.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Saturday, June 13

Alumni banquet for Willamette university people given by women of First Methodist church in church parlors.

President's reception between hours of 8 and 10 o'clock in Lausanne hall; students, alumni, faculty, trustees, and all friends of Willamette university, invited.

Federation of Rural Women's clubs, annual picnic in community park, Dallas.

Sunday, June 14

Willamette Lodge country club, 1 o'clock picnic, dinner in Silverton.