

LIBERTY BOYS CHORUS MEETS

Prof. Cameron Marshall, Director of Group, Given Token of Appreciation

LIBERTY, June 12.—A good representation of parents and friends as well as members of the Liberty boys chorus met at the Liberty hall Thursday evening, June 11 for the last regular meeting and practice of the season. After a practice several violin numbers by Verne Wilson of Salem were enjoyed. Cameron Marshall, professor of music at Willamette university who has been directing the chorus sang two numbers. Lester Browning, an officer of the chorus acting as representative of the boys presented Mr. Marshall with an enlarged hand tinted group picture of the chorus and their leader. The boys also presented Mrs. Gordon assistant to Professor Marshall with a gift. Joe Williams in behalf of the parents thanked Mr. Marshall and Mrs. Gordon for their untiring efforts in service to the boys. Tables were set in the yard where refreshments were served. Japanese lanterns were hung through the trees. The tables were decorated with many flowers. The boys will appear at the Madison one night next week and will assist in furnishing the music with the choir at the First Methodist church Sunday morning June 20. This will end the year's activities.

CELERY IS MOVING FROM LAKE LABISH

Celery is now moving extensively from the Labish district, with considerable motor-truck movement to Puget Sound points. Local celery is appearing in limited volume, establishing new records for date of first local production. The Milwaukie district will have celery in volume in a few days. Labish celery is now packing about 10 dozen to the crate, selling to Portland jobbers at $3.50-3.90 per dozen. Raspberry receipts are increasing slowly, but no large quantity is anticipated until next week. With large carry-overs of canned red and black raspberries, there is virtually no demand for the new crop, by canners. Strawberries are brighter appearing, and of improved quality as a result of recent rains. Volume of offerings remains about steady, and the market was unchanged today at $1.75 per crate of best Marzials. Cantaloupes are enjoying moderate movement, at prices that permit a profit to everybody now in the deal. Apricots advanced to $1-1.10 per box. Jobsbers thereby curtailing demand considerably. Watermelon arrivals are less expensive, permitting sales to retailers around 3c per lb.

RICKREALL CLASS IS GRADUATED

RICKREALL, June 12.—Graduation exercises were held in the Rickreall high school auditorium for the nine boys and girls who are finishing the eighth grade this year. County School Supt. Josiah Willis gave the address to the class. Mr. Van Nuy of the Dallas American Legion presented the American Legion medal to Gilbert Oliver, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Oliver, as the most outstanding boy in the class, judged on the five points, honor, courage, leadership, service and scholarship. The following program was presented: Processional, Miss Pauline Grey; commencement song, Glee club; Class Will, Donald Ross; vocal solo, "At the Bend of the River," Miss Clara Wilke; Class Prophecy, June Fox; address, Mr. Willis; vocal solo, "The End of a Perfect Day," Miss Wilke; presentation of medal, Mr. Van Nuy; presentation of diplomas, S. H. Robinson; recessional, Miss Pauline Grey. Members of the class are June Fox, Evelyn Linschied, Wilma Middleton, Gilbert Oliver, Leo Bibl, Donald Crispin, Donald Ross, William Powell, Clarence Schmidt.

4-H SUMMER SCHOOL ENJOYED

HUBBARD, June 12.—Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Carl received a cheery letter from their son, Mantion, a 4-H club member at the summer school at Oregon State college, Corvallis. Mantion, who is the first Hubbard boy to attend the summer school, is greatly interested in the work and play offered there. He is a member of the local 4-H chicken club and made a splendid record with his Rhode Island Red. His trip to the 4-H club summer school is sponsored by the H. Hubbard commercial club. T. club offered a scholarship and left the selection of the boy to the teachers of the school. Hubbard is also represented by Miss Eleanor Johnson and Miss Jessie Ingalls, 4-H club sewing girls. Both won places at the Marion county sewing club fair in May at Salem and each girl was awarded a scholarship. Miss Johnson's by the Hubbard Wom-

Too Much Moisture in Southwest, Little in North Area

CHICAGO, June 12.—(AP)—Wheat went higher today, influenced by the fact that for almost a week the market had closed lower. Renewal of anxiety about spring wheat crop prospects in Canada was a bullish factor, and a Chicago expert said winter wheat from the central southwest eastward including the Ohio valley was being damaged by over-frequent moisture. Advances from many sections of domestic winter wheat territory indicated an unusual infestation of cut worms, army worms and insects. Wheat closed unsettled at 3/4 to 2 1/2 cents advance, corn 1/4 to 1/2 up, oats showing 1/4 to 3/4 gain.

SMALL GIRL DIES AT SILVERTON

SILVERTON, June 12.—Juanita Bell Thomas, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas of this city, died here yesterday following a lingering illness. The child first had measles and then complications developed. Juanita was born November 30, 1920, and is survived by her parents and three sisters and two brothers. Private funeral services will be held from the Jack and Ekman chapel at 2:30 Saturday with interment in the Miller cemetery.

BUILD NEW HOME GRAND ISLAND, June 11

Mr. Joe Rockhill of Jefferson has built a small home on the farm of his brother, C. A. Rockhill, directly across the road from North Wiley's place. Mr. and Mrs. Rockhill and little daughter Cora may have recently moved in and expect to make this their home temporarily. Mr. Rockhill will work on the island during the summer months.

HUBBARD, June 12.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Adams left by auto for Boise, Ida., Thursday. They were called there by the sudden illness of their sister-in-law who suffered a paralytic stroke.

CHILDREN PRESENT UNIQUE PROGRAM

Children of Monmouth Training School Give Final Entertainment

MONMOUTH, June 12.—Two entertaining program features were presented Wednesday evening by children of the training school in the auditorium of the Oregon Normal. The first, an operetta: "The Adventures of a Doll-Child" was given by children of the first, second and third grades. This charming fantasy involved a group of little girls who with childish eagerness surrounded a doll-child, little Betty Joan Voss, seated in her splendid carriage. After investigating her musical abilities and gently wheeling her to sleep, the children, quite realistically, skipped off to play leaving the Doll-Child alone. A horde of active brownies coming upon the scene decided to hide the Doll-Child and teach the girls to guard her more carefully. Panic stricken, at finding their beloved Doll-Child gone, the children and the Doll-Mother, Connie Riddell, appealed to their friends, the stalwart woodcutters, to help find her. Jacko, the monkey, cleverly impersonated by Bobby Blair, also aided in the search. The brownies, guided by their wise king, Bobby Lorence, discuss the affair with the fairies, queened by Carolyn Gentile, and finally return the Doll-Child to the penitent children.

The second number was a cantata, "The Childhood of Hiawatha," containing eleven two-part choruses for boys and girls. The program, ably accompanied by William Magnus and Dick Rockhill of Dayton and Richard Carter from Newberg left Wednesday morning by car for Medford, to attend the state grange convention now in session in that city.

F. F. A. Boys at Grange Meet

GRAND ISLAND, June 12.—Professor Burrill L. Young of the Dayton high school accompanied by William Magnus and Dick Rockhill of Dayton and Richard Carter from Newberg left Wednesday morning by car for Medford, to attend the state grange convention now in session in that city. The boys were to appear on the program Wednesday in behalf of the State Future Farmers association.

Miss Maud Crouse and Oscar Phillips enjoyed a recent two-day vacation at Winema beach. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Moore and small son Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Moore and Squire Moore, all of Portland, were recent dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Moore at their home on Edgewater street. Lucien Berenlau returned on Thursday from Washington where he has been visiting friends and relatives in Seattle and other places. Mr. and Mrs. Marion Andrews of Oregon City are at the A. McClean home during the illness of Mrs. McClean, who is Mr. Andrews' mother.

FINE JERSEYS GO AT LOW PRICES

MONMOUTH, June 12.—H. S. Porterwood's auction sale of registered Jersey cattle Wednesday drew out a large crowd of interested folk to the J. Orwood farm two miles south of town. Eighteen head of purebred animals were sold at prices ranging from $40 for a three months' old heifer calf to $150 for Sophie's Lady Pogis, a two-year-old cow possessing a total of 25 gold medals, 15 silver medals and two med's of merit in a five-generation pedigree. The average price for cows was $117.50, and for calves was $44.50. Mr. Porterwood has been in the registered Jersey business for about 12 years, and has demonstrated unusual aptitude in breeding record-making animals. The noon lunch was furnished by the I. O. E. Economics club of Monmouth. Hughes of Forest Grove was auctioneer.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lamb returned Sunday to their home in Mission Bottom after several months stay in Medford where Mr. Lamb has been engaged in the construction of a court apartment. Mr. Lamb's present plans are to take up his farm work; and he will save for his 30-acre filbert and peach crop. Although the yield of peaches is expected to be small this year the filbert orchard is considered one of the finest in Marion county.
