College Closes In Whirl of Activity

The last wave of college accomplishment, has been reached for this year, the last thrill has been a memory for several hours, and the last social debut of any kind has been held and now the halls are silent and the sorority houses and fraternities are in the last mad stage of getting everybody off for home and vacations.

Sunday morning Alpha Phi Alpha entertained with a breakfast for members, alumnae and guests with covers placed for Miss Elaine Clower of Silverton, Miss Dorothy Taylor of Baker, Miss Ella Pfeiffer of Gresham, Miss Mary Canfield of Powell Butte, Miss Donna Kildheim of Willwood, Wash., Miss Dorothy Gordon, Miss Sarah Poor and Miss Bernice Newhouse of Portland and from Salem, Miss Claudine Gerth, Miss Irene Brethaupt, Mrs. Leo Kafoury, Miss Helen Kafoury, Miss Mary Kafoury, Mrs. Mildred Peterson, Miss Helen Marston, Paul Allen, Miss Gladys Miller, Miss Helen Moore and Miss Ruth Burch.

Sunday afternoon Delta Phi sorority entertained with a tea in the chapter house. Special guests were about 25 members of the sorority house. Special guests were about 25 members of the sorority alumnae.

Mrs. Vernon Sackett presided at the tea table during the receiving hour.

The alumnae held a business meeting in the afternoon hours and elected officers for the coming year. Mrs. Robert Notson of Portland was elected president; Miss Edna Wents was elected secretary and Mrs. Otto Paulus treasurer.

Monday morning the regular alumnae breakfast of the Beta Chi sorority was held in the Spa with covers placed for 35 members. At this breakfast it was announced that the share of the sorority house debt assumed by the alumnae three years ago had been met.

Ruth E. Tibbits Betrothed to Fred Tooze

The engagement of Miss Ruth E. Tibbits to Fred J. Tooze Jr. was happily announced Saturday evening, June 13, to a group of friends bidden to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Tibbits, parents of the bride.

Both Miss Tibbits and Mr. Tooze are well known here, where their respective families have lived for some years.

The first part of the evening was spent playing old fashioned games and music. Later refreshments were served at which time favors bearing the announcement of the engagement were discovered folded in the napkins.

No date for the wedding has as yet been announced.

Mrs. Burton Byers Heads Group

At a recent meeting of the wives of the doctors in the Marion-Polk-Tamhill association, Mrs. Burton Byers was elected to head the organization for the coming year.

Mrs. H. G. Hummel is vice-president and Mrs. H. T. Gentile is secretary-treasurer.

The business meeting took place at a dinner held in the Marion hotel. There will be no further meetings of the group until fall, when it is planned that an active program will be carried out.

Mrs. E. R. Farley of LaGrand was the guest of Mrs. Tom Wood during the weekend. She left Monday to be a guest in Dallas for several days.

ZENA, June 15—J. R. Shepard of Portland and his wife, Delta, Frank and Fred Nichols, are now guests at the home of Mr. Shepard's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Shepard of Zena. The Nichols children are to stay at the J. R. Shepard house the remainder of the summer. J. R. Shepard will occupy apartments in Salem.

PICNIC ENJOYED

HAZEL GREEN, June 15 — The members of St. Joseph and St. Vincent de Paul churches had a picnic at Hazel Green park Sunday. Two hundred and fifty were present, about a fourth of the number expected, the rain keeping many away. It was necessary to spend the day in the hall.

A weekend at Camp Santaly proved a delightful affair for a group of Encinitas girls. Swimming, hiking and camp fires made a delightful time despite the rain which fell liberally. Mrs. Helen Hamilton accompanied the group which included Mabel Helein, Alice Falk, Mildred Judson, Evelyn Poulsen, Helen Richardson, Dorothy Tucker, Anna Peters, Leila Park, Esther Hillmer and Miss Chamberlin.

Dr. and Mrs. Roy E. Lockenour will leave by motor for a summer to be spent partly in Boulder, Colorado, where Dr. Lockenour will take some summer school work in law, and the rest to be spent in visiting in Kansas, Nebraska, Wyoming and other places of interest along the way. They expect to return about September 1.

Mrs. H. H. Vandevort entertained for the weekend Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McMinnimee and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McMinnimee, Jr., all of Outlook, Wash., and Miss Caroline Grannis and Frank Grannis of Portland. Additional guests for Sunday dinner were Miss Estelle McMinnimee, Miss Louise Brown and Warren McMinnimee. Mrs. George Moorehead assisted in serving dinner.

A group of pupils met Saturday afternoon at the studio of Bertha Junk Darby, when an impromptu program of piano solos and duets was enjoyed, after which an hour was spent in musical games. Eleanor Wagner, Alice Barkus and Eleanor Kretz each contributed several numbers which were enjoyed by all.

Rev. A. J. Good of Portland will address the members of the First Evangelical church Wednesday in the church parlors. He will speak on the "Peninsula Avenue Mission." A silver tea will follow.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Paulus are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son born Monday morning. Mrs. Paulus was Miss Dorothy Livesley.

It is expected that Mrs. Flora Thomas, mother of Mrs. E. J. Scallars, will be able to return to her home this weekend following an operation in a Portland hospital.

Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby is in Portland to attend the Oregon-Washington Music Teachers' association convention, which will be concluded there Wednesday.

Mrs. George Vehers and daughters, Carmengon and Esther are visiting Mrs. Vehers parents in La Grand.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerald Smith of Vancouver, Wash., are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Burgess.

Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., entertained her contract bridge club at her home Monday afternoon.

RICKEY PUPILS ALL PASS STATE TESTS

RICKEY, June 15 — All those taking state tests in May and June were successful in making passing grades. Effie Flood and Earl Crabb tied for honors for the high average of those taking the eighth grade test.

Those receiving eighth grade diplomas were Effie Flood, Earl Crabb, Robert Brown, Clyde Randall, Donald Cadwalder and Oliver Holeman. Those passing the seventh grade geography test were Loyal Sheridan, Lawrence Sheridan, David Spilde, Patricia Fitzpatrick and Walter Crabb.

Owing to an epidemic of mumps, only one pupil, Patricia Fitzpatrick was perfect in attendance during the year.

Two pupils, Hazel Magee, sixth grade and Loyal Sheridan, seventh grade received high enough grades during the year to be exempt from all final tests given by the principal.

Both Mrs. Minnie Joekel and Mrs. Tressie Carlson have been re-elected to teach the coming year.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
This little girl looks adorable in her new frock with cunning yoke and turned back cuffs edged with narrow ruffling. The inverted pleats in front and back afford ample freedom and grace, yet stay neatly in place because of the part way stitching. Pattern 2143 will be practical as well as smart made of dimity, pique, lawn, pongee, percale or cotton broadcloth. The contrasting fabric adds a delightful touch and tiny pearl buttons are chic.

Obtainable only in sizes 2, 4, 6 and 8. Size 4 requires 2 yards of 36-inch fabric and 1/2 yard of 27 inch contrasting. Yardage for every size, and simple, exact instructions are given. No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model with our pattern.
