The Sunday night service will be the last held in the Ford Memorial church by the present pastor, Rev. M. A. Groves. This closes a three-year pastorate in which the church has shown progress in many ways.

During the this time 78 people have united with the church of the charge, world service giving has increased 400 per cent and several new organizations have been formed which have increased the service of the busy church to the community. Among these or-ganizations have been the Boy Scouts, with A. C. Henningsen as scoutmaster; the Girl Reserves, with Mrs. John Simmons as presi-dent; a men's brotherhod, with Waldo Baker as president. Two other special groups that have done some excellent work during the past year are a junior choir directed by Miss Trula Grant and a junior church under the leadership of Miss Cora Ma-son.
