COMMUNITY DAY AT DALLAS IS SUCCESS

Event for Farmers Proves Drawing Card; Good Program Given

DALLAS, June 20.—With ideal weather, the first annual farmers' community day program held in Dallas Saturday was a decided success. The affair was sponsored by a special merchants committee of the chamber of commerce, of which C. B. Summers is chairman. Other members of the committee are F. W. Westfall, Tracy Savory, W. C. Retzer and Ivan Warner.

All events went off according to schedule, commencing with a program of music and readings held in the city park in the morning, and a full afternoon of sports held on La Creole field. Much amusement was afforded by some of the events, particularly the suitcase race, in which the contestants, this time, were untried to finish one of the most novel forms of entertainment ever produced anywhere. Often domestic troubles have been fought out in the realms of the principles own immediate vicinity. Here's a new one. This one will be settled right out in the open where everyone can witness it.

The couple, according to Mr. Jeannot, has promised to stay away from each other between the Fourth and Fourth of July, insuring good fighting conditions for both parties. It is not known whether this specific domestic relation has been strained to that point or not, but the married couple in this case will settle domestic disputes once and for all. Various forms of entertainment have been signed to take place at this walkathon on July 4. Of the applicants to Scout Executive Virginia Wasson, chairman of the program committee, and Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher, Mildred Jenkins and Sarah Lee Morrison of Silverton will accompany the Salem delegates to Seabeck.

MISS ETHEL FRENZ AND J. FEEZER WED

In the presence of about 20 immediate friends and relatives, Miss Ethel Frenz of Portland and John H. Feezer were united in marriage at 8:30 p. m. Saturday evening at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Demarest, with the vows being read by Rev. D. J. Howe.

The bride was attractive in a dress of pale green chiffon and carried a bride's bouquet of pink sweet peas and roses.

The guest list included a number of out of town guests, Mrs. R. M. Stafford, Walla Walla, Washington, Mrs. E. E. Cuthbertson, Golden, Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. George Holland and Frank Feezer of Portland. Those from Salem were Mr. and Mrs. W. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Sellwood, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Ray and daughter Fern, Miss Jennie Hoyer, F. W. Lawrence and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Demarest.

Miss Nixon and Clarence Hunt Married Here

At a simple wedding ceremony performed Saturday afternoon, at the home of Rev. D. J. Howe, Miss Nellie Nixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Nixon of route 2, became the bride of Clarence Hunt, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hunt of route 3.

Following the brief honeymoon the young couple will make their home in Salem, where Mr. Hunt will assist his father in contracting work.

Miss Morgan Away—Miss Genevieve Morgan, reporter for The Statesman, was numbered among Salem people who went to Clatsop Saturday to see the maneuvers of the Oregon militia.

Speeder Pays—Walter Bing of Woodburn paid $2.00 on account to Police Judge Poulson yesterday. He was given 10 days to pay the balance of his fine.

Over-Parkers Pay—P. C. Meyer, Cloverdale, and F. E. Caspell, city, each paid $1.00 fine yesterday to the city police judge for overtime parking.

"Mystery of Geraldine" Statesman Serial Soon

From precinct captives to patrolmen pronouncing their bets and from plain clothesmen to swivel-chair police chiefs, a new game has been found by New York's police to while away the hours between duties. One sees them everywhere pursuing a new mystery story best-seller, "The Mystery of Geraldine," by Anthony Abbot. It is soon to appear in The Statesman.

What particularly fascinates the cops in this story of a girl's strange disappearance and the unraveling of the crime which followed, is not the background alone—containing names of many officials they know and much "inside" knowledge of the workings of a vast metropolitan force. It is the character of Thatcher Colt, the fashion-plate commissioner with the scientific mania.
