

Jensen and Wrestling Cop to Mix on Mat Here Tonight

CHET WILES TO MAKE HIS BOW

Looks Like Good Card; Art O'Reilly and Weikum In Warmup Bout

Chet Wiles, Portland's wrestling and refereeing policeman, whom Salem fans have heard much about but not seen unless they have journeyed elsewhere for the purpose, will make his bow at the armory here tonight and the customers need not fear that he will be lacking in suitable opposition, as this detail will be taken care of by Thor Jensen of Olympia, who has wrestled here a number of times.

Although he upholds law and order eight hours a day, or whatever the working schedule of Portland may be, he is reported to be not a bit averse to knock down and drag out methods in the ring so long as they are within the rules. Jensen is not often a starter in this sort of grappling but won't dodge it if it comes his way.

Wiles is expected to have some small weight advantage over Jensen but not enough to make any difference in the light heavyweight division to which both belong. Jensen is billed at 165 pounds and Wiles at 170.

The faithful will welcome the return of Art O'Reilly, who put a lot of hustle into the game here while the industry was in its infancy and has been going just as strong lately at Eugene where he is a University of Oregon student.

He meets Speed Weikum of Seattle, with whom the fans have a slight acquaintance, in a 40-minute bout starting at 8:30.

KETCHELL WINNER OVER YOUNG FIRPO

PORTLAND, Ore., June 22.—(AP)—Wesley Ketchell, Portland light heavyweight, won a 10-round decision over Young Firpo, Burke, Idaho, in the main event of a fight card here tonight.

It was a fierce battle from the opening gong. Ketchell dropped his opponent twice in the first round. Firpo did not take a count the first time, but he took a nine-count the second time.

In the second round Firpo took a left hand smash to Ketchell's jaw that carried the Portland fighter through the ropes. Ketchell all was down for a count of eight. Ketchell won four rounds, Firpo three, with three even.

Ketchell weighed 165 1/2 pounds, Firpo 171.

In a six-round semi-final Eddie Volk, 137, scored a decision over Benny Zeis, 135. Both are of Portland.

POSTOFFICE BEATS IRON WORKS TEAM

The Postoffice ball tossers walked on the Salem Iron Works, 10 to 0, in an industrial league baseball game Monday night on Sweetland field, scoring five runs in the second inning after two were out, and a like number in the fourth.

Thompson, big catcher for the letter carriers, tripled with the bases loaded to start the scoring.

Tonight the Elks and the American Legion Juniors will play a Commercial league game.

CURT COMMENTS

Baseball teams always used to have a few substitutes on the bench but the Senators Sunday had none and Gresham only one. It could be the depression, which gets the blame for everything, but we incline rather to the opinion it's just the opposite—there are so many ball teams that players refuse to be superfluous and go hunt a regular berth on some other team in preference to a warm spot on the bench.

There was depression at Olinger field Sunday, caused by the rash. There were a few fans in cars along the first base line but only a double handful in the grandstand and of course none in the bleachers.

Nearly as we recall that was only the second defeat Andy Peterson has suffered this season. Oregon State beat him once but he made up for that later.

We thought that "K. Scates" sounded familiar. He's the boy who pitched for U. of O. this spring. He along with Andy Peterson and Al Brown are just about the answer to that old tradition that pitchers can't hit.

Our own Billy Sullivan is busting into the big time box scores now. He's with the Chicago White Sox which were made famous by his father, and Sunday went in as a pinch hitter for Eber, pitcher. But Billy didn't hit and Chicago lost to the Athletics 6 to 5. Billy faced the famous Mr. Barnshaw.

Wilhelm in Lead in Amateur Meet

TACOMA, June 22.—(AP)—Battling the worst hazards of golf—a driving downpour of rain and a wild, blustering wind—Rudie Wilhelm, Portland, 1917 and 1927 champion, mused his way over the Firecrest golf course here today.

Wilhelm carded 74 in the morning 18 hole trip and 78 in the afternoon for a total of 150, eight over par, to beat out Johnny Robbins, young Portland ace by one stroke. Robbins took 78-73 for 151.

Eddie Hogan, Portland, defending champion, followed in a tie with Harold Brynjoifson, Victoria, and British Columbia amateur titlist, with 152.

Seattle qualified the most number of golfers with eight. Portland gained 7. Tacoma 6, Victoria and Vancouver 3 each and Los Angeles, Oakland, Eugene, Aberdeen, Berkeley, Yakima and Olympia 1 each.

Jones Tourney in Semi-Final Round

Fred Ritner will play Walter Cline in one semi-final match of the Bobby Jones tournament at the Salem Golf club this week and Dun Hendrie will meet Bill Hornung in the other. Finals will be next week.

In the quarter-final round Cline won from Bonesteel, Ritner defeated Curtis Cross, Hendrie eliminated Kelly and Hornung won over Frank Lynch.

Trophies for this tournament have been arranged by local officials of Warner Bros. theatres in connection with the Bobby Jones instruction pictures now appearing at the Elsinore. Jones is demonstrating the use of the mashie this week.

Big Boys Are Tapering Off For Title Go

CONNEAUT LAKE PARK, Pa., June 22.—(AP)—Max Schmeling, world's heavyweight champion, lean, brown and in perfect condition, spent today away from the boxing gloves and on the golf links while resting up preparatory to starting his final training drive tomorrow for his fight with Sugar Stribling at Cleveland a week from Friday night.

The champion played 36 holes of golf, 18 in the morning and 18 in the late afternoon, with Trainer Max Machon. His scores were good and he was in a merry mood, if he has any worries about the outcome of the contest it was not evident.

Schmeling is scheduled to box tomorrow with his sparring partners and again on Wednesday. He will take to the golf course on Thursday and spar again Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Just what he will do in the way of boxing after Sunday Manager Joe Jacobs has not announced.

GEUGA LAKE, O., June 22.—(AP)—Resting from his labors, needing only enough ring work to put the final edge to almost perfect condition, Bill Stribling golfed today, betook himself to the horse park at Brainbridge and finished the day $2 richer through acquaintance with a fairly good galloper in the four race.

Although the pride of Georgia still has a lengthy wait before the opening gong gives him a chance to win the world's heavyweight championship from Max Schmeling in the new Cleveland municipal stadium the night of July 3, Stribling's battle over the course today and Sunday were encouraging.

His weight is down to 188 pounds and his chief worry is fear of going stale.

Stribling has only three more boxing drills scheduled before moving into Cleveland for the big fight. He boxes Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday nights, this week and then hang up the training mittens. In his workout last night Stribling scored his first knockout of the camp campaign, finishing Frank Kitts, an Akron heavyweight, with a single left hook to the stomach.

ILLAHEE DEFEATS SILVERTON TEAM

Illahee Country club overcame the jinx which Silverton's golf club has held over Illahee on the Silverton course in the past, Sunday when the Salem players won a 20-man match 42 1/2 to 17 1/2.

Rain did not handicap the players appreciably, as the matches were mostly completed before the rain started, but a stiff wind held the scores up.

Illahee players participating were R. K. Miller, Frank Schafer, Foster Cone, Ivan Kafoury, Robin Day, B. Thompson, J. Varley, W. Stacey, Brazier Small, Bob Bishop, Jack Nash, Ernie Skelley, Fred Williams, Ralph Jackson, O. P. Franklin, O. L. Fisher, Carl Gabrielson, Max Flannery, Don Roberts and Gordon Wilson.

Gasoline Tax in California Sets Record, in Word

SACRAMENTO, June 22.—(AP)—The state board of equalization reported today California's gasoline tax broke all records for monthly revenue last May with $4,092,791.38 assessed against distributors.

The tax was based on sale of 136,339,242.1 gallons of gasoline. Increasing sales were attributed to the gasoline war and beginning of summer travel.

DUCKS' HITTING FORM REGAINED

Come From Behind in Great Sixth Inning and tie Series With Sacs

PORTLAND, Ore., June 22.—(AP)—Portland came from behind in one big inning to take the lead and finally victory over Sacramento, 9 to 3, in a Coast league baseball game postponed from Sunday, and played here tonight.

The Senators took a 2-to-1 lead in the first inning and held it until the sixth when Portland scored five runs as the result of five successive singles and a double. Portland scored three more in the eighth.

The Senators and the Beavers split the series, winning each three games. The second game, one of a double-header scheduled for Sunday, was rained out.

YANKS LOOK POOR IN RYDER TROUT

SCIOTO CLUB, Columbus, Ohio, June 22.—(AP)—Captain Charles Whitcombe and his British Ryder cup mates grew discouraged again today as they watched a dozen American professionals struggle over the traps and narrow fairways of Scioto in their fight for the four remaining places on Captain Walter Hagen's team.

After the first 36 holes of their 72-hole battle over the course, the Americans were so soundly thrashed by par that a three over par total of 154 strokes turned in by Wiffy Cox of Brooklyn, was good enough to lead the qualifying procession. It was a miserable showing and the scores ranged as high as 158, the count turned in by Charles Hildgord of Detroit.

Johnny Golden of New York, heretofore a hard customer for the Britons to take in Ryder cup play, failed to show for the qualifying round. His friends said he wasn't exactly pleased that he was asked to qualify for the team for the first time.

Hole Halved in One First Time Ever is Belief

LONDON, June 22.—(AP)—In the deluge of debt discussions, politics and what not, the following golf story found its way through via Reuters, from Brokenhill, Australia.

It seems there were two Australians playing over the Brokenhill course.

At the short seventeenth, the first golfer held his tee shot. He was jubilant.

"Here's one for a half," said golfer No. 2 as he teed up and swung, his ball landed on the green and trickled in.

In the memory of the oldest, it was golf's first hole halved in one.

MOTHER CALLED
LYONE, June 22.—Mrs. Pearl Colby of Prairie City, Washington, was calling on friends here and at Mill City Sunday. She drove from Portland for the day, having been caring for her daughter, Francis, the past two weeks. Francis had a complication of intestinal influenza and pleurisy which necessitated careful nursing and her mother was called to care for her.

Gresham Brings Horseshoes In Every Pocket and Defeats Senators Here Sunday, 2 to 1

Any reference to the Gresham baseball team as a "hard luck" outfit will be decidedly out of place after Sunday's battle here in which the Salem Senators and the boys from the wilds of Multnomah county braved the elements and Gresham won, 2 to 1.

None of the Senators could be heard framing alibis after the game, but here's what happened. It was raining when Andy Peterson started to pitch in the first inning, but when Gardner trotted out for his half, all was serene. Andy snatched to the box in the second and raindrops met him halfway out and kept falling while he pitched, stopping again when he got the side out; and believe it or not, the same thing happened for about five innings.

Item No. 2—Salem got three hits on a double in the second inning but couldn't score. Four men came up that inning and each one drove a liner into left field. In almost the same spot. The first was Adolph's double, and the next was Messenger's single but Adolph waited too long at second to see if it was caught, then he was thrown out at third when he finally tried to make it. L. G. Girod singled but when Kitchen drove one to the same spot, the left fielder nabbed it just off the ground; Messenger had rounded third and it was hopeless to try to get back; he was nipped for a double play.

Ran is Scored on Four Bad Pitches
Item No. 3—Trying to throw with a wet ball in the fourth, Peterson hit Sears with one bad pitch, let him get to second with the next, to third with the next which Messenger caught but had to throw from his knees, and on home with the next which went to the grandstand.

Item No. 4—Ray Gardner, who was almost sufficient but luck to the Senators all by himself.

Item No. 5—Whenever they did hit the ball in a pinch, it formed a habit of landing in some unconscious fielder's glove.

Item No. 6—Ken Scates, erstwhile U. of O. pitcher, who bootwaded one to the fence for a home run in the eighth.

As against all that, Peterson had a bit of luck or something to score Salem's lone run in the eighth. Messenger pitched to steal second while the pitcher was still holding the ball. Gardner threw wild and the ball bounded away from the center fielder while Andy kept on running to the plate. Gardner became huffy and fanned the next three.

The game here was the only one played in the Portland-Valley league and one of extremely few ball games played Sunday anywhere in the Willamette valley.

SHIELDS STARS AT WIMBLEDON

Cochet Loses to Unknown, Another Gives Borotra Terrific Battle

By FRANK H. KING
LONDON, June 22.—(AP)—Great Britain's lawn tennis classic, the Wimbledon championships, began today with young Frank Shields of New York looking as a likely follower in the path of Big Bill Tilden and other famous American players.

In a day of play which saw Henri Cochet lose to Nigel Godwin, a little known Englishman, and Jean Borotra winning from another little known Britisher, A. J. Smith, only after a bitter four set struggle, Shields stood out with his whirlwind play over Dr. F. D. B. Spence, a veteran South African campaigner.

Less than an hour after hitting his first shot on the famous center court Shields disposed of Spence 6-1, 6-1, 6-2, and established himself firmly as a recognized star of Wimbledon.

The New York youngster headed a parade of the American Davis cup team through the first round, Sidney B. Wood, Jr., John Van Ryn and George Lott, Jr., following their number one star into the second day of play.

Cochet Listless and Inaccurate
Cochet, listless and inaccurate, and still suffering from his recent illness, left before the unimpaired but steady backhand of Sharpe, whose errors were few as the hairs on his head, and he wasn't many. Sharpe won 6-1, 6-3, 6-2.

Only a little less surprising than Cochet's defeat was that suffered by Gregory Mangin, Newark, N. J., who fell before the smashing game of George Lytton Fox, the giant Irishman, 6-5, 6-6, 6-3, 6-3.

The only other American casualty was Watson Washburn, former assistant attorney general of New York state and an internationalist of several years ago, who was defeated by the Austrian, F. W. Matejka, 6-3, 6-2, 6-4.

Wood, Van Ryn and Lott win Easily
Wood and Van Ryn won the former defeating the Indian R. Singh, 6-4, 6-3, 6-4 and Van Ryn winning from P. Schaeffer of Czechoslovakia, 6-0, 6-2, 6-1. Lott defeated B. Berthel, 3-6, 6-3, 6-0, 6-2.

Primo Carnera failed to make his scheduled exhibition appearance against three towering Boston heavyweights and the Argentine A. A. management announced it would ask the boxing commission to put the Italian under suspension.

NEWARK, N. J., June 22.—(AP)—Jack (Kid) Berg, British lightweight contender, stopped Tony Lambert of Newark in the eighth round of a ten round bout here tonight. Lambert absorbed a steady beating and the referee stopped in to halt the bout when the Newark lad no longer could defend himself. Berg weighed 139, Lambert 140.

Rookie Revelations

By HARDIN BURNLEY

JOHNNY VERGEZ OF THE GIANTS WHO IS MAKING GOOD IN THE MAJORS ALONG WITH TWO OTHER FORMER LOS ANGELES BOYS, LOMBARDI AND ARLETT!

"BUZZ" ARLETT OF THE PHILLIES "PIPPIN"!

PAUL DERRINGER TWIRLER OF THE CARDINALS

SURELY there must have been worlds of class to the Oakland team of the Pacific Coast League last season for three of its notable stars are blazing in National League heavens this year. That trio of former "Oaks" are "Buzz" Arlett, big gun of the Phillies; Ernest Lombardi, clotting catcher of the Robins; and Johnny Vergez, Giant gem at third base. Perhaps, the "Oaks" don't miss that stellar trinity this season!

The wonder about Arlett, who's 22, is how a major league team did not acquire him for so many years. He's been watched but the scout reports until 1930 were that he was a bit too slow for the big show. But "Buzz" hasn't been slow in the Borotra won from Smith only with difficulty, being carried to 8-6 in the first and third sets but coming back after the intermission to run out the matchers. Smith won the second set 6-4.

Christian Bousous of France, Fred Perry and Bunny Austin of Great Britain, and Jiro Satoh of Japan, advanced with Borotra, Shields and Wood.

REESE AND AHEARN TOP COLLEGE MEN

CHICAGO, June 22.—(AP)—Jack Reese, a slender son of old Yale, and Randall Ahearn, a husky lad from Detroit City college, paced the best college golfers in the country through the first qualifying round of their 35th annual tournament today, each scoring 37-36—73, three strokes over par.

The field of 119 starters followed their dazzling example so well that the finalists of last year were in danger of not qualifying at the close of tomorrow's second round. George T. Dunlap, Jr., Princeton, the defending champion, took 40-38—78, while Lawrence Moller of Notre Dame, runner up last year, had 38-42—80.

Better golf probably will be required to reach match play Wednesday, for tonight there were 44 scores under 80.

Reese and Ahearn were followed by Robert A. Moffet of Princeton, a New York City youth, whose '24 was matched by Phillips Finlay, a lanky Californian representing Harvard, and James Reaton, of Dayton, Ohio, public links champion of his state and captain-elect of the University of Illinois team.

RING GOSSIP
NEW YORK, June 22.—(AP)—Mike Payan, Indian welterweight from Arizona, easily outpointed Jackie Purvis of Indianapolis in the feature six round bout of Madison Square's "New talent" show tonight. Payan weighed 145 pounds; Purvis 146 1/2.

BOSTON, June 22.—(AP)—Baby Jack Renault, Cambridge junior welter, outpointed Darcy White, New Bedford negro in a fast ten round boxing contest here tonight at Braves Field. Renault weighed 141 and White 138.
