GREASED PIG WILL BE FOURTH STUNT

All the favorites of an old-time July 4 celebration are being arranged for by the American Legion and that means that the greased pig stunt and the greased pole contest will be featured. chairman of the committee for William Watkins has named sports for boys and girls and these two stunts will be featured by Watkins and his helpers.

The pig has already been arranged for and instructions have been given that he shall not be too fat in order to make the contestants step lively to capture the elusive porker. Men who have seen greased pig contests say the pig is seldom caught until he is pretty well tired out.

Atop the greased pole 15 feet above the ground the prize for the winner in this event will be placed and it will be up to the lad who wins to "come and get it."

Sack races for the boys, barrel boxing as well as regular foot races are other numbers on the program Watkins is arranging for.

CHILD DIES AFTER LENGTHY EXPOSURE

NEWHALL, Cal., June 23.—Mrs. Theodore Tournour, 29, Birmingham, Ala., watched her 19-year-old daughter die in her arms of injuries and exposure today, a few hours before a passing motorist discovered them in an isolated ravine into which her automobile plunged Sunday.

For two days Mrs. Tournour and her daughter laid at the bottom of the 200-foot ravine, while her husband, Theodore Tournour, awaited her return to Fresno, Cal. After waiting the two days Tournour reported his wife as missing to Newhall authorities.

Removed to a Newhall hospital, Mrs. Tournour, who suffered a broken leg and other injuries, told Captain Job Stewart, Newhall policeman, that she was driving ahead of another automobile containing her husband. She said another machine forced them over the embankment. The car rolled over several times and threw her daughter and herself into the ravine. Unable to attract the attention of dozens of automobiles that passed within a few yards of her, Mrs. Tournour said she was forced to see her daughter die in her arms this morning. A motorist attracted to the scene of the wreck heard Mrs. Tournour's hysterical cries.

Newhall authorities said the ravine was so isolated from the highway, Mrs. Tournour and her daughter might have lain there several days had not a motorist halted to view the wreck.

GANGSTER DEPOSIT IN BANK $800,000

NEW YORK, June 23.—(AP)—A glimpse of the wealth amassed by New York racketeers and gangsters was gained by government officials who today uncovered a dummy bank deposit of $800,000 believed to belong to Albert Flegenheims, known as Dutch Schultz, Bronx beer baron. Schultz had $18,000 in cash on his person when he was arrested a few days ago in his luxurious Fifth avenue apartment. On the theory he had much more somewhere else federal agents examined scores of huge bank deposits of obscure persons. The diligence was rewarded when Hugh McQuillan, chief of the intelligence division of the department of internal revenue, came upon the cached fortune.

Records of the deposit showed that $350,000 had been deposited in the account in the last six months of 1930. The investigator refused to name the depositor and sought elsewhere for similar accounts. Schultz is said to owe $72,537.72 federal income taxes. He is held in $75,000 bail on three fold state charges.

Four sophomores are starring on the Texas Aggie baseball team which set a fast pace in the Southwest conference race.
