

Portland's "Big Shots" Hit Skids in Northwest Amateur

SHIELDS BEATS RUDIE WILHELM

Rout is Complete; Robbins Out Also and Willing Has Tough Match

TACOMA, June 24 (AP)—Portland's "big shots" were cut to ribbons in the second round of the Pacific Northwest amateur golf tournament here today when Rudie Wilhelm, medalist, and Johnny Robbins, runner-up last year, taking the count, and Dr. O. P. Willing, twice champion in the past, barely noised out a 1 up victory over Bob Morris, Victoria, after one of the toughest battles in his golfing career.

Wilhelm, lost by the biggest score of the day when Johnny Shields, Seattle, Washington, state amateur titleist, defeated the 1917 and 1927 champion, 7 and 6, in their 36 hole match.

Another upset was turned in when Bill Yost, Tacoma, conquered Robbins, 4 and 1, after the Portland ace had gained a two-hole lead in the morning.

Willing was four down to Morrison at the 13th this morning but managed to gain two back before they stopped for lunch, and then squeezed out victory in the afternoon.

Frank Dolp Among Quarter Finalists

Others advancing to the quarter-finals were Alec Duncan, Seattle; Jimmie Busby, Klamath Falls; Fredrick Freddie Wood, Vancouver, and Harold Brynjolfson, Victoria.

Duncan defeated Eddie Adams, Seattle, 6 and 5; Busby took the measure of George Shaw, Los Angeles, 3 and 2 after the California had gained a four-hole advantage this morning; Wool eliminated Ed Greenaw, Seattle, 6 and 4; Dolp conquered Ray Roberts, Tacoma, 6 and 5, and Brynjolfson beat Tommy Telfer, Berkeley, 2 and 1.

The women contestants also advanced to the quarter-finals with Mrs. Vera Hutchings, Vancouver, B. C., defending champion, capturing the most sensational victory in her match with Mrs. Willie Hunter, Los Angeles. Both women scored phenomenal 79's to finish all square at the end of their 18-hole contest, and Mrs. Hutchings won out at the 20th hole.

Mrs. B. E. Eva, Portland, surprised her friends when she won easily 5 and 4 from Mrs. E. K. Redd, Portland, Oregon, state champion. Mrs. Eva was figured to have a good chance for victory but she was not expected to get it by such a big score.

POSTOFFICE WINS WITH BIG INNING

The Postoffice ball team went wild in the third inning of Wednesday night's game with Kay Woolen Mills outfit and scored 11 runs, all it acquired in the game, but more than sufficient to win as the final score was 11 to 4.

This puts Postoffice in the league leadership with half a game margin over Kay's. Tonight's Commercial league game is expected to be a thriller as those old rivals, Hill's and Tucker's, will face each other again.

In Wednesday night's game Nutter started at bat with three hits out of as many trips to the plate and Thompson repeated his recent feat of polling the longest hit of the game, a three bagger. Rider pitched for Postoffice and Lehman for the wool twisters.

The game was tied up in the fifth inning and not until the 18th was the tie broken. Then each scored one. The game finally was called on account of darkness.

Among the Mound Marvels

By HARDIN BURNLEY

FAT FRED FITZSIMMONS... HARD WORKING KNUCKLE... BALL MAINSTAY OF THE GIANTS!

© 1931 King Features Syndicate, Inc. Great Britain rights reserved.

ED "DUTCH" BRANDT THE BRAVES' BRILLIANT SOUTHPAW WHO PROVED THE EARLY SEASON HURLING SENSATION OF THE MAJORS!

GREAT as is the pitching prowess of the Athletics' "Lefty" Grove, Cleveland's Wes Ferrell, the Cards' Burleigh Grimes and two or three other brilliant, no mound ace performed so remarkably right into June as has Edward A. ("Dutch") Brandt of the Boston Braves, who won his first eight starts this season, beating every National League team except St. Louis.

Brandt is a veteran southpaw. Although other players and several experts always knew he had the proverbial "wood of stuff," his record never supported that idea. Last season he won four and lost eleven games. He must have been hammered hard at times and figured in much relief work, for he played in 41 games. The earned run average against him was 5.02; in 1929 it was 5.52. Ever since he entered the majors, his record was about that. "Just another Boston pitcher," as the hard-boiled fans would put it.

And then came 1931 with Brandt so brilliant that in a month he became a rave around the entire circuit! "Dutch" has not yet reached his prime. He's 26, a little over six feet tall, and weighs 185 pounds. Maybe the Yankees (or any other team, for that matter) wouldn't like to have Brandt! Why he's about the best rifeman the Hub has had since one Babe Ruth and Howard Embke toed the rubber in the dimming past.

Fred Fitzsimmons, of the N. Y. Giants, is another who seems to be approaching his pitching peak this year. He got off to a truly dazzling start. Fitz is called "Fat" because of his portliness, but certainly he favors the lean in dealing with opponents' batting averages.

Fitz, verging on 30, joined the Giants in midsummer 1925, having been sold by Indianapolis for $18,000. He's been one of the ablest right-handers ever since and is a good hitter besides. Shut-outs are his forte when in the best of form. And Fitz is in that thus far this season. Hurrah for "Fat"!

Jacobs Says Maxie Isn't Trying Hard

Spaulding Will Attend Lumber Meet in Eugene

CONNEAUT LAKE PARK, June 24.—(AP)—Mr. Yussel Jacobs, manager of Max Schmeling, stood on the edge of the boxing ring today and saw the world's heavyweight champion get another high grade leathering from Nalle Brown, San Francisco heavyweight, the second in two days.

Brown, an experienced, tireless warrior, faced Schmeling for two rounds and swarmed all over the titleholder just like he was an ordinary preliminary fighter. He cracked the champion with left hooks to the chin, hooks to the body and right crosses to the head, while Schmeling, with a sober, worried look on his face, stood there and took it. Schmeling, however, succeeded in cracking the fast charging Brown on the chin with a pair of straight rights that slowed him for a second.

Jacobs did not seem to be worried over the slamming the champion took. He explained that Schmeling was not showing all his stuff in workouts and that he was

Boise Polo Team Beats Portland

VANCOUVER, Wash., June 21 (AP)—Boise defeated Forest Hills, Portland, 14 to 9, in the opening game of the annual Northwest polo circuit tournament here today.

The Gem stagers didn't need the one-goal handicap Forest Hills gave them and outdrove the Portlanders on almost every play. Bob Milan, riding position No. 2 for Boise, scored eight goals. Boise will play Forest Hills at Lake Oswego, Oregon, Friday.

CURT COMMENTS

Meier and Holman decided Boushard didn't boss hard enough at the state printing office so they raised Hobbs in the department.

Tom Turner has seized check-book in hand and bought a pitcher to bolster up the combination which has been getting a little behind lately; a young man named Graf who has been with Jersey City in the international league. Curt Fullerton goes as part of the purchase price.

It seems that this boy really is a pitcher. He was with Oshkosh City in the Western league last year, so Spencer Abbott knows about him. And we find Mr. Graf listed right ahead of Johnny Beck in earned runs per game, 3.91 to 3.92, but he won 12 games and lost six, whereas Beck whoney broke even with four each.

But what is more significant he ranks ahead of Bowman who won six and lost four, allowing 4.34 runs per game, and away ahead of Posedel who won three and lost seven. But Bowman was with the second place Omaha club, Graf's outfit came third and Posedel's led the second division. Beck was at Omaha along with Bowman, and why he isn't somewhere now is known only to Spencer Abbott and Johnny himself.

Paving to Begin Soon, Silverton To Stayton Road

The first job to be handled by the Silverton paving plant this season will be completion of the unpaved link on the Stayton-Silverton road. Paving is scheduled to start July 8, and will probably start from the Silverton end.

This will make first direct paved contact between the two towns, although by a circuitous route it has been possible to travel on pavement from one town to the other for some time.
