Miss L. Jones Wed To P. Partridge Sunday

At a pretty home wedding, solemnized Sunday, June 21, at 2:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Jones, Miss Lenore Jones became the bride of Phillip Partridge of Monmouth. Rev. Herbert Deck of Hillsboro, uncle of the bride, read the single ring service wedding in the presence of about 50 relatives and intimate friends.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming afternoon frock of dark blue chiffon combined with tulle and with hat to match, and carried a bride's bouquet of Madonna lilies.

Miss Beulah Aspinwall, the bride's only attendant was attractive in a modish afternoon frock of dark green crepe. Rex Jones attended the groom as best man.

Proceeding the ceremony, Mrs. Dr. E. H. Barrendrick sang, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. W. H. Hubbs of Silverton.

The living rooms of the Jones home were artistically decorated in fern, lilies and pink roses.

Following the wedding service an informal reception was held after which the young people left immediately for a two weeks wedding trip in the north. They will be "at home" to their friends in Monmouth where Mr. Partridge is employed. Mrs. Partridge was graduated from the Oregon Normal school and has for the past year been teaching school at Pringle. Mr. Partridge attended Oregon State college of which he was graduated.

A number of out-of-town guests clubs attended the ceremony, they were Dr. Arthur Barrendrick of Portland, Dr. E. H. Barrendrick of McMinnville, C. W. Lilly of Portland, and Mrs. W. C. Hubbs of Silverton.

Gregg-Graber Nuptials Event of Sunday

At a pretty wedding, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Miss Lorraine Gregg daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Gregg, will become the bride of Kenneth Graber of this city.

The wedding vows will be read by Rev. W. Earl Cochran in the presence of immediate families and intimate friends of the bride and groom.

Miss Doris Nolan, of Huntington Park, California, will attend the bride as maid of honor. Melbora Gregg will serve as best man.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
Here's a model you'll love because it is the most flattering thing imaginable. A smart, pleated skirt and a separate cross-over jacket. The revers and the poplin are two of fashion's most popular features, and justly so, since they are becoming to every type of figure. Design 2155 suggests many delightful color schemes: Brown jacket with beige and brown print; black or blue jacket with blue, black and white print; or a light jacket with darker skirt and revers. Silk crepe, shantung, cotton mesh or georgette may be used effectively.

Obtainable only in sizes 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32 and 34. Size 16 requires 1 1/2 yards plain, and 2 1/2 yards printed fabric, 39 inches wide. Yardage for each pattern, and a piece exact instructions are given. No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model with our pattern.

No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model with our pattern. Yardage for every size, and simple, exact instructions are given. Send fifteen cents for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.

The new spring and summer pattern catalog features an excellent assortment of afternoon, sport and house dresses, lingerie, pajamas and children's clothes, also delightful accessory patterns. Bridal Shower Compliments Popular Maid

In addition to the regular meeting of the W. W. G. club, Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Lois Cochran, a special feature of the evening was the presentation of a popular maid, honoring Miss Lorraine Gregg, whose wedding will be solemnized Sunday afternoon. Little Jeanette Weider presented the bride-to-be with a lovely bouquet of bride's roses, which was followed by the distribution of the gifts from a cleverly decorated floral wagon, wheeled into the living room to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March."

Those sharing in the evening's pleasure were, the Misses Loreta Wolfe, Carol Stoddard, Edith Mae Jenks, Zelma Alexander, Lavina Burley, Zella Harland, Lola Dale Pickens, Florence Foster, Doris Schunke, Marjorie Pickens, Dorothy Pickett, Helen Alexander, Lolain Barnette, Gladys Hansen, Clara Jane Harris, Dorothy Ross, Edith Starrett, Jean McElhinny, Mrs. Earl Gregg, Eva Cochran and Lois Cochran.

Miss Eva Cochran and Miss Dorothy Pickett assisted the hostess in the serving of refreshments.

Mrs. Karl Heinlein Charming Hostess

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the bridge tea given Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Karl Heinlein on Miller street.

Pink gladiolus and blue delphinium were combined effectively and used to accentuate the pastel color scheme which was carried out in table appointments and card accessories. Those enjoying the afternoon at Mrs. Heinlein's guests were, Mrs. Jack Johnston, Mrs. William J. Braun, Mrs. William Stacey, Mrs. Carl Charlton, Mrs. Russell Bonesteel, Mrs. Ralph Campbell, Mrs. Roy Stewart, Mrs. Edwin Armstrong and Mrs. William Gosser. High score for the afternoon was awarded Mrs. Roy Stewart.

B.P.W.C Hold Last Meeting of Season

The Salem B. P. W. C. held the last meeting of the year under the leadership of the former officers, Tuesday night, at the Silver Grille. The main part of the meeting was held with Mrs. Mona Yoder presiding, after which it was turned over to Miss Merle Dimick, recently elected president for the ensuing year. Miss Dimick announced that she would have had appointments of various committee heads, ready in a few days.

The program consisted of a reading by Mrs. Tyson and songs by the club chorus, under the leadership of Mrs. F. L. Waters. Soon after the first of July the national convention is being held in Richmond, Va. and the club voted to prepare Oregon prunes stuffed with Oregon walnuts and send there for one of the banquets, both as representing the goodwill of the club and boosting for Oregon products. The club also voted to purchase a croquet set for the children's playgrounds. In appreciation of Mrs. Yoder's efforts in behalf of the club during the year and her successful work in carrying through the state convention, the club presented her with an emblem pin. It was voted to endorse and help in any way possible the Greater Oregon association. The chairman of the Oregon committee was appointed to be their representative at the meetings of the association. In a report of the Educational Committee, consisting of Grace Elizabeth Smith, Josephine Shade, Alta Kershner and Leah V. Neal the chairman, a list of the various vocations represented in the club was given and makes very interesting reading: 1 accountant, 1 anesthetist, 1 art shop owner, 1 attorney, 1 assistant attorney-general, 1 buyer, 10 bookkeepers, 2 cashiers, 1 cosmetologist, 6 clerks, 1 chickerles owner, 1 dean of women, 1 designer, 2 dressmakers, 1 dept. head, 1 dry cleaner, 1 editor, 1 embalmer, 2 florists, 1 furrier, 1 generalist, 1 hotel matron, 1 insurance agent, 2 librarians, 1 mortician, 7 merchants, 1 matron school for blind, 1 manager, 8 nurses, 1 public matron, 2 physicians, 1 realtor, 1 secretary, 1 secretary-treasurer, 1 superintendent of Old People's Home, 1 reporter, 2 ranchers, 5 supervisors, 7 secretaries, 13 stenographers, 1 secretary to governor.

Guests of Mrs. Kennon were Mrs. Edwin Eby, Mrs. Tyler Brown, Mrs. Harold Dunsmoor, Mrs. Earl Urrub, Mrs. Robert Elstrom, Mrs. Kenneth Bacon, Mrs. Charles Wilson, Mrs. Louis Lorenz, Mrs. Daw Lovell, Mrs. D. W. Medley, Mrs. Ray Knowles, Mrs. Carl Allport.

Mrs. Gilbert Kennon Honors Bridge Club

Mrs. Gilbert Kennon was hostess Thursday afternoon to members of her club and several additional guests with a bridge tea at the D. W. Medley home. This affair was the last meeting of the season.

Pythian Sisters Enjoy Last Social Affair

Pythian Sisters held an enjoyable meeting Tuesday evening in their club rooms in Fraternal temple. The group was entertained with an interesting program of music and readings, after which refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

Tuesday's meeting was the last social gathering of the order and the next and final meeting will be the last business meeting during the summer vacation. Mrs. Norma Terwilliger, most excellent chief, reports an unusually successful year for the organization and plans are now being formulated for a more complete and extensive program for the coming year.

West Stayton—A party was an enjoyable event at the home of Miss Dorothy Asche, Wednesday evening, given in honor of Everett Hearing.

The evening was spent by playing games and visiting. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

Those present were Elma and Inez Tyler, Martha Irish, June Rishel, Orpha Shellenberger, Lois Lacy, Lottie Tyler, Deryl and Robert Royce, Everett Hearing and hostess Dorothy Asche.

Chi Delta Delphians Hold Meeting

Members of Chi Delta Delphians, were entertained Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. D. Millard. This will be the last meeting of the group until September 8th, at which Mrs. Willard will again be hostess for the chapter.

A pot-luck luncheon was served at noon, which was followed by the regular lesson hour. Two humorous Italian artists, "Ghirlandajo" and "Bottecelli" were the topics upon which Mrs. Carl Nelson and Mrs. J. T. Delaney reported. Brief extemporaneous talks by each member afforded an interesting resume of the chapter work.

The meeting was in charge of Mrs. George Lewis, director and Mrs. R. D. Barton, president.

Turner—Mrs. Artilla Steele celebrated her 92nd birthday Monday, June 23, with many of her Turner lady friends calling informally after the afternoon and presenting a number of floral pieces, also serving light refreshments. On the previous day, Sunday, Mrs. Steele's relatives and close friends from out of town, attending the birthday party at her home as is their custom, on the Sunday nearest her birthday. The usual bounteous birthday dinner was served, and all wished for their relative and friend many more happy birthdays.

Mrs. Steele is a remarkable person for one of her years; she lives by herself, from preference, her nearest relatives are nephews and nieces. Though slight in body she keeps her yard beautiful with flowers and grows a good garden which is the envy of her much younger neighbors. She even picks her own cherries. She enjoys good health for one of her age, and but seldom can she be persuaded to leave her home for some distance away. Relatives included in her guest list Sunday were Orin Wartman and children, Jacob and Ellen and Orman Estes, a nephew of McMinnville; Mr. and Mrs. Oris Welch and three small children, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Welch, all of Clackamas; Mrs. Oris Welch is a niece. One nephew, Lincoln West lives at Phoenix, Arizona; he with Mrs. West visited their aunt last summer.

Members of the yearbook committee of the Salem Woman's club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. M. Endicott, to discuss the final plans for the new year book. The committee reports the plans for the new book are well under way and will be fully completed very soon. Those attending the meeting were, Mrs. J. M. Devera, Mrs. Walter Peniston, Mrs. W. S. Fargo, Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. Ivan Martin and the hostess, Mrs. S. M. Endicott. Mrs. W. E. Feldman is general chairman of the yearbook committee and has taken an active part in the organization of the program department.

Mrs. Claude Rauch and daughter Marjorie of Portland, are guests at the home of Mrs. Mary L. Rauch.

Mrs. E. F. Slade Hostess For Smart Tea

Probably the most outstanding social event of the summer season is the smart bridge tea being given Thursday afternoon, by Mrs. E. F. Slade at the Marion hotel, in compliment to Mrs. John E. Roberts and daughter, Miss Mildred, recently returned from Dresden, Germany. A number of socially prominent maids and matrons will be guests of Mrs. Slade during the afternoon.

The invitation list will also include a number of well known Portland matrons and of other Willamette valley towns.

Guests at Myers Home Leave for California

Mrs. Homer J. Davis and daughter Armysta Sue, who have been house guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Burton Myers, for the past ten days, will leave today for their home at Orange, California. Mrs. Davis and young daughter have been the inspiration for several interesting informal affairs since their arrival in Salem.

Tuesday evening, Dr. and Mrs. Myers, complimented their guests with a picnic at the Myers mountain cabin on the Santiam river. About 14 guests were included in the party.

Mrs. Henry Nolan and daughter Doris arrived Tuesday evening from their home in Huntington Park, California, to attend the wedding of Miss Lorraine Gregg and Kenneth Graber, whose marriage will be an event of Sunday afternoon, at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Gregg.

Mrs. Peggie Riley of Tacoma will be a house guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wheaton on South Church street, for a few days. Mrs. Riley is spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. E. La Fontaine of Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Ohling and daughters Sara Ann and Alice Louise, arrived home Tuesday evening from Seal Rocks, where they have been vacationing for the past week.

Mrs. Schwedel and Mrs. Gosser will hold a circle at the home of George H. Stoddard, 1420 N. 4th street, Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jones of Tulare, California, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Blanche Jones.

Alabama sheep flocks number 40,000 sheep and are expected to produce 150,000 pounds of wool this year.

SIMPLICITY KEYNOTE OF SUMMER MODE

With the complete outlawry of bizarre color schemes for fashionably dressed, chic Midway this Summer, white has come into its own, not only for costume, but for all accessories as well. Never were clothes more wearable, beautiful and sensible, if one can believe those who most certainly should know. Use of white and knitted wear serviceable frocks is aptly illustrated above by the three attractive models. The sports suit in the center is sure to be popular this Summer while the dress on the right, smartly jacketed, with pleated skirt, will run it a close second. The frock on the left will be welcomed for her part.

The Statesman has a letter from Mrs. Sarah Sharon, Yachats, Oregon, care of A. A. Stonefield, reading:

"As I have just been looking through the paper (Statesman), I see a picture of the 4th of July, 1892. Well, I was there on that very 4th enjoying life and later in that month I went east to Kansas. Was quite well acquainted with the people who operated the Cook hotel at that time, by the name of George Anderson. The hotel was on the street that the horse car line passed by on the way to the depot. Could you give me any information as to their whereabouts, whether living or not? My husband and I took care of their stock on their place four miles south of Salem known as the Woods place. My name at that time was S. F. Beck."

The Cook hotel was at the corner of High and State streets, where the Bligh building is now. The Anderson's afterwards lived in the Santiam country. It is thought at Gates. Can any reader supply Mrs. Sharon with the information she is seeking?

FROST IN WASCO
THE DALLES, Ore., June 24—(AP)—Frost was reported from the Deschutes valley today. No crops were damaged. The temperature has been unusually low here recently and the ripening of early tomatoes has been retarded.

BE ON THE LOOKOUT FOR BARGAINS IN FRUITS

As the different fruits appear in the market, you can always expect special low prices for each one. Since sugar is low in price, you can save money by putting up at least part of your requirements of canned fruits, jams and jellies. Refined cane sugar has been the standard of home canners all over the country.

Keep in touch with your fruit dealer so you can take advantage of the best prices for berries, currants, cherries, apples, quinces, plums, pears and peaches. Canned fruits belong in the diet. Preserve with refined cane sugar. The Sugar Institute.
