CANADIAN FARMERS REPORTED HARD HIT

TURNER, June 24—Ronald Shelton, arrived from northern Alberta, Canada a few days ago, and will be employed on the W. T. Riches dairy farm south of town. Crops are reported as promising in the far north province, but with low prices, the returns will be small, only 19 cents was offered for wheat last fall, and farmers were in very straitened circumstances during the winter. Many of the people are 25 miles away from a railroad. The towns are full of people trying to find employment that will bring them a little cash. Mr. Shelton has been employed near Turner before; his former home was at Roberts; he left for the north a year ago as he had already located a homestead in Alberta where his people reside; it is safe to say that Oregon never looked quite so good to the young man, as it does on his present return.

HOME IMPROVED
LYONS, June 24—Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Trank are improving their home by building on an addition which will consist of two sleeping rooms, William Butler, who is here from Los Angeles is helping with the carpenter work.
