Vows to be Taken At Large Church Ceremony

JUNE, the month for brides and roses, comes to a close with the wedding of formal church weddings witnessed in Salem in many seasons. Outstanding is the wedding of Miss Virginia Sisson and Gordon Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bennett of Salem, which will be solemnized Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the First Methodist church, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

Large artistically arranged baskets of blue delphinium and salmon pink gladioli will be combined with palms and fern, a trailing of fern being used to accentuate the chancel, which will be flanked by tall, graceful ivory tapers, of floor height, reflecting a soft glow for the bridal party. The entrance will be appropriately decorated with a floral archway of pink gladioli and greenery.

Reverend F. C. Taylor of Rose City Park Methodist church, Portland, will read the impressive ring service, assisted by Rev. B. G. Parker, pastor of the First Methodist church of Salem.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Lillian Scott will sing John Wakefield Cadman's "At Dawning," and Carrie Jacobs Bond's "I Love You Truly," with Prof. T. S. Roberts as organ player her accompaniments. Professor Roberts will also play softly during the taking of the vows, and Lohengrin's "Wedding March" will be used as a recessional.

Miss Sisson will be given in marriage by her father, Brown E. Sisson. The bride-elect, a petite maid of sparkling vivacity, has selected an exquisite gown of rich ivory satin, made beauteous with finger-length sleeves, a pointed neck, scalloped bolero effect, under which the girle will be clasped with pearls, in distinctive lines which accentuate the escalloped floor-length hemline, the ends in a semi-train. With this will be worn a single strand of pearls. Her train-length veil of lace and tulle will be caught with cream-colored gardenias. Late in the afternoon, she will carry a full shaver bouquet of ivory-colored roses and egg-shell gardenias.

Miss Virginia Holt, who will attend the bride as maid of honor, will wear a smart afternoon gown of blue net trimmed with pink, with a large picture hat of nautch-colored horsehair. Pink satin slippers, long white gloves and a semi-shower colonial bouquet will complete the costume.

The four bridesmaids and two tiny flower girls will wear dainty pastel organides made in colonial style with basque waists and floor-length tiered ruffled skirts. Soft velvet bows will be the only ornament of their effect transparent hats. Satin slippers to match their frocks, long white gloves and harmonizing colonial arm bouquets of pink sweet peas and roses will add delicacy and charm to the prettily bridal effect.

Miss Maxine Myers will wear orchid. Miss Helen Olson will wear rose, Miss Esther Wood will wear green and Miss Dorothea Leist of Portland will wear apricot.

The dainty little flower girls, one a blonde and the other a brunette, Mary Elizabeth Sisson, sister of the bride, and Maxine Martin, of Portland, niece of the groom, dressed in sheer pink organide, and carrying small baskets of rose petals, will lead the bridal party to the altar.

Mrs. Brown E. Sisson, mother of the bride, will be gowned in blue flat crepe with white collar and white accessories, and with a corsage of roses.

Lee Coe of Salem will attend the groom as best man. Ushers will be William Sisson, brother of the bride, Herbert Hobson, Robert Doy of Portland and Gene Parr of Eugene.

Immediately following the ceremony the bridal party will receive at a large formal reception at the home of the bride's parents, on the corner of 12th and 10th streets, where Miss "Jory" Holt will greet the guests at the door, while Mrs. S. S. Dow and Miss Estelle Sisson of McMinnville, Mrs. L. A. Sanderman of Seattle and Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. Earl V. McMechan and Mrs. B. Parker of Salem will assist about the living rooms.

Mrs. T. B. Groves of Wray, Colo., Mrs. W. P. Baker, Mrs. Ethel Miller, Mrs. G. Miller, Mrs. C. B. Martin, all of Portland, will cut the ices and preside at the coffee urns. Assisting in the serving will be the Misses Mary Reynolds, Ruth Hudson and Lucy Reynolds, of Portland, Miss Mildred Mitchell and Wanda Reeves of Lebanon, all Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority sisters of the bride-elect, and Miss Margaret Drager, Miss Dorothea Core, Miss Josephine McGilchrist, Miss Myra Bell and Miss Ruthita Hofmann, all of Salem.

Gladioli, roses and delphinium will be used in profusion about the spacious reception rooms of the Sisson home and the serving table will be centered with a low spreading bouquet of pink carnations, sweet peas and baby snappers, in pastel tints, with tall green tapers in silver holders casting a soft reflection.

Following the reception the young couple will leave by motor for a few weeks' wedding trip north, after which they will be "at home" in Albany. Miss Sisson has

Mr. and Mrs. Sisson Honor Bridal Party

Following the wedding rehearsal Saturday evening of the participants of the Sisson-Bennett wedding, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Sisson entertained in compliment to the entire bridal party.

An informal buffet supper served from an attractively appointed table which was centered with a dainty bouquet of pastel sweetpeas and shell pink Cecili Brunner roses, with green tapers on either side. Jefferson—A wedding of interest to the people of this community is the marriage of Harry Keene, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mabel Wright at Olympia, Wash., Wednesday, June 24.

After a short honeymoon trip, they returned to Jefferson Thursday night, and are at home to their many friends at the Mrs. Josephine Looney residence. The bride is a talented young lady, having been employed in one of the county offices for some time. Mr. Keene has been employed at the Highway garage for several years and is a man of sterling qualities.

chosen for her going away outfit, a smart ensemble of blue crepe with harmonizing accessories.

Miss Sisson was graduated from high school, where the romance heart many also attended Oregon State college, where she is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma social sorority. She has been the inspiration of many interesting social affairs since the announcement of her betrothal.

A number of prominent out-of-town people will motor to Salem for the wedding.

Federated Group Hold Joint Meeting

Brush College—Thirteen out of the 13 clubs in the Federation of rural women's clubs of Polk county sent representatives to the annual June picnic held at Dallas, 5:30 o'clock dinner was served at prettily decorated tables in the basement kitchenette of the Methodist church where the business meeting and program were held. Executive officers present were, Mrs. Wayne D. Henry, Zena, president; Mrs. Forrest Martin, Dallas, vice-president; Mrs. C. L. Blodgett acted as substitute for Mrs. A. E. Utley, Brush College, secretary. The roll call was followed by an interesting report of the health committee through whose efforts the services of Miss Margaret Gillis, health nurse, was secured. A report was given concerning the activities of Mrs. Humphreys, demonstrator for Crown flour company who will hold a cooking school at Brush College in the fall.

Other clubs are enthusiastically over the plan and her services are being secured for other points. Oak Grove has asked for two days. Mrs. Henry appointed Mrs. Paul Wallace as a member of the educational committee of the third district. A program committee to work with the executive committee for the institution to be held at Rickreall in October. Mrs. Henry appointed Mrs. Frank Fark, Oak Grove; Mrs. George Cooper, Dallas; Mrs. Myrtle E. Gilbert, and Mrs. Hershel Waite, Rickreall club.

The business meeting preceded the following program: reading by Mrs. Blodgett, an address on "Education Conservation" by president of the state federation Mrs. Charles Blyden. The main points brought forth in her talk were park study and forest protection, nature, wild flowers and highway planting, the second and consumption of Oregon products; a reading by Mary Ide Wenger, with piano accompaniment, vocal number and encore by Miss Vera Miller, reading by Mrs. L. Johnson, a general report as health nurse of Polk county by Miss Margaret Gillis who has districts of Polk county. Miss Gillis has taken nine children to the Doernbecker hospital for correction. She filed a report of her entire four months' work with the secretary of the federation, Mrs. A. E. Utley.

Following Mrs. Gillis most interesting report Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar, chairman of the tuberculosis association of Oregon and also state chairman of child welfare work held her listeners spellbound with a most interesting and worthy talk on the need of a county health nurse and the cooperation of the state tuberculosis association which paid half of Miss Margaret Gillis' salary. Mrs. Dunbar led the group in a round table discussion of both subjects preceding Mrs. E. L. Schwab, chairman, and Mrs. Charles Rundell, treasurer of Oregon Industries committee of Women's Greater Oregon association who presented to the federation members the need of an organization of Polk women in conjunction with them, their chief aim being greater use of Oregon products.

Following the reception the young couple will leave by motor for a few weeks' wedding trip north, after which they will be "at home" in Albany. Miss Sisson has Monmouth—Coming as a complete surprise to their many friends was the quiet marriage Saturday evening, June 20, of Miss Bernice Winagar, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Winagar, to Sheldon Cody, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cody, which occurred at the Monmouth Evangelical parsonage. Rev. A. L. Lonaberry officiated, witnesses being Miss Jeanetta Marks and Mrs. Lonsberry.

Miss Winagar is a graduate of all of the local schools, being a member of the June class of the Oregon Normal school this summer. Mr. Cody is a graduate of Monmouth high school and is an excellent student from the Normal school. Both are popular among the younger set. They will make their home in Corvallis where Mr. Cody is employed.

Gervais—Mrs. L. D. Mars gave a 500 party Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Marshall, for Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jelders on their wedding anniversary. This is also the 38th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall. The rooms were beautifully decorated with pink snap dragons and roses. The guests were Mrs. Fred Burgz of Woodburn, Mrs. and Mrs. Elton Raa, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jelders and Mrs. L. D. Mars of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harper of Gervais. The delightful evening was brought to a close by the serving of refreshments.

Salem maids and matrons have divided their social attention during the past week between pre-nuptial affairs and the entertainment of out of town visitors and today we present, (left), Miss Dorothy Stevens of British Columbia, house guest of Miss Margaret McAlpine; (center), Mrs. Homer Davis and daughter Armysta Sue, of Orange, California, house guest of her brother, Dr. and Mrs. Burton Myers, and Miss Margaret King, guest of honor at dance given by Miss Ruth Fick and (right), Miss Eleanor Wright.—Photos by Kennell-Ellis.

Mrs. Walter Nelson Club Hostess

Members of the G. K. P. club were guests of honor at a delightfully informal afternoon of conversation and sewing, when Mrs. Walter Nelson entertained the group in her home Friday evening.

Those who enjoyed the meeting of the club were Mrs. T. A. Rafferty, Mrs. O. H. Picketts, Mrs. W. C. Picketts, Mrs. Dale Taylor, Mrs. W. F. Foster, Mrs. K. H. Picketts, Mrs. Harry Harms, Mrs. J. F. Billeter and the hostess, Mrs. Walter Nelson. Mrs. J. F. Billeter assisted the hostess with the serving of a late supper.

Mrs. K. H. Picketts will be hostess for the July meeting of the club.

Interesting Guests Visit Capital City

Interesting out of town guests in Salem during the past week were Mrs. Frank Jordan of Seattle, house guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Myers. Mrs. Jordan has been the inspiration for a number of interesting informal affairs, since her arrival in Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wallace complimented jointly Mrs. Jordan and their own house guest, Miss Edna Sterling, also of Seattle, with a dinner Friday evening in their attractive suburban home.

Mrs. Oliver C. Locke was hostess for Mrs. Jordan with an evening of contract bridge.

Miss Sterling is spending the weekend in Salem in company with Mrs. Frank Jordan, where they will visit for a short time.

Ferrydale—The ladies of the Good Will club met Friday afternoon with Mrs. A. B. Starbuck of Dallas and Mrs. Frank Fark of Rickreall as guests, and each gave a very interesting talk. Mrs. Starbuck gave the ladies information concerning sewing for charitable institutions. The club has a small bank account, with which they plan to buy material and sew on garments for the needy. The club has purchased an organ and it adds greatly to the clubroom furniture. At the close of the afternoon a lovely lunch was served by Mrs. U. H. McKee, assisted by Doris and Clara McKee.

One of the interesting musical programs to be presented in the near future is the piano and violin recital being given Wednesday evening at the Salem Woman's club at 8 o'clock, by Joy Turner Moses. About 20 members of her study classes will be presented during the evening. Laurence Lloyd, one of the younger musicians of the city will be featured as a cornet soloist.

Miss Jessie Sims of Woodburn will be the assisting guest artist. She will give a group of dramatic readings.

The program is open to the public and a cordial invitation is extended to all interested.

Gervais—Mrs. L. D. Mars gave a 500 party Saturday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Marshall, for Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jelders on their wedding anniversary. This is also the 38th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall. The rooms were beautifully decorated with pink snap dragons and roses. The guests were Mrs. Fred Burgz of Woodburn, Mrs. and Mrs. Elton Raa, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jelders and Mrs. L. D. Mars of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harper of Gervais. The delightful evening was brought to a close by the serving of refreshments.

Mrs. C. H. Peterson Honors House Guest

Mrs. C. H. Peterson entertained in her home on West Wilson street Friday evening in honor of her house guest, Mrs. W. R. Campbell of Wisconsin.

The afternoon was spent informally with conversation and sewing, after which the guests were served from a prettily decorated table, centered with a bowl of sweetpeas in pastel colors, guarded by tall pink tapers. A number of delightful refreshments included the honor guest, Mrs. P. E. Ackerman, Mrs. J. S. Van Osdol, Mrs. Forest Fulton, Mrs. Jack Holder, Mrs. Emma Tallis, Mrs. Alice Cole, Mrs. Margaret Armstrong, Mrs. A. Blakely, Mrs. P. Blakely, Mrs. William Bufink, Mrs. M. DeLapp, Mrs. S. C. Peterson, Mrs. J. A. Persons, Mrs. Julia E. Blodgett, Mrs. J. Hunt, Mrs. F. B. Boehring, Mrs. Cora Hendry, Mrs. Frank Borden, Mrs. Theodore Bernard and Mrs. C. H. Peterson.

Mrs. Campbell has also been the house guest at the home of Mrs. E. M. Delapp during her stay in Salem.

Gervais—The Hermosa club held an interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. S. D. Manning on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. C. W. Cutsforth read a paper on the origin of the Braille system for the blind. Social conversation and discussion of the subject of the Braille system occupied the remainder of the afternoon until refreshment time. A color scheme of pink was carried out in decorations of pink sweet peas and roses. The club voted to hold a picnic August 8. This was the last club meeting until the opening of the fall season.

Members present were Mrs. Sam H. Brown, Robert Harper, Sumner Stevens, G. J. Molsan, A. DeJardin, F. H. Cannard, M. D. Hennig, G. T. Wadsworth, J. V. Keppinger and S. D. Manning. Mrs. P. W. Seely was absent due to the illness of Mr. Seely. Mrs. Otto Schwab of Silverton and Mrs. A. B. Adkisson were invited guests.

Aurora—At the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Miller of Molalla, which was erected last summer on a part of the old Cole homestead where Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cole originally settled. A family reunion was held which proved so pleasant that it was decided to make it an annual affair. Grand father Cole as he was known to everyone, operated a saw mill here for many years.

Those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Miller and family, J. R. Cole and family, Ben Cole and family, Bert Cole and family and Al Cutting and family, all of Molalla; Alvin Condit and family of Vancouver, Wash.; Claud Nessler and family of Hillsboro, O. H. Beals and family of Corvallis, Sid Powers and family of Salem; A. B. Cole and family of Canby; N. E. Cole and family and Col. Lester Cole and family of Walla Walla. Over 70 were present.

Arrangements are being made for the annual Nebraska picnic which will be held Sunday, July 12, at the state fairgrounds.

Wives of Editors Honored When In Salem

Wives of visiting editors, who have been in the city during the past week have been entertained with a number of delightful social functions. Wednesday the group were taken for an interesting motor trip, visiting the state institutions with tea being served by Mrs. Clara Patterson, one of the girls' industrial school, during their brief stay there. From there they were taken to the Putnam gardens where cool and refreshing punch was served by the hostess and her committee.

The outstanding affair complimenting the visiting ladies was the bridge tea Saturday afternoon at Hlathoe country club, when about forty guests were entertained with a delightful afternoon of cards.

High score for the afternoon was awarded Mrs. C. C. Chapman at Portland, with Mrs. Arne Rao of Eugene winning consolation prize. The door prize was won by Mrs. Elbert Bede, of Cottage Grove.

Following the entire group, including the men of the party, will be taken to Tart where they will be guests of the Tart chamber of commerce at a specially arranged dinner.

Lee Coe Honors Groom-to-Be

In compliment to Gordon Bennett, whose wedding to Miss Virginia Sisson, popular bride-elect, will be an event of Sunday afternoon, Lee Coe entertained with a 9 o'clock bachelor dinner in his home on South High street. The host, Lee Coe, presided at the table as toastmaster, calling upon each guest for an impromptu toast to the groom-to-be. Those who were invited to enjoy the evening were the honor guest, Gordon Bennett, Herbert Hobson, Joseph Darby, Gene Parr, Robert Anthony, Francis Gamble of Portland, Joe Boyington of Astoria, William Sisson recently returned from New York, and the host, Lee Coe.

Talbot—The Good Cheer Sunday school class was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Belknap Tuesday evening after a short business meeting, and devotional service.
