

DAILY FACES NEW CHARGES

Representative of Women's Civic League Appears
Before Board Here

(Continued from page 1)

prejudiced in favor of Mr. Baillie, and that at least two of the members regretted that they had signed the report in which he was exonerated.

"Then you don't think much of the welfare commission's report," remarked Hoss in addressing Mrs. Nicholson.

"No, I don't," she replied. "If the report of the commission had been unfavorable to Baillie you would have been satisfied, wouldn't you?" queried William Elzing, secretary of the board of control.

"I don't want to talk to you," replied Mrs. Nicholson. "I hold no animosity against any member of this board or Mr. Baillie, but I am interested in the welfare of our boys."

Governor Meier then asked Mrs. Nicholson if she would at least recognize Mr. Elzing. She replied that she would.

Abraham Levey, father of Vernon Levey, then asked for permission to say a word in this case. "Where do you come in on this case?" inquired the governor.

Mr. Levey then asked Mr. Elzing regarding a conversation which they were alleged to have had in a local hotel.

Governor Meier then declared that it would be untimely and unfair to hold the proposed investigation at this time, and suggested that it be made a special order of business at some future date. This was satisfactory to other members of the board.

CHAMBER TO URGE STATE PARK WORK

(Continued from page 1)

to make it more convenient for visitors. An enlarged parking space might be provided.

President Crawford announced he would study over the matter of selections of members of the two committees and announce the names later.

Monday afternoon Governor Meier appointed a committee to act in an advisory capacity for the board of control in making recommendations relative to the care and maintenance of the Chamber park.

On the committee he named Mrs. L. L. Patterson, Mrs. W. H. Saxton, Mrs. A. E. Austin, Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. C. D. Wilson, C. K. Spaulding and Rufus Holmes.

The committee meets next Monday here.

Appeal is Filed Upon Deschutes Courthouse Plan

Appeal was filed in the state supreme court Monday in the case brought by George H. Browster of Bend to determine whether Deschutes county has authority to enter into a contract with Phil R. Brooks, for the erection of a courthouse which would be paid for on a monthly basis of $575. The building would become the property of the county at the end of 17 years.

Under the agreement the building would be erected on county land. The county is now paying a monthly rental of $1200 for its courthouse facilities.

Clues Lacking To Holdup Here Saturday Night

Police were without any new clues to the identity of three gunless highwaymen who late Saturday afternoon held up Mrs. A. L. Smith, route five, and took two dollars from her.

The men trailed Mrs. Smith as she was driving into town on the Garden road. They shot their car past her and blocked the route of her auto. One jumped out of the car and demanded her money. None of the three men exhibited a gun.

Police have a fairly accurate description of the highwayman.

Editor of Coos Bay Paper Weds

MARSHFIELD, Ore., June 29.—(AP)—Friends here were advised today that C. J. Gillette, managing editor of the Coos Bay Times, and Sadie Elizabeth Sackett of Seattle, were married in San Francisco this morning. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George B. Pratt of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Gillette are expected here July 1.

STARR'S MESSAGE OF DEATH

Lord & Taylor
From London
New York

Vernon Meier

Trade Bill One Thing
We are all up with

new. This is something going to put through. The only thing that bothers us about it is the only thing I dread is being outwitted and prevented from doing this - which is the only possible thing for us to do. If we want to get away with murder our has to go, well keep our wits about us. It's war with suicide. If I live out I will without psychopathic ward, but I to watch out and be as sure this time

Starr Faithfull's last letter to Dr. G. Jameson Carr, ship's surgeon, with whom she was allegedly infatuated, and which contained a reference to taking her life, is reproduced above. The letter was begun with "Hello, Bill. Old thing."

Its contents follow. "It is all up with me now. This is something I am going to put through. The only thing that bothers me about it, the only thing that I dread, is being outwitted and prevented from doing this—which is the only possible thing for me to do. When one wants to get away with murder, one has to jolly well keep one's wits about one. It is the same way with suicide. If I don't watch out I will wake up in a psychopathic ward, but I intend to watch out and accomplish my end this time." Starr and Dr. Carr are shown in inserts.

Starr Faithfull's last letter to Dr. G. Jameson Carr, ship's surgeon, with whom she was allegedly infatuated, and which contained a reference to taking her life, is reproduced above. The letter was begun with "Hello, Bill. Old thing."

Its contents follow. "It is all up with me now. This is something I am going to put through. The only thing that bothers me about it, the only thing that I dread, is being outwitted and prevented from doing this—which is the only possible thing for me to do. When one wants to get away with murder, one has to jolly well keep one's wits about one. It is the same way with suicide. If I don't watch out I will wake up in a psychopathic ward, but I intend to watch out and accomplish my end this time." Starr and Dr. Carr are shown in inserts.

Starr Faithfull's last letter to Dr. G. Jameson Carr, ship's surgeon, with whom she was allegedly infatuated, and which contained a reference to taking her life, is reproduced above. The letter was begun with "Hello, Bill. Old thing."

Its contents follow. "It is all up with me now. This is something I am going to put through. The only thing that bothers me about it, the only thing that I dread, is being outwitted and prevented from doing this—which is the only possible thing for me to do. When one wants to get away with murder, one has to jolly well keep one's wits about one. It is the same way with suicide. If I don't watch out I will wake up in a psychopathic ward, but I intend to watch out and accomplish my end this time." Starr and Dr. Carr are shown in inserts.

Starr Faithfull's last letter to Dr. G. Jameson Carr, ship's surgeon, with whom she was allegedly infatuated, and which contained a reference to taking her life, is reproduced above. The letter was begun with "Hello, Bill. Old thing."

Its contents follow. "It is all up with me now. This is something I am going to put through. The only thing that bothers me about it, the only thing that I dread, is being outwitted and prevented from doing this—which is the only possible thing for me to do. When one wants to get away with murder, one has to jolly well keep one's wits about one. It is the same way with suicide. If I don't watch out I will wake up in a psychopathic ward, but I intend to watch out and accomplish my end this time." Starr and Dr. Carr are shown in inserts.

Starr Faithfull's last letter to Dr. G. Jameson Carr, ship's surgeon, with whom she was allegedly infatuated, and which contained a reference to taking her life, is reproduced above. The letter was begun with "Hello, Bill. Old thing."

Its contents follow. "It is all up with me now. This is something I am going to put through. The only thing that bothers me about it, the only thing that I dread, is being outwitted and prevented from doing this—which is the only possible thing for me to do. When one wants to get away with murder, one has to jolly well keep one's wits about one. It is the same way with suicide. If I don't watch out I will wake up in a psychopathic ward, but I intend to watch out and accomplish my end this time." Starr and Dr. Carr are shown in inserts.

Starr Faithfull's last letter to Dr. G. Jameson Carr, ship's surgeon, with whom she was allegedly infatuated, and which contained a reference to taking her life, is reproduced above. The letter was begun with "Hello, Bill. Old thing."

Its contents follow. "It is all up with me now. This is something I am going to put through. The only thing that bothers me about it, the only thing that I dread, is being outwitted and prevented from doing this—which is the only possible thing for me to do. When one wants to get away with murder, one has to jolly well keep one's wits about one. It is the same way with suicide. If I don't watch out I will wake up in a psychopathic ward, but I intend to watch out and accomplish my end this time." Starr and Dr. Carr are shown in inserts.

Starr Faithfull's last letter to Dr. G. Jameson Carr, ship's surgeon, with whom she was allegedly infatuated, and which contained a reference to taking her life, is reproduced above. The letter was begun with "Hello, Bill. Old thing."

Its contents follow. "It is all up with me now. This is something I am going to put through. The only thing that bothers me about it, the only thing that I dread, is being outwitted and prevented from doing this—which is the only possible thing for me to do. When one wants to get away with murder, one has to jolly well keep one's wits about one. It is the same way with suicide. If I don't watch out I will wake up in a psychopathic ward, but I intend to watch out and accomplish my end this time." Starr and Dr. Carr are shown in inserts.

Starr Faithfull's last letter to Dr. G. Jameson Carr, ship's surgeon, with whom she was allegedly infatuated, and which contained a reference to taking her life, is reproduced above. The letter was begun with "Hello, Bill. Old thing."

Its contents follow. "It is all up with me now. This is something I am going to put through. The only thing that bothers me about it, the only thing that I dread, is being outwitted and prevented from doing this—which is the only possible thing for me to do. When one wants to get away with murder, one has to jolly well keep one's wits about one. It is the same way with suicide. If I don't watch out I will wake up in a psychopathic ward, but I intend to watch out and accomplish my end this time." Starr and Dr. Carr are shown in inserts.

Starr Faithfull's last letter to Dr. G. Jameson Carr, ship's surgeon, with whom she was allegedly infatuated, and which contained a reference to taking her life, is reproduced above. The letter was begun with "Hello, Bill. Old thing."

Its contents follow. "It is all up with me now. This is something I am going to put through. The only thing that bothers me about it, the only thing that I dread, is being outwitted and prevented from doing this—which is the only possible thing for me to do. When one wants to get away with murder, one has to jolly well keep one's wits about one. It is the same way with suicide. If I don't watch out I will wake up in a psychopathic ward, but I intend to watch out and accomplish my end this time." Starr and Dr. Carr are shown in inserts.

Starr Faithfull's last letter to Dr. G. Jameson Carr, ship's surgeon, with whom she was allegedly infatuated, and which contained a reference to taking her life, is reproduced above. The letter was begun with "Hello, Bill. Old thing."

Its contents follow. "It is all up with me now. This is something I am going to put through. The only thing that bothers me about it, the only thing that I dread, is being outwitted and prevented from doing this—which is the only possible thing for me to do. When one wants to get away with murder, one has to jolly well keep one's wits about one. It is the same way with suicide. If I don't watch out I will wake up in a psychopathic ward, but I intend to watch out and accomplish my end this time." Starr and Dr. Carr are shown in inserts.

Starr Faithfull's last letter to Dr. G. Jameson Carr, ship's surgeon, with whom she was allegedly infatuated, and which contained a reference to taking her life, is reproduced above. The letter was begun with "Hello, Bill. Old thing."

Its contents follow. "It is all up with me now. This is something I am going to put through. The only thing that bothers me about it, the only thing that I dread, is being outwitted and prevented from doing this—which is the only possible thing for me to do. When one wants to get away with murder, one has to jolly well keep one's wits about one. It is the same way with suicide. If I don't watch out I will wake up in a psychopathic ward, but I intend to watch out and accomplish my end this time." Starr and Dr. Carr are shown in inserts.

Starr Faithfull's last letter to Dr. G. Jameson Carr, ship's surgeon, mileage to their world flight, with Fairbanks to the east of the course they would have followed in a direct hop to Edmonton, but the Fairbanks-Edmonton hop is a shorter one.

POST, GATTY CROSS BERING TO ALASKA

(Continued from page 1)

NOME, Alaska, June 29.—(AP)—Wiley Post and Harold Gatty, "round the world fliers," landed at Solomon, 36 miles east of here at 2:45 p. m. (4:45 p. m. P. S. T.) today. They were not sighted over Nome.

The landing was 16 hours and 45 minutes after the takeoff from Khabarovsk, eastern Siberia, a distance of about 2400 miles. The fliers averaged about 150 miles an hour in their dash over Okhotsk Sea, Kamchatka peninsula and Bering Sea.

Solomon is a trading post and native village eastward on Seward peninsula from Nome. It is connected with Nome by a telephone line. The settlement was established in 1902 after the Nome gold rush.

Great Preparations Are Made at Nome

The landing was in broad daylight. The landing was in broad daylight.

Elaborate preparations had been made for the reception of the fliers in Nome where the airfield, on a hill overlooking the town, had been lengthened to assist the aviators take off with their heavy load of fuel on the next hop to Edmonton, Alberta.

Tents and beds had been erected on the field to enable Post and Gatty to rest while their ship was refueled.

By their hop to Solomon, the fliers added approximately 2400 miles to their elapsed flight distance around the world, bringing their total mileage to 11,410 miles.

Their flying time for the distance was three days, four hours and 10 minutes.

The sturdy "Winnie Mae," left Roosevelt Field, N. Y., at 3:56 a. m., last Tuesday morning. They landed again on the North American continent six days, 16 hours and 45 minutes later.

Elaborate preparations had been made for the reception of the fliers in Nome where the airfield, on a hill overlooking the town, had been lengthened to assist the aviators take off with their heavy load of fuel on the next hop to Edmonton, Alberta.

Tents and beds had been erected on the field to enable Post and Gatty to rest while their ship was refueled.

By their hop to Solomon, the fliers added approximately 2400 miles to their elapsed flight distance around the world, bringing their total mileage to 11,410 miles.

Their flying time for the distance was three days, four hours and 10 minutes.

The sturdy "Winnie Mae," left Roosevelt Field, N. Y., at 3:56 a. m., last Tuesday morning. They landed again on the North American continent six days, 16 hours and 45 minutes later.

Elaborate preparations had been made for the reception of the fliers in Nome where the airfield, on a hill overlooking the town, had been lengthened to assist the aviators take off with their heavy load of fuel on the next hop to Edmonton, Alberta.

Tents and beds had been erected on the field to enable Post and Gatty to rest while their ship was refueled.

By their hop to Solomon, the fliers added approximately 2400 miles to their elapsed flight distance around the world, bringing their total mileage to 11,410 miles.

Their flying time for the distance was three days, four hours and 10 minutes.

The sturdy "Winnie Mae," left Roosevelt Field, N. Y., at 3:56 a. m., last Tuesday morning. They landed again on the North American continent six days, 16 hours and 45 minutes later.

Elaborate preparations had been made for the reception of the fliers in Nome where the airfield, on a hill overlooking the town, had been lengthened to assist the aviators take off with their heavy load of fuel on the next hop to Edmonton, Alberta.

Tents and beds had been erected on the field to enable Post and Gatty to rest while their ship was refueled.

By their hop to Solomon, the fliers added approximately 2400 miles to their elapsed flight distance around the world, bringing their total mileage to 11,410 miles.

Their flying time for the distance was three days, four hours and 10 minutes.

The sturdy "Winnie Mae," left Roosevelt Field, N. Y., at 3:56 a. m., last Tuesday morning. They landed again on the North American continent six days, 16 hours and 45 minutes later.

Elaborate preparations had been made for the reception of the fliers in Nome where the airfield, on a hill overlooking the town, had been lengthened to assist the aviators take off with their heavy load of fuel on the next hop to Edmonton, Alberta.

Tents and beds had been erected on the field to enable Post and Gatty to rest while their ship was refueled.

By their hop to Solomon, the fliers added approximately 2400 miles to their elapsed flight distance around the world, bringing their total mileage to 11,410 miles.

Their flying time for the distance was three days, four hours and 10 minutes.

The sturdy "Winnie Mae," left Roosevelt Field, N. Y., at 3:56 a. m., last Tuesday morning. They landed again on the North American continent six days, 16 hours and 45 minutes later.

Elaborate preparations had been made for the reception of the fliers in Nome where the airfield, on a hill overlooking the town, had been lengthened to assist the aviators take off with their heavy load of fuel on the next hop to Edmonton, Alberta.

Tents and beds had been erected on the field to enable Post and Gatty to rest while their ship was refueled.

By their hop to Solomon, the fliers added approximately 2400 miles to their elapsed flight distance around the world, bringing their total mileage to 11,410 miles.

Their flying time for the distance was three days, four hours and 10 minutes.

The sturdy "Winnie Mae," left Roosevelt Field, N. Y., at 3:56 a. m., last Tuesday morning. They landed again on the North American continent six days, 16 hours and 45 minutes later.

Elaborate preparations had been made for the reception of the fliers in Nome where the airfield, on a hill overlooking the town, had been lengthened to assist the aviators take off with their heavy load of fuel on the next hop to Edmonton, Alberta.

Tents and beds had been erected on the field to enable Post and Gatty to rest while their ship was refueled.

By their hop to Solomon, the fliers added approximately 2400 miles to their elapsed flight distance around the world, bringing their total mileage to 11,410 miles.

Their flying time for the distance was three days, four hours and 10 minutes.

The sturdy "Winnie Mae," left Roosevelt Field, N. Y., at 3:56 a. m., last Tuesday morning. They landed again on the North American continent six days, 16 hours and 45 minutes later.

Elaborate preparations had been made for the reception of the fliers in Nome where the airfield, on a hill overlooking the town, had been lengthened to assist the aviators take off with their heavy load of fuel on the next hop to Edmonton, Alberta.

Tents and beds had been erected on the field to enable Post and Gatty to rest while their ship was refueled.

By their hop to Solomon, the fliers added approximately 2400 miles to their elapsed flight distance around the world, bringing their total mileage to 11,410 miles.

Their flying time for the distance was three days, four hours and 10 minutes.

The sturdy "Winnie Mae," left Roosevelt Field, N. Y., at 3:56 a. m., last Tuesday morning. They landed again on the North American continent six days, 16 hours and 45 minutes later.

Elaborate preparations had been made for the reception of the fliers in Nome where the airfield, on a hill overlooking the town, had been lengthened to assist the aviators take off with their heavy load of fuel on the next hop to Edmonton, Alberta.

Tents and beds had been erected on the field to enable Post and Gatty to rest while their ship was refueled.

By their hop to Solomon, the fliers added approximately 2400 miles to their elapsed flight distance around the world, bringing their total mileage to 11,410 miles.

Their flying time for the distance was three days, four hours and 10 minutes.

The sturdy "Winnie Mae," left Roosevelt Field, N. Y., at 3:56 a. m., last Tuesday morning. They landed again on the North American continent six days, 16 hours and 45 minutes later.

The Call Board ..

By OLIVE M. DOAK

WARNER BROS. ELGINORE

Today—Wallace Beery in "The Secret Six."

Wednesday—William Powell in "Ladies' Man."

Friday—Winnie Lightner in "Gold Dust Gertie."

THE GRAND

Today—Janet Gaynor in "The Man Who Came Back."

Wednesday—Loretta Young in "Truth About Youth."

Friday—El Brendel in "Mr. Lemon or Orange."

THE HOLLYWOOD

Today—Gary Cooper in "Fighting Caravan."

Wednesday—Ruth Chatterton in "Unfaithful."

Friday—Buster Keaton in "Parlor, Bedroom and Bath."

Don't have the mumps, Dere Public, it knocks the schedule of exhibitors into a muddle, pieces and leaves the individual sitting in the middle of the fragments with a swelled face and no "come back."

However, after three weeks of "resting" while the mumps, and what have you, got ready to leave and a kindly doctor pronounced a verdict that I was again fit for circulation in the stream of mankind I am staging a come back which I most heartily hope will be permanent.

It is written that each experience has its peculiar value—there is only one value to be placed on mumps in my estimation—one finds out how many splendid friends one has—an experience worth the price.

If you happen to be the voice box for the theatres and you fall prey to mumps there is an added value to the affliction—you get some real smiles from the theatre managers upon return to your job. That alone is an experience unique and solitary.

Now a word about the shows. This is the last day for a chance to see Wallace Beery in "The Secret Six," at the Warner Bros. Elsinore.

You will remember his solo work in "The Big House" and also his splendid team work with Marie Dressler in "Min and Bill." His work in "The Secret Six," a play concerning crooked politics in a city, gives him an opportunity to swagger, make wise remarks in his crude and highly amusing manner, and to do some heart contracting dramatic acting at the close of the play.

The story begins in the city life of politics and ends in the condemned cell of a prison. You will find the play an engrossing one.

Don't forget to save some nickles for the polished gentleman of the screen, William Powell, who will be seen in "Ladies' Man" at Warner Bros. Elsinore beginning Wednesday. That play should be one to remember for Powell knows how to be a "Ladies' Man" in a way that is infallible.

At the Grand for the last time today is Charles Farrell in "The Man Who Came Back" and it is their posts: Dr. W. W. Youngson, Portland, and Dr. Thomas D. Yarnes, Cascade district.

CHANGES IN SALEM DISTRICT ARE FEW

(Continued from page 1)

Throughout the conference the bishop stressed that the questions of world peace and industrial justice are to be solved through emphasis of Christianity.

Complete list of appointments in the Salem district follows: Amity, P. L. Cancell; Albany, D. H. Leach; Astoria, G. A. Gray; Bay City, S. Raynor Smith; Brownsville, Everett Cole; Brooks, G. C. Dix; Colfax, D. C. Folsom; Corvallis, G. A. Gray; Curvallis, J. E. Milligan; Creswell and Unity, W. A. Walker; Independence and Buena Vista, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Jefferson, T. H. Downs; Junction City, W. B. Empey; Klamath Falls, E. J. Aschenbrenner; La Grange, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Lyons, Clark Wood; Marshfield, L. C. Kirby; Marquam, George Cole; McMinnville and McCall, Thomas Hardie; Monroe and Alpine, Robert Parker; Warrenton, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Seaside and Wheeler, J. J. R. Shaffer; Newberg and Sherwood, W. B. Empey; Newland, G. A. Gray; North Bend, G. C. Morris; Oak Grove Chapel, W. B. Warner; Oakridge and West Fir, W. A. Walker; Prater, Edwin Rouse; Riverview, W. B. Empey; Salem, First, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Second, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Third, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Fourth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Fifth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Sixth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Seventh, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Eighth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Ninth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Tenth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Eleventh, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Twelfth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Thirteenth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Fourteenth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Fifteenth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Sixteenth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Seventeenth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Eighteenth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Nineteenth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Twentieth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Twenty-first, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Twenty-second, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Twenty-third, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Twenty-fourth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Twenty-fifth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Twenty-sixth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Twenty-seventh, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Twenty-eighth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Twenty-ninth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Thirtieth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Thirty-first, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Thirty-second, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Thirty-third, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Thirty-fourth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Thirty-fifth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Thirty-sixth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Thirty-seventh, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Thirty-eighth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Thirty-ninth, E. J. Aschenbrenner; Salem, Fortieth,