July Fourth Plans Under Way

The noisy Fourth of July, which from its origin to the present day has been 24 hours of sputtering explosives, is centering attention upon itself for this year. It has now for its greatest attraction 24 hours of holiday from the labor for many thousand mortals and plans are being rapidly arranged for a happy expenditure of these hours.

Many are not yet sure just what they will do. One of the largest and most interesting parties, one which has become very nearly traditional, is that given by Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hofer at their home on the banks of Lake Oswego. Among the Salem people who will enjoy with the Hofer's boating, swimming, picnic meals, and a very happy time this Fourth will be Mr. and Mrs. Donald Young, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mr. and Mrs. John Carson, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Callaghan will entertain Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Laddlaw for the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Loy Simmons will spend the Fourth of July weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Slade at the Slade beach home at Agate Beach.

Add this is only the beginning of those plans which will relieve the monotony of the days of business and social routine.

Marks-Van Loam Nuptials Told

King's Valley—One of the most beautiful weddings to take place in this community for some time, was that of Miss Clara Belle Marks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Marks of Summit, Oregon, to Eldon Hugh VanLoam of Monmouth Wednesday at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Chester Chambers.

The wedding vows were read by Reverend Foggs of King's Valley. The bridal group stood before the fireplace in the living room which had been banked with wild orange blossoms, ocean spray, Madonna lilies, and fox gloves, with a large bouquet of Royal lilies as the keynote of the beautiful floral display.

The bride was beautiful in an orchid georgette gown of ankle length. She carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses, orchid sweetpeas and maidenhair fern. A buffet luncheon was served after the ceremony. Mrs. David Ayers presiding at the coffee urn. The dining room was decorated with canterberry bells, marigolds, ocean spray and blue bells to harmonize with the blue and gold of the table service and lunch cloth.

Mrs. Van Loam graduated from the Oregon state normal after which she taught for several years in surrounding communities and last year in the Lincoln school at Corvallis. Mr. Van Loam attended Oregon state college, and is now employed in Monmouth.

Only immediate families of the bridal couple were present for the ceremony.

Among these were Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Marks, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Van Loam, Mr. and Mrs. W. L.

Van Loam, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Chambers and small daughter Marvieve, George A. Marks, Mrs. David Ayers, and Reverend and Mrs. Foggs.
