Clouds of anxiety that hung over the Gatty home in Los Angeles took on a silver lining when the radio boomed out "the good news" over the ether that Gatty and Wylie Post, his co-pilot, had literally burned in their ocean dash to Berlin. Mrs. Gatty and family heard the ovation given her brave husband and his mate and his greeting to the world, flashed by radio. Above photo shows Mrs. Harold Gatty and her children, Alan, five years old, Lindsay, three, and last but not least, Ronald, who will be two next month.
