

TURNER GROUP HAS JUBILEE

Group Organized 12 Years Ago Enjoys Homecoming Celebration

TURNER, June 30—A special program was given at the Christian church Sunday evening, giving the history of the organization and growth of the local church which was organized October 19, 1919, at what was then the unused Presbyterian church, which was used for worship for over four years, before moving into the present beautiful memorial church, the gift of Mrs. Cornelia Turner Davis.

The church was organized by Rev. R. L. Putman who was then pastor of the Bungalow Christian church of Salem. He came to Turner and preached Sunday afternoons until a pastor could be found to take up the new work.

Following are the names of the charter members: Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Miller, Mrs. F. C. Delsell, Thelma Delsell, Mrs. Sam Eastburn, Mrs. G. A. McKay, Mrs. Malinda Barzee, Mrs. Malinda Chambers, Mrs. Aveline Delsell, Felten, Mrs. Ariene Napier, Mrs. Maud Bones, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Denham, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Powers and daughter Reva, Mrs. William Butake, and Miss Mary Davy.

A short memorial service was held honoring the three deceased members who are Ariene Napier, Ivan Miller and Mrs. Malinda Chambers. Mrs. F. C. Delsell gave the church history which was full of interest. Mention was made of the big revival meeting, held in the spring of 1920 and the church membership grew to 116.

Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Putman were present Sunday evening. Rev. Putman gave the sermon. The music was under the direction of H. C. Epley. Rev. E. J. Gilstrap will soon finish his second year as pastor of the church.

NO NEW CLUE IN IVERSON CASE

SILVERTON, June 30—The murderer of H. J. Iverson, night patrolman here, is still a matter of conjecture, and local authorities are of the belief that he will never be brought to justice. Thursday marks the second month since the patrolman was shot down in cold blood, early in the morning.

Local police and county authorities have practically exhausted every available clue, and are no nearer the solution of the crime than two months ago. It is said, however, that the authorities are still working on several fragmentary bits of evidence.

Luke May, Seattle criminologist who was paid $1000 to work on the case, has reported nothing since his return north. Whether he will continue with the case is not known, it is said.

CAMP OPENS AGAIN

LYONS, June 30—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cone drove to Portland Friday expecting to remain some time for a visit with Mrs. Cone's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrews and family. The logging camp where Mr. Cone was employed closed Thursday not expecting to run for a while, but other arrangements were made Saturday and they will start work again today. Mr. Cone was notified and returned to work. Mrs. Cone will remain in the city for a longer visit.

HERE FROM CALIFORNIA

SILVERTON, June 30—Mark Paulson and Don Stewart who have been living in Los Angeles and El Monte, California, for the past few months returned to Silvertion Friday. They report that the heat in Southern California has been terrific for the last several weeks. They will return south after a month's visit here. Paulson formerly had a law office in this city, and was representative at the legislative session of 1927.

STAGE DISCONTINUED

SILVERTON, June 30—The Silvertion-Salem stage, operated twice daily, will be discontinued after July 6, according to an announcement of Joseph Hammond, operator. The service was started a few months ago, following the withdrawal of the Southern Pacific busses. Lack of business is given as the cause for the discontinuance of the stage. The new move will leave Silvertion without direct service to Salem.

GOING TO ALASKA

SILVERTON, June 30—Mrs. C. R. Wilson of this city left the first part of the week for Seattle where she will embark on the steamship Aleutian for Alaska. She plans to spend two months in the north visiting two brothers, Valen and Tommy Gilmore, who are living near Cordova. Valen Gilmore's wife is a sister of Dr. Wilson, who will sail for Alaska in a month for a few weeks' visit, and to return with his wife.

PASTOR TO REMAIN

SILVERTON, June 30—The Rev. W. S. Gordon, who has been pastor of the local M. E. church for the past year, will continue in that appointment for another year, according to word received from the 79th annual conference of the Oregon Methodist Episcopal church at Eugene. The Rev. Gordon is popular in the community, coming here a year ago from a Portland pastorate.

SILVERTON, June 30—Otto

Alm, a member of the firm of Julius Alm and Sons of this city, is enjoying a few days' vacation at Wenatchee, Washington, where he is visiting Louis Beck and Herman Quall, former Silvertion residents. Ardis Egan is taking Mr. Alm's place at the store.

New Residents In Silvertion

SILVERTON, June 30—Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Frisbie and family are planning to move to Hood River this week, where Mr. Frisbie will be assistant manager with the Cougher Motor company, Ford dealers. The Frisbies formerly lived in Hood River. Until recently Mr. Frisbie owned the local Ford agency, selling to C. H. Albright of Molalla.

The Albrights moved their household goods to Silvertion last week and are occupying a house at 520 Third street. Mr. Albright is also owner of the Molalla Ford agency.

ON LONG TRIP

TURNER, June 30—Mr. and Mrs. Neal Edwards returned to Turner the last of the week after vacationing in the Hood River country. They packed their household goods and stored them for the summer; they will spend some time at the parental, T. J. Edwards home at Monmouth and will likely take a trip to San Francisco with Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Edwards, as Mr. Edwards is again troubled with cataracts on his eyes and wishes to see his eye specialist who has moved to California. Mr. and Mrs. Neal Edwards hope to find a farm location by fall.

GOING TO PARKLAND

SILVERTON, June 30—Many local people are planning to leave this week end for Parkland, Wash., where the 1931 Pacific Lutheran chautauqua opens on July 4, continuing until the 10th. Among the speakers on the opening day are Mayor Tennant of Tacoma and the Rev. J. P. Flueger of Pacific Lutheran college. An afternoon program of music and sports is being planned for the Fourth of July.

PRATUM S. S. PLANS PICNIC

Annual Event to be Staged July 4 in Pratum Grove

PRATUM, June 30—On account of the fact that the Methodist conference at Eugene and the Mennonite conference at Portland were both in session last Sunday and each church had a large representation at their conference the attendance at the district Sunday school convention at Hayesville last Sunday from this community was not at large as usual.

The annual Sunday school picnic will be held at the picnic grounds about one mile southwest of Pratum with its usual amount of sports consisting of races and games, several ball games, horse shoe pitching and various other attractions, also refreshments. Everybody is welcome.

Silvertion Couple In New Home

SILVERTON, June 30—Mr. and Mrs. Floyd C. (Dick) Whitted returned to Silvertion Saturday the Oregon beaches. They were married in Portland a week ago Saturday.

Mr. Whitted is well known in the community, having been employed as a pharmacist at the George W. Steelhammer drug store for seven years. Mrs. Whitted, nee Mable Wood, has made her home in Portland where she has been teaching in the English department at Grant high school. She is a graduate of Stanford university, and Mr. Whitted of Oregon State. They will reside in one of the Cal Schlador's houses on Newlwyed avenue.

CHAMPOEG TO CELEBRATE JULY 4

Senator Jay Upton of Bend will be the orator of the day at Champeog park July Fourth, and Senator W. C. Burke of Yamhill county is president for the day.

The Declaration of Independence will be read by Alfonso Shipley of Seattle, a grand-nephew of Rev. Gustavus Hines, who on July Fourth, 1843, delivered the address celebrating the first event of its kind in what is now Oregon. The Shipleys will also furnish patriotic music for the day. At the close of the program there will be a parade of the old-fashioned plug-uglies, which was always a feature of the Fourth in pioneer days.

OUT OF HOSPITAL

LYONS, June 30—Aldred Martin returned home from the Albany General hospital the last of the week. He has been there for several weeks as a result of the car accident when he and his wife were injured quite severely. Mrs. Martin has his leg in a cast but is able to be around the house. His knee was badly crushed, but is improving very satisfactory considering the condition of the injury. The Martins' many friends are glad for their speedy recovery. Mrs. Cad-dy Martin has been here from Oceanside helping care for her son and his wife since their accident.

SILVERTON MEN SERIOUSLY ILL

SILVERTON, June 30—Palmer Sorteberg is seriously ill at the Silvertion hospital where he was rushed Friday evening, suffering from a paralytic stroke. Sorteberg, who lives alone, was found by neighbors some hours after his illness overtook him.

George Meyers, mail carrier from Scotts Mills to Silvertion, was taken to the hospital Saturday. He has been seriously ill with heart trouble for some time. His son LaNoel is carrying the mail.

Both men were taken to the hospital in the Jack and Ekman ambulance.
